

Dear Sidney.

I'm so sorry about the telegrams - and so sorry, too, not to have had the chance to be with you. But Tennessee and I decided not to make the trip.

So I intend to be here all winter.

I do wish you could come up here. What are the chances of your visiting me?

I don't get any better - and

I late living like this.

I think of you so often.

Do try to come up when you have a few days free.

And write soon.

Fondly

T. Mason
