calyx  for  nineteen  fifty  five

• an annual published by the students of Washington and Lee University in Lexington, Virginia.
Each June the seniors at Washington and Lee come to the end of their undergraduate careers. Four years is a big investment when you’re in your twenties. In the last hectic days, we realize that our short stay has ended and that life will soon take us to different places where new adjustments must be made. Washington and Lee will be a part of the past. We will never be able to relive or recall the whole of these four years. What we will remember will be fragments of our experiences here and their significance may not be the criteria by which they are recalled.
Education has been the reason for our being here. But even what we have learned and all that has stimulated our minds cannot be recalled in full. In the final analysis, it is only people that matter. And so what we take from this university will be in part the memory of a few men who helped us discover things of which we were unaware, and the contents of a few great books by men we may never know—men who spoke to us through the written word. A few men and a few books may seem a small return on a four year investment, but from men and books come ideas and it is only ideas that lead men to action.
Other activities have played a part too, for education has not been our sole endeavor. Perhaps we have weighed in our minds those "extra" things. In retrospect, we may discover the reason why it was worthwhile to spend long hours helping to get out a school paper, or why it was important for the Executive Committee to work several days on some small problem, just to reach the best solution.

And then there were the dances and the parties—those weekends when "the Hill" was pretty much out of the question. Even the good times will be remembered only as fragments. We may recall the people and the noise, or perhaps only one person and the still of a spring night. During these four years, some of us have met the girl who will be the Only One forever. Or perhaps she was the Only One for just a few weeks. In any case, there was love and laughter.
The mind has struggled, but the muscles have labored also. Possibly we starred but more than likely, we were just another of those who shared the blood and sweat of being on the team. Funny how the practices always seemed much harder than the games. There was tired happiness when we won, and, occasionally, tears when we lost. A university is a community and the people that matter most are the ones with whom we lived and worked. Out of the hundreds of faces, the noisy meals, the beer and Glenn Miller records, will remain a handful of true friends. Odd, though, how easy it is to recall the terrible loneliness of the first freshman days. Strange, that on the eve of graduation that loneliness should be the same.
For his devoted service to our University as Librarian . . .
For his sincere interest in the lives of we the students . . .
For his warm friendship we have been fortunate to share . . .
Realizing his presence has helped make us better men . . .
We dedicate the 1955 Calyx to

HENRY EDMUNDS COLEMAN, JR. the university
a message from the president...

To the Class of 1955:

This book will excite you when it first appears, and I am sure that it will charm you. As the years hurry by, it will become more valuable. You will look upon faces that in the happy past you may have seen daily, but faces that are now far from you. You will look upon scenes, and as you look you will live again some lovely experiences.

I have a strong confidence that in this Calyx you have something more than an exquisite scrap-book. In the total contribution of this volume there is a message which will remind you of your own best purposes and your own noblest aspirations. It is the hope of your Alma Mater that you go forth to fulfillment with all the rewards of those who achieve their own best and who serve most devotedly.

FRANCIS P. GAINES, President.

Dear Mr. Dols:

I don't regard myself as an authority on beauty or any phase of pulchritude but you asked for it and here they are.

Please see that you don't ask again.
The girls are all beautiful. Unfortunately, you only asked for five. I would be very happy to accept the rejects.

Sincerely,

The Executive Committee is a representative group made up of the President, Vice-President, and Secretary of the student body and an elected member from each of the classes in the academic and law schools and from the Publications Board. This has been a noteworthy year for the ROTC detachment for many reasons. June of 1955 will, for the first time, find the graduating seniors receiving commissions upon completion of their entire four years of military training at Washington & Lee. This year also marks the first step in a process of integration from specialized Transportation Corps studies to Branch General. The Administration contracted to make the change in hopes that it would give the student in Military Science a better chance to obtain the service of his choice and at the same time, offer a more firm basis in every field of military training.

Under the guiding hand of Lieutenant Colonel Richard W. Jones, the PMS&T who has fostered ROTC on our campus, the detachment enjoyed one of its most successful years. The members of the graduating class who attended Fort Eustis Summer Camp emerged with flying colors and added prestige to what has already been recognized as one of the outstanding ROTC groups in the South. The Gaines Guard was selected for first place in the Armistice Day Parade in Harrisonburg. The Rifle Team scheduled twenty matches during the year and ended with a very respectable record.

The Band, under the able direction of Sergeant Dwyer, has succeeded in keeping up the fine standards set by Lieutenant Colonel John G. Bowes, who left Lexington in the spring of 1954. The loss of Sergeant Watson in February of 1955 was deeply felt by the entire Battalion, and his job has fallen to the capable hands of Sergeant Gurganis. The addition of several members to the teaching staff has brought the detachment up to full strength and has led to the proficiency for which it has always been known. After four hard years the ROTC has achieved a position of respect at Washington and Lee where it has become an integral part of the life of every student.

Rho Chapter of Beta Theta Pi was founded at Washington College in 1856. Inactive during the Civil War, the Chapter was revived in 1876 and again in 1917, when it became Alpha Rho.

The Betas have always been known as a diversified group which is evidenced by the participation of its members in a wide variety of activities and the numerous honors they have earned individually and as a group. Ably directed by Bob Pfaff, the Beta group won the first prize cup in the Interfraternity Song Fest. Four Betas, Jack Osborne, Beau Redmond, Jim Reeder, and Ray Smith are members of O.D.K. of which Beau is President. Five of the sixteen Counselorships in the Freshman Dormitory are held by Betas Ken Abernathy, Pat Patrick, Redmond, Smith and Reeder, who is Assistant Head Counselor. Ken is also President of the House Managers Association and of the Commerce Fraternity; Jim is President of the Dance Board, Greig Cummings is Editor of the Beauty Section and Russell Ladd is Editor of the Class Section of the CALYX. Jim Gabler is a member of the Executive Committee and Editor of The W&L Lawyer. Editor of the Freshman Handbook is Tom Litzenburg. John Larson and Farris Hotchkiss made Phi Eta Sigma, the freshmen honor society.

Athletically, Alpha Rho was represented in football by Phil Brown, Bob Callaway, Don Holcombe, Ken Johnson and Hugh Stephens. On the Cross Country Team are Dick Crutchfield and Hutch Hutchinson. Patrick captained the Swimming Team with Joel Bennett as Manager and Hugh Stephens also wrestled. Dick Johnson was named last year to the All-Southern Conference Soccer Team, as well as wrestling in the 177 pound class. In Lacrosse, Alpha Rho claims Captain Guy Drake and two honorable mention All-Americans, Dick O'Connell and Dick Johnson, the latter of whom was selected last year for the team's Most Valuable Player Award. There are eight other Betas on the Lacrosse Team.

Despite diverse interests, Alpha Rho is nonetheless a unit. Probably most significant in making it so is our House Mother, Mrs. Martin, whose interest in all our many activities is always an inspiration.

In 1859, Delta Tau Delta was founded at Bethany College in what is now West Virginia. It spread from that beginning to become outstanding nationally, and now has 84 chapters in the U.S. and Canada. Phi Chapter was established at Washington and Lee in 1896. Ever since that time it has had an outstanding reputation for leadership. Character, excellence, and versatility have produced this.

These qualities have been well demonstrated during the past year. Watty Bowes was elected President of the Student Body and Fred Easter was elected as President of Fancy Dress. Both were chosen for membership in Omicron Delta Kappa.

Mike Clark was the Editor of the Southern Collegian. Fred Easter and Clay Carr were Associate Editors on his staff. Buck Buchanan was Fraternity Editor of the CALYX.

In other activities, Bill Henley was Vice-President of the Dance Board and was on the Student War Memorial Scholarship Fund Committee. Mike Clark was Chairman of Religious Emphasis Week. Clay Carr was Co-Chairman of the Charity Chest and a member of the Christian Council Executive Committee, Noel Spence was a Dorm Counselor.

Rich Berry, Clay Carr, and Watty Bowes were members of Phi Eta Sigma, the National Freshman Honor Society. All three, and Mike Clark, were on the Honor Roll.

Jim Lewis was Captain of the Soccer Team for the second year. Keith Belch captained the Cross Country Team. John Ellis was Captain of the Wrestling Team and Bob McHenry was Co-Captain of the Basketball Team. Over thirty members of the House participated in varsity sports, including Gibby McSpadden, the Southern Conference Outstanding Wrestler of 1954.

Besides these many campus leaders, Phi Chapter has in its sixteen freshmen one of the most promising classes to appear in years. All have been very active in campus life, and promise to further enhance the excellent reputation of the Delts on the W&L campus.

But these achievements would have been impossible without the encouragement and help of two people. The first of these was Mrs. Louise Faulkner, our housemother. The other was Jim Farrar, Assistant Dean of Students, and our Faculty Advisor. He was a Delt at W&L not so long ago, and has been able to look at our problems both from the point of view of the University and of the Fraternity.
phi chapter

Delta Upsilon was founded at Williams College in 1834 and has prospered with the passing years under the banner of nonsecrecy. The Washington and Lee Chapter was chartered in 1930 from an organization known as the Arcades Club, and has played an active part in campus activities ever since.

Constantly emphasizing leadership, character and versatility, Delta Upsilon’s membership includes the following men who have found positions as campus leaders: John Pipkin, stalwart tackle for the Football Team; Don Flora, Buck Shulik and John Turner of the Basketball Team; Herb Hummers of the Tennis Team; Mike Barry in cross country and track; Jerry Susskind of the Wrestling and Cross Country Teams; Dale Cornelius, President of the IFC and Vice-President of the Troubadors as well as a member of Phi Eta Sigma; Bill Williams, Managing Editor of the Ring-tum Phi, Publicity Director of the Troubadors and member of the Editorial Board of Shenandoah; Dave Rice, Sports Editor of the Tuesday Ring-tum Phi.

Occupying one of the finest houses on campus, the W&L Chapter prides itself on close co-operation with its alumni. Dr. Allen E. Ragan, Chapter Adviser, has greatly aided this work in his many years of devoted assistance. Other DUs on the Faculty include Mr. R. N. Lature, Mr. Edwin Howard, Dr. G. H. Foster and Coaches Twombley and Miller.

Achieving distinction in all phases of campus life, DU is holder of the 1953-54 Intramural Championship Trophy, winning firsts in wrestling and track. With several men on the academic Honor Roll, DU also boasts 14 men on the Dean’s List. The three big social events of the year are the Christmas Formal House Party, the Spring Costume, and the May Open House.

With the addition of our very capable and charming House Mother, Mrs. Virginia McWhorter, whose ready wit and humor contribute greatly to our fraternal spirit, DU looks forward to a future of success as it continues to fill the needs for a spirit of brotherhood.

Alpha Chapter of Kappa Alpha Order was founded in December of 1865 at Washington and Lee by four students. Our chapter has the special distinction of being the first chapter of the Order. The four student founders met in the room of William Walsh in the South Dormitory of the College, which is now Robinson Hall. In 1868 the Beta Chapter of the Order was founded at V.M.I. As the Fraternity expanded, Alpha found she could not control all of the new chapters, so a national headquarters was established at Louisville, Kentucky. Under the influence of Robert E. Lee, who was then President of Washington College, the Order developed and expanded throughout the South. Kappa Alpha owes much of its tradition and idealism to Lee, who is considered our spiritual founder.

KAs play important parts in many features of extracurricular life at Washington and Lee. On the Executive Committee of the Student Body are Ed Ellis and Roy Simkins. Charlie Drum is also President of the Junior Class; Bill Norman and Doug Roy are on the Ring-tum Phi staff. Dorm Counselors are Bill Craig and Charlie Drum. In scholarship, the chapter as a whole excels, having won the Scholarship Cup for three semesters in a row. Five brothers are in Phi Eta Sigma, and George Wilson is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. Several brothers are on the Christian Council, with Bill Craig and Bob Whitaker serving as committee chairmen.

In the field of athletics, KA has won second place for two years in Intramurals. The best teams were in handball, volleyball, basketball and softball. Don Stewart, who is also Senior IM Manager, and Roy Simkins are varsity lettermen; in addition, these two are members of Sigma Delta Psi. Johnny Ferguson is a manager with the Varsity Basketball Team.

With Dr. W. M. Hinton as Faculty Advisor, and Mrs. J. M. Lewis as our fine House Mother, Alpha Chapter has maintained an excellent record. It is even more significant, however, that the members find the Fraternity a source of lasting friendships, which are the basis of a wholesome social life.

Kappa Sigma was founded at the University of Virginia in 1869; Mu Chapter was established at W&L as the third organized chapter in 1873. Kappa Sigma has 127 chapters throughout the nation boasting 65,000 members. We started one of our most successful years by pledging twenty-three freshmen, giving us the largest Pledge Class on campus and tying the record set in 1953.

Ellis Drew was Vice-President of Openings, elected to ODK and was a Freshman Dorm Counselor. Jerry Hopkins was News Editor for the Ring-tum Phi, Business Manager for the Shenandoah, and announcer for Home Edition. Bill Miller was a member of the Varsity Debate Team, the Christian Council, the Forensic Union, and the Varsity Cross Country and Wrestling Teams. Lloyd Dobyns was Assistant News Editor of the Ring-tum Phi, a member of the Troubadours and Gaines Guard, and announcer for Home Edition. Elected to Psi Chi and Sigma Delta Psi was Rudy Stutzman, who was also a Freshman Dorm Counselor. Burt Tyler and Willard Hyde were members of the Varsity Soccer Team. Don Fowler was a varsity wrestler and member of the Gaines Guard, Charlie Richardson and Bill Winget were on the Varsity Swimming Team while Jim Marvin and Glenn Fahrenthold were found on the Track Team.

Socially this past year was one of the most prominent in Mu Chapter's history. Mu's annual Black and White Ball to honor the Chapter Sweetheart was the most successful in many years. The Kappa Sigs made more than the usual number of spring outings to Cave Mountain Lake and Goshen Pass, and spontaneous weekend parties were frequent and enjoyable.

Our House Mother, Mrs. Jordan, helped us through our social and everyday House life with grace and charm. Mrs. "J" has been an integral part of our lives here at the House for seven years and has been the perfect hostess for these many years.

With the passing of the year we look back with pride and pleasure, knowing that the Chapter has once again fulfilled its purpose as a fraternity in the truest sense of the word. Above all else, we have always nourished the strong ties of friendship that have always been emblematic of the brothers of Kappa Sigma Fraternity.

In 1909, Lambda Chi Alpha was founded at Boston University by three law students who had become good friends. Today, after a short 46 years, this young fraternity has grown into the largest fraternity in the world. Also relatively young on campus, Lambda Chi Alpha owns the newest and most modern chapter house, which boasts a sun porch and the largest house lot and recreation area of any W&L fraternity. The local Chapter this year improved its home by completely repainting its interior and exterior, and by buying a twelve-foot-long deep freeze and modernistic bar and lounge furniture.

Social chairmen, Bob Stivers and Pat Patterson, brought excellent dance bands to the Chapter for private and campus parties. Members and dates particularly enjoyed the Apache, Lost Lagoon, and Pajama Parties.

Outstanding on campus this year were Lambda Chi’s Pat Patterson, Varsity Tennis player and winner of the campus championship; Al White, Soccer; George Walters and Bob Jaber, Track; Joe Knakal, Baseball; Al Gitter, Football. Dave Clinger brought the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association’s 1955 Convention to the W&L campus. Dave is Secretary of the VIPA, Editor-in-Chief of the Ring-tum Phi, Dorm and Freshman Camp Counselor, member of the Publications Board and ODK, and is listed in “Who’s Who In American Colleges and Universities”. Another “Who’s Who” listee, Bob Bradford, organized and commands the Gaines Guard. Bob, who broadcasts locally for 15 hours a week, has received an Associated Press Award for state newscast. He is Vice-President of Scabbard and Blade.

“C. J.” Baldree is the organizer and President of Pi Sigma Alpha. He is also Law School Editor and Copy Editor of the Ring-Tum Phi. Fred Friberg is Circulation Manager of the University paper, and Tim Thompson, who acted in “Detective Story” and “Mister Roberts”, is a campus columnist for the publication. Bill Grigg, Special Events Editor, cartoonist, and columnist for the Ring-tum Phi, is a member of the CALYX staff, was nominated by the Independent Party, and elected Secretary-Treasurer of the Cotillion Club. Joe Ripley, W&L’s leading debater, represented the University in national competition.

With much achievement to look back on, Lambda Chi looks forward to future years of success on the W&L campus.

Founded at Miami University at Oxford, Ohio in 1848, Phi Delta Theta was established at Washington and Lee as Virginia Zeta in 1887. In 1929 the present house was built with Brother Earl S. Mattingly, Treasurer and Secretary of the Board of Trustees of the University, giving invaluable assistance. Mrs. Lucy Booker Burlingame, or Mrs. "B", as she is affectionately called, has been the Phi House Mother since 1942. She has always given her untiring aid and sympathetic assistance to every member of the House. Mrs. "B" has been instrumental in the past successes of Virginia Zeta.

This year, as in the past, the Phis have played a prominent role in campus activities, from sports to publications. Bob Fishburn, our President, is the Executive Committeeman representing the Publications Board and also president of Finals Dances. He was selected for "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" and this fall was also tapped for Omicron Delta Kappa. Gordon Gooch, in addition to being President of the Forensic Union, is Chairman of the Student War Memorial Scholarship Fund Committee and Secretary of the Assimilation Committee. Ed Hood is the Editor of the literary magazine Shenandoah. Al Platt has been active on the Christian Council as Chairman of the Boy's Club, while also helping W&L athletics by being a prominent member of the Football Team. Bill Northrop is Sports Editor of the Ring-tum Phi. Dewey Oxner is Executive Committee from the Junior Class and is on the University Committee on Athletics. Harry Ford was Director of the Minstrel Show, and played Lacrosse.

The Phis have also been well represented with participants in every major varsity sport. Our many and varied activities include some of the finer and memorable social affairs of the season, like the Miami Triad Party and numerous others. The successful year with its wide range of interest can only be attributed to the full and willing cooperation of all the brothers.

Phi Epsilon Pi has had one of the finest years in the history of the Chapter. With the addition of a fine Pledge Class, plus the contributions of the fraters, the House has been even more active than usual in campus affairs and activities.

Three members of the Fraternity, Sophomores Milt Winawer, Barry Storick, and Junior Dick Skolnik, are likely starters on Washington and Lee’s Basketball Squad. Sophomore Joel Bernstein played first string on the General’s Soccer Team and was an important factor contributing to the team’s highly successful season. Joel will also play Varsity Lacrosse as will Sophomore Elliot Joffe. In addition, Steve Berg, Milt Winawer, Mike Dubin, and Dick Skolnik will play Varsity Baseball. Also, quite busy with college activities is Junior Andy Greenman, who is Managing Editor of the Ring-tum Phi.

Among the new pledges are Howard Jacobs, Freeport, Long Island; Harry Moses, New York City; Jerry Sussman, New Rochelle, N.Y.; Mike Masinter, Roanoke, Va.; Mike Epstein, Plainfield, N.J.; and Barry Goldsmith, Cedarhurst, Long Island.

Jacobs is on the Varsity Swimming Squad, while Epstein played Junior Varsity Football. Moses, along with Pete Jacobs, is active on the student operated radio program, Home Edition. Mike Masinter is a member of W&L’s fine Glee Club and a member of the Forensic Union, W&L’s debating society, as is Barry Goldsmith.

In the Intramural competition, Phi Epsilon Pi has put up a strong showing. In the fall Tennis Tournament the Fraternity won the majority of its matches and placed fifth among the seventeen fraternities on campus. In interfraternity bowling, Phi Ep is tied for first place in its division. Senior Kegger Dick Bank and Junior Pete Jacobs have bowled consistently high scores. In volleyball we narrowly missed entering the finals but placed a strong second.

Phi Epsilon Pi had its opening house party on October 16, and it was acknowledged to be one of the best in years. The theme was that of an Alpine Ski Lodge and the fraternity was decorated accordingly.

Yes, 1955 has promised to be a year which will bring great recognition to the Delta Chapter of Phi Epsilon Pi.

Established on the Washington and Lee campus in 1867, the Zeta Deuteron Chapter of Phi Gamma Delta was the first local fraternity to own its own home. The present house which was bought in 1921 and completely remodeled in 1936 to include many specific fraternity needs, has since remained one of the most beautiful on campus.

Phi Gamma Delta was founded at Washington and Jefferson College one hundred and seven years ago. In over a century of progress, the fraternity has grown to be a mainstay in the American fraternity system...eighty-two chapters, eighty graduate chapters, and over 57,000 members give proof to her position.

New to the Chapter this year, the Phi Gam House Mother, Mrs. Caryetta Langhorne, has won a spot in the hearts of every Fiji brother. Through her thoughtfulness and skill, the Chapter has continued in the ways of hospitality and efficient management.

Phi Gamma Delta has contributed its brothers to nearly every phase of campus life. In scholarship as in athletics Fiji names are sure to be found among those represented. This year found Wally Wright as President of the Opening Dance Set and President of Scabbard and Blade. Sam Syme was Editor of the Ring-tum Phi, a Freshman Dorm Counselor, and was elected to ODK. Mary Bishop again was active with the ever popular Southern Collegians and Carl Barnes and Jack McQuiggan took roles in Troubadour plays. In Intramurals the House was again among the leaders and found many of the members gaining individual honors for their athletic prowess. These are only a few of the brothers who have brought honor and prestige to the fraternity. Then too, may the Chapter be proud of its members in the Administration and on the Faculty...Dr. Francis P. Gaines, Dr. William G. Bean, Dr. Ollinger J. Crenshaw, Dr. Marvin Perry, Mr. George Irwin, and Mr. "Mac" Farris.

Out of the long and full history of Phi Gamma Delta have come many of America's leaders...authors...statesmen...educators...clergymen...scientists. These men, somewhere in their lives, have acquired the traits of leadership. Thus it is for four years that Phi Gamma Delta tries to encourage and cultivate this quality.

The Virginia Beta Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi celebrated its Centennial Anniversary during the past year. The chapter was founded in February, 1855, as the first fraternity on the Washington and Lee campus. During the weekend many graduate brothers returned to Lexington for the occasion. The celebration included a full weekend of activities with a campus beer party, a dinner and dance at the Natural Bridge Hotel, and a cocktail party. The chapter welcomed W. Lyle Jones, national fraternity president, who spoke at the banquet.

Phi Psi began the school year with an exceptionally fine Rush Week which produced 18 pledges. In preparation for the 1954-55 term many internal improvements were made upon the house. Members of the House have been very active in extracurricular activities on the campus. Joe Pontius served as President of the Student War Memorial Scholarship Fund Committee, Vice-President of Openings Dances, and member of the Cold Check Committee, and his name appears in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." Art McCain was President of the Washington Literary Society, and Ned Grove was Sports Editor of the Ring-tum Phi.

Phi Kappa Psi has enjoyed a varied and successful social year. The chapter centennial celebration was, of course, our biggest social event, but house parties and informal spring weekends will long be remembered. In Intramural Athletics the Phi Psis got off to a fast start by taking the Tennis Crown. In all the other events the House has managed to finish near the top. In Intercollegiate Athletics Phi Psi again has proven to be one of the leaders. The House was represented on the Football, Soccer, Wrestling, Basketball, Track, Tennis, and Lacrosse Teams.

With such a well-rounded program and a closely knit House, Phi Psi can examine the past with pride and look to the future confident of success. For the success of the Chapter, socially and otherwise, we owe much to our House Mother, Mrs. Carroll Evans who has been with us for the past four years. Through her quiet graciousness, our chapter house has acquired its homelike atmosphere.

Phi Kappa Sigma was founded at the University of Pennsylvania in 1850, and was introduced to Washington and Lee University in 1894. Throughout its sixty years of existence on the W&L campus, Phi Kappa Sigma has produced an amazing number of campus leaders. It has earned a strong reputation for fraternity and chapter spirit, and has constantly contributed outstanding members to the various intercollegiate athletic teams. Six Phi Kaps held class offices this year. Dick Kops, Historian of the Senior Class; Rupe Chisholm, Vice-president of the Junior Class; and Bob Hawkins, Secretary of the Sophomore Class.

Phi Kaps have distinguished themselves in every activity on the campus, as well as in intercollegiate and Intramural Athletics, and in the past year they attained several major honors in extra-curricular fields: Pat Collins was among the W&L students selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. In the literary field, Chris Alexander was elected President of the Graham-Lee society. Rupe Chisholm was chosen as President of Pi Alpha Nu, and Dick Kops was selected Captain of the Baseball Team. In the past six years, Phi Kap has not finished lower than third in Intramurals.

Most students on the campus will remember the traditional Battle of the Bulge and the Fall and Christmas house parties, even though it has been observed that their spontaneous “Ed Moyler” parties have attained the proportions of any full-fledged house party. Phi Kappa Sigma has always recognized its social obligations to its members and to the campus.

If dedications were in order, they would be to the 21 promising members of the Freshman Class and to our House Mother, Mrs. John Cogbill, whose poise and charming personality have added an element of cheerfulness and a home-like atmosphere to the house.

The chapter has proved to be an organization in which the individual can realize self-expression and full, unbiased development of his personality. The Phi Kaps are a group of boys from diverse sections of the United States who have come to know and understand each other. They have tried to maintain an air of congeniality among themselves and, collectively, towards the entire campus, and in so doing, they have developed a sense of unity and mutual respect which can be rivaled by none.

Founded in 1868 at the University of Virginia, Pi Kappa Alpha today looks back on a dignified past record, and forward to a confident future. In 109 chapters throughout the nation, PiKA has produced, and is producing, outstanding and respected men. Pi Chapter of PiKA was founded here in 1892, and has grown and prospered both in numbers and spirit from that day to this. During Pi's early years the Chapter became too large for its original house, and moved to its present one in Red Square. Pi's respected position on campus has been earned through the combined efforts and quality of the Chapter's members and loyal alumni. Three of PiKA's alumni are members of the W&L Faculty: Mr. Almand Coleman, Dr. Marshall Fishwick, and Dean Clayton Williams. The Fraternity owes a special debt to Dean Williams for serving as Alumni Counselor for more than thirty years.

This year, as always, Pi can be justly proud of its members who continued its tradition of leadership in every field of campus endeavor: Tom Robbins, Secretary of the Student Body; John Arnold, President of the Sophomore Class; Jack Kay, member of ODK and Editor of the Law Review; Barclay Smith, starting forward on the Mink's Basketball Team; Bob Callers, member of the Troubadors—the list is long and diversity is great. The men of Pi filled honored positions in both scholastic and extracurricular activities.

The Chapter as a whole continued its envied position as one of the leading fraternities on campus: fourth in scholarship . . . Intramural success . . . a strong and active Pledge Class. Socially, Pi's tradition of fine parties continued—the French Party . . . the 49'er Party . . . the Christmas Party . . . the dance set parties . . . the many informal get-togethers . . . the PiKA Ball in Richmond, where Miss Betty York of Randolph-Macon, representing Pi, was chosen regional Dreamgirl.

Our most gracious House Mother, Mrs. Foster, has added much to our fraternity scene. To her, we express our utmost gratitude and admiration. Pi Chapter looks forward to the coming year with its traditions of friendship, service, success, and prominence.

Second Row: Marlow, Cullers, Fryburger, Bussen, Robbins, Mrs. Foster, S. G. Miller, Talbott, Rockel, Schuler, Schaefer.

Rho Chapter of Pi Kappa Phi was established at Washington and Lee in February of 1920. Lawrence W. Davis, Shirley J. Robbins, Wells H. Rutherford, James R. Sims, and Louis W. Milbourne were the Charter Members. During the early years of Rho, Earl K. Paxton, a professor at W&L and VMI served as the Faculty Advisor, being replaced after more than thirty years of service by Herbert N. Hamric.

From a small beginning the Chapter has attained eminence envied by many “large” fraternities. During the war the Chapter was forced into an inactive status. In 1946 a small but extremely active and adept nucleus of old members returned and reactivated the fraternity. At that time it was one of the smallest Houses on campus. Today, a few years later, it is numbered among the largest, having accomplished such feats as winning the Scholastic Trophy twice in a single year, having a brother, Richard Vogler, teaching in Germany on a Fulbright Grant, and pledging sixteen freshmen with interests in both scholarship and extracurricular activities.

The 1954-55 year has seen Rho Chapter represented in every field of college life. Bill Bailey led the Washington and Lee Moot Court Team to national recognition this year. Bailey has also served as President of the Student Body, a member of the Washington and Lee Law Review, was for two years a Dormitory Counselor and last year was Head Counselor. Mary Anderson has likewise served on the Law Review and has been Editor of the Ring-tum Phi. Jack Stackhouse was chosen as an alternate for the W&L 1954 “Quiz Bowl Team” and has served on the Editorial Board of the Shenandoah. Lew Cope is the Editorial Advisor of the Shenandoah and has served for three years as a cheerleader. Bob Wood captained the 1954 Cross Country Team and freshman Burke Armstrong received his letter for making the same team.

The Pi Kapp brotherhood has always been a closely knit group. One which seeks fraternal spirit, intellectual eminence and social prominence, and it has lived through the years, expanding and accumulating vitality.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon was founded at the University of Alabama in March, 1856, by eight students who had become hard and fast friends. Through the energies of its outstanding leaders, the Fraternity has expanded in all directions, and its members have taken high and respected positions in society. SAE has over 130 collegiate chapters.

Since its founding in 1867 by Frank Bell Webb, Virginia Sigma Chapter at W&L has grown and prospered on campus. Today its members have gained distinction in every phase of campus activities—scholastic, social, athletic, and extracurricular leadership.

Over the years the Sig Alphs have always held a high position in publications. This year Virginia Sigma has served men in important posts on all the leading campus publications.

In sports, the chapter claims Jim Mayoza, Don Farris, George Jackson, Kent Russell, and Neil Bland in football; Dana Curtis runs Cross Country; Jack Dobbs and Richard Raines are on the Swimming Team; Wally Witter and Gill Holland wrestle; Dan Thompson, Doc Towson and Hal Whitaker play Lacrosse; Fred Bear, Tom Smith and Don Farris are varsity golfers; Dan Thompson is on the Soccer Team; and Tom Baker plays baseball. In Intramurals, SAE is, as always, outstanding.

Sophomore Rob Peeples is serving his second year on the Executive Committee and Mike Earp holds the secretary post of the Junior Class. Murray McClain is a member of the Assimilation Committee and Ed Givhan is again on the Cold Check Committee. Walk Jones and Jim Davis are on the Rifle Team; Walk serving as Captain.

In scholarship and general activities, Virginia Sigma also more than holds its own. Many men are on the Dean's List and in a wide variety of honor societies. In addition Virginia Sigma has always been well represented in the Christian Council, Glee Club, Troubadors and other organizations.

The year 1954-55 has been a sparkling social season for SAE. Particularly notable was the Pajama Game Party in November which was followed by a party for the underprivileged children of Rockbridge County.

Finishing her fifth year as House Mother, Mrs. Felder Wagner has been a gracious and capable hostess. Dean Gilliam, Dr. Starling, and Mr. Cook have served ably as Faculty Advisors, contributing immeasurably toward an excellent year for Virginia Sigma.

Alpha Chapter of Sigma Chi was established on June 28, 1855, at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, and the Fraternity has grown and multiplied until it now embraces 134 active chapters. Of these, Zeta is a very prominent member which appeared on the Washington and Lee campus on December 10, 1866. Due to the character and spirit of its members, Zeta has played an active role in campus activities. Along with Beta Theta Pi and Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Chi forms the famed Miami Triad.

During the past year, the men of Sigma Chi have met with added success and good fortune. This can be attributed in part to a very gracious and charming addition in the person of Mrs. G. C. Nielsen, the new House Mother and to Dr. Kenneth P. Stevens, Faculty Advisor and friend.

Sig representatives can be found in almost every varsity sport. Pres Pete, Jim Perryman and Marv Moreland lent their talents to the Football Squad. Dale Carter and Bill Dalzell made their mark as varsity swimmers. Harry Kennedy, a four year letterman, captained the Track Squad, while Dick Belden and Bob Plenon garnered laurels on the baseball diamond. Freshman participation in athletics, especially in basketball, wrestling, and golf, also proved encouraging and should further the success of W&L teams in the future.

Many Zeta Sigs have taken active parts in the leadership phases of campus life. George Milligan reigned as President of Spring Dances, while Forney Daugette distinguished himself and Zeta by being tapped Omicron Delta Kappa, being listed in “Who’s Who in American College and Universities” and serving a successful term as President of the House. Monte Pearse has compiled an outstanding record as President of Zeta Chapter, Vice-President of the Christian Council, winner of the ODK Key and Vice-President of Fancy Dress. Monte has also served in the capacity of Dorm Counselor and on the President’s Student Advisory Council.

The outstanding quality in which the Zeta Sigma Chis pride themselves is the true feeling of brotherhood. Men of many different localities and aspirations find their common interest invested in the life and fraternal spirit of Sigma Chi. Young in her ambitions and steady in her actions, Sigma Chi will always be active on the W&L campus. It will long be remembered by its Sweethearts and members.

Sigma Nu was founded in 1869 at VMI, and has since grown to be one of the largest national Greek-letter fraternities in the United States. Lambda, one of the oldest active chapters of Sigma Nu still in existence, was founded at W&L in 1882.

Lambda members are fortunate to have Mrs. C. A. Spence as their House Mother. She has been with the chapter for 9 years and has been an integral part of all our activities during this time. Sigma Nu stands among the top fraternities at W&L in all phases of campus activity. The local chapter is well above the all-men's average scholastically, and stands high in varsity and intramural sports participation.

Among campus leaders from Lambda Chapter were Bill Dols, Editor of the CALYX, Vice-President of the Student body, Dormitory and Freshman Camp counselor, and member of ODK; Hal Hamilton, chairman of the Assimilation Committee, and past President of Pi Alpha Nu; Trev Armbrister, President of White Friars, and a member of SWMSFC and the Tennis and Wrestling Teams; Buzz Hans,son, Business Manager of the Southern Collegian; Carl Swan-son, Secretary of the Freshman Law Class and member of the Assimilation Committee; Jim Repass, Chairman of the Concert Guild, and Business Manager and accompanist for the Glee Club; King Sprott, Vice-President of the IFC; Mike Chaney, Vice-President of the Sophomore Class; Henry Morgan, Assistant Sports Editor of the Ring-tum Phi and Sports Editor with Fred Magoline, of the CALYX.

Gridiron representatives of Lambda include: Jay Heckman, an Assistant Coach, half-back Ruff Safford, and line-man Charlie Perry. Len Hough is Assistant Soccer Coach; Trev Armbrister finished his third season on the Wrestling Team; Frank Kalmbach, Bill Childs, and John Gibbs starred in Swimming. Bill, a Freshman, also swept through the fall Tennis Tournament without a single loss to cop the University championship honors. Ben Noel, Welles Murphy, and Bob Neunreiter are starring on this year's Varsity and Freshmen Wrestling Teams and Charlie Cella on the Basketball Team.

Socially, Sigma Nu's annual White Rose Formal was outstanding, and Cave Mountain Lake proved a perfect setting for the Spring House Party. The fall costume affair featuring Shanley's Collegians and taking for its theme "Song Titles" was a great success. But of primary importance at Lambda, Sigma Nu, is a feeling of friendship and unity.

Zeta Beta Tau had its beginnings on the Washington and Lee campus in 1920 as an outgrowth of the Gamma Gamma Club which was formed in 1919 by six students. Granted a charter by the National Fraternity, it became the Alpha Epsilon Chapter. From this humble beginning the Chapter has expanded notably in size and prestige.

Once again, thirteen freshmen were pledged, bringing the membership to forty-four. For the past few years, Zeta Beta Tau pledges have been required, as one of their duties, to participate in at least two campus activities in the hope that they would become interested in University activities and continue to work in them. The Zebes are now represented in almost every phase of University life.

Among the active Zeb workers is Henry Heymann, whose art work is well respected on campus, and who has been Vice-President of Fancy Dress, Finals, and numerous other dance sets in the past two years and is Art Editor of the Calyx. Other outstanding Zebes include Frank Giddon, President of the Publications Board; Sid Kaplan, Secretary of the Interfraternity Council; Carley Greenebaum, Chairman of the Library Committee and Vice-President of Fancy Dress; Sandy Maslansky, Business Manager of the Calyx; Dick Rosenberg, Treasurer of the Christian Council; and Al Lipsett, Secretary of the Senior Class.

In athletic circles, Paul Weinstein, the only returning letterman in the House, filled in the baseball picture; sophomores Bill Abeloff, John Gold and Stan Erdreich were on the Swimming Team; and Don Rosenfeld returned to the golf links. For the past few years the Zebes have been respected for their scholastic achievements, ranking fifth and second last year among the top laurels.

With the acquisition of the Most Outstanding Chapter Award, presented to the Chapter only two years ago by the National Fraternity, brothers representing fourteen different states have amalgamated this year to keep the Chapter at this high level. This outstanding year, we feel, could not have come about without the patience and fidelity of Mrs. Inez Foster, our new and devoted House Mother.

and we did have football...

In the pages which have preceded this section we have collected pictures of familiar places and faces that will always serve to remind us of Washington and Lee. However, those of us who have been a part of W&L during this 1954-55 year have been constantly reminded of an event that those outside our confines will not soon let us forget.

On August 5th, 1954, a letter was mailed to the alumni and students, by the President of this institution, officially confirming many rumors regarding a drastic change in Washington and Lee's athletic policy. The Board of Trustees had taken their stand and we were to return to an ideal amateur status, the nature of which few of us had ever had the opportunity to experience.

Those of us who were close to the school and were willing to look open-eyed at an unhealthy situation, with its vast impending ramifications, saw that there was no alternative. The decision was made and athletic subsidization at Washington and Lee was a thing of the past. In President Gaines’ letter it was clearly pointed out that the University had suffered innumerable financial setbacks which arose due to our competition with large, highly subsidized, colleges. And there was no relief in sight. Coupled with the fact that a program of such intensity as we had been sponsoring was producing too great a strain upon the athlete, who was forced to maintain an academic standing parallel to that of other students, it seemed unfair to the individual player.

Many of us who are leaving Lexington as seniors this June will remember the days when the Big Blue was an imposing power in the Southern Conference. Some of us enjoyed the thrill of going to Washington and Lee’s first bowl game or, more than likely, we have lived with its memories. However, we shall never forget the play of such all time greats as “Glittering” Gil Bocetti, Rolo Thompson, Bill McHenry, Jack Delahunty, Wes Abrams, and many others who made the sacrifices to play, not only for pay, but for the school that they had come to love. Few of us will ever forget our 42 to 14 win over The University of Virginia in the fall of 1951, for the first such victory since 1937. Also we will recall the last game of that great rivalry that saw a powerful Wahoo team fall victim to a spirited General team, 27-13.

As we remember these games, we must likewise try and wipe away the pangs of defeat and humiliation we were to suffer at the hands of such top teams in the nation as Maryland, Tennessee, and West Virginia. If we were not willing to open our school to the big football market, was it fair to continue such competition? Something had to be done and it was up to a small group of men to make the decision and to expose themselves to the criticisms of those who refused to face reality.

The 1954 football season opened with neither team nor schedule, but with a coach by the name of Boyd Williams, who was determined that those who wanted to play football would have their chance. The University gave its whole-hearted support and the destiny of football at Washington and Lee was left solely in the hands of the students. With the aid of student coaches and the full confidence of the Athletic Department, the students who desired to work hard and to play the game, without subsidization, turned out to practice for an unknown schedule. It was not until several weeks following the opening of classes that Williams had moulded a group of athletes together who were determined that football would remain on our campus.
After several small scrimmages with local schools, the team, made up of mostly sophomores and freshmen, opened its makeshift schedule with Hargrave Military Academy, only to suffer a 7-0 setback. Still green and only beginning to take the shape of the team that Boyd Williams knew he had, they entertained Emory and Henry at Wilson Field next, but were able only to salvage a 6-6 tie.

The Generals finally hit their winning stride against the undersquadmen of Hampden-Sydney College as they won the contest, 13-0. The short-lived schedule came to a close early in the season when the Blue and White romped to their most impressive victory over Bridgewater College, 24-6.

Many names could be mentioned in regards to each of the games mentioned above, but the stars were not only those who scored the touchdowns, but the men who might never have played a single game and only sat on the bench. Those men who continue to play football on this amateur basis will have their names bright with glory in other CALYXES in years to come. These men, by most of us, will never be remembered for the touchdowns that they may or may not have scored or for the games that they were able to win. They will be remembered for the mere fact that they played the game. They had won the biggest game of all and, as the winners, insured that the sport will not die here at Washington and Lee.

If it were possible to dedicate each section of a yearbook to the outstanding contributor in each activity, we should like this section to be given to these men. However, along with these players, we would dedicate it to those individuals who, early last summer, saw the need for a change in our athletic policy and were prepared to make it, despite the many sacrifices that it might entail. These are the men who have suffered most for what they had the foresight to see: the foresight to see what we are beginning to realize was the most feasible move that could have been made in the best interests of Washington and Lee.

The Washington and Lee courtmen finished the 1954-55 season with a 16-13 record, including a win over Furman and a loss to West Virginia in the semifinals of the Southern Conference Basketball Tourney. Such a campaign marks the first winning year for the Cagers since 1947.

The Generals opened the season on a very bright note by overwhelming Bridgewater College 119-72. Six Generals hit in double figures as they were led by Lee Marshall and Dom Flora, both of whom registered 18. The Cagers then hit the skids as they lost four in a row to Tennessee, Vanderbilt, Richmond, and West Virginia.

The courtmen regained their stride in smashing Hampden-Sidney 99-62, followed by their trip to Montgomery, Alabama for the Montgomery Tournament. There they displayed a creditable brand of ball, but in the end dropped two close games: the first to Auburn 91-81, and then to Miami in a heartbreaker, 80-75. The Auburn game was not all dark spots, however, as Lee Marshall, star sophomore pivotman, poured through 37 points.

Moving into their second holiday tournament, this one at Fayetteville, West Virginia, the Generals defeated Carnegie Tech 90-79, to gain the final round. Dom Flora hit for 34 points to top the scoring for the Blue, while Barry Storick followed with 21. The Cagers were not as successful the next night as the University of Virginia, led by Buzzy Wilkinson and his 43 markers, edged the Generals 96-90. Lee Marshall tallied 35 in this game, and again Barry Storick was second with 21. The courtmen then moved into Huntington on New Year's Day, only to drop a close encounter to Marshall College. Marshall, working again from the center, post, burnt the nets for 37 points to lead the Blue and White.
Coach McCann talks with returning lettermen Denu and McHenry

Washington and Lee then celebrated its return to Virginia with a resounding 84-72 win over Roanoke College, the leading team in the Mason-Dixon Conference. Dom Flora paced the offense with 28 points, 17 of them coming in the Generals' strong second half surge. The cagers' new year debut at home was marred by a narrow 78-73 loss to William and Mary, which found Marshall with 28 points and Flora with 22 keeping the game close all the way, until the Indians pulled it out in the closing seconds on a series of foul shots.

The Generals returned to the winning trail by smashing hapless VPI 88-63 in a strictly no-contest affair at Doremus gym. Flora and Marshall again led the attack as Dom dropped in 31 and Lee 24. The cagers then moved to Charlottesville where they lost a high scoring fray to the Wahoos, 104-91.

The hard-wooders then went on the rampage, winning four in a row including victories over Davidson, the Citadel, Roanoke, and VPI. The Generals had their second night of the season in three figures as they raked up 100 points in the Roanoke victory. However, the cagers could not cope with “Hot Rod” Hundley and his West Virginia mates as the Mountaineers ended the streak with a 96-85 victory.

Coach Billy McCann’s charges then moved to the VMI fieldhouse to meet the George Washington Colonials, who were ranked fifth in the nation. The Generals, displaying superb form, played the highly touted Colonials off of their feet in the first half and took the floor for the second half with a seven point lead. Then disaster struck. With Corky Devlin putting on a phenomenal shooting show, the men from the Capitol City scored twenty points before the Blue and White registered their first marker of the half. The Generals narrowed the gap toward the end of the game, but their early famine cost them what would have been one of the biggest upsets of the year.

After that near miss the cagers came up with their most outstanding win of the season up to that time, a stunning 91-86 victory over Richmond. The loss was the first for the Spiders in 20 consecutive Big Six games. Their previous loss came at the hands of Jay Handlan and the Generals in 1952. Flora and Marshall again led the unusually potent attack for the Blue and White with 28 and 26 points respectively.

A tense moment under the Richmond boards
Barry Storick in action against the Spiders

But the best was yet to come. The cagers followed up this win with consecutive triumphs over William and Mary, the Citadel, Davidson, East Tennessee State, Virginia and Furman, to run their unbeaten skein to seven in a row. The William and Mary win was particularly gratifying to the Generals, both through revenge motive for the earlier loss and by the resoundingly wide margin of victory.

The wins over the Citadel and Davidson came as a surprise to no one, but the victory in the East Tennessee State game was one of the team's top performances of the year. Trailing by the tune of sixteen points at halftime, the Generals began dominating the backboards and grabbed the lead with about eight minutes to go. The work of Marshall and Storick under the boards was again the deciding factor in the win.

Milt Winawer up for a jump shot
There couldn't have been a more fitting climax to regular season play than the win over the Wahoos. The clincher was put on in the closing minutes of the game when the Cavaliers' ace scorer, Buzz Wilkinson, fouled out after tallying 40 of Virginia's 89 points. Lee Marshall played a brilliant game in leading the Generals' scoring with 30 points; Dom Flora, as always, was the playmaker, besides tossing in quite a few points; Barry Storick got the lion's share of the rebounds as usual; Milt Winawer, with his brilliant passing, set up numerous scoring plays; and Barclay Smith did a fine job in putting the stopper on Wilkinson in the second half when "the Buzzer" could do no better than a dozen points.

With six straight victories under their belt the courtmen moved into the Southern Conference Tournament with a confidence that foresaw success. Their first game was with the Furman Paladins, the nation's record-breaking, highest scoring outfit, which boasted All-American Darrel Floyd, the nation's individual high point maker. After the fray was over Washington and Lee had won by the overwhelming total of 97-63. Furman and Floyd had been held to one of their lowest point totals of the season, and the Generals had set a new tourney scoring record. All five of the starters for the Blue and White hit in double figures, and Barry Storick grabbed 23 rebounds, while Dom Flora was sinking 13 out of 13 from the foul line as the Generals made the Richmond fans stand up and take notice.

The next night things were just reversed. The cagers were as far off their game against West Virginia as they were on it against Furman. The Mountaineers jumped to a 13-2 lead at the outset; stretched it to 42-29 at the half and after "Hot Rod" Hundley sank three goals in a row at the outset of the second half the Generals were never able to cut the lead to under a dozen points.

The final statistics for the team go a long way in showing just how good and how well balanced the team was. Lee Marshall made 621 points over the season for an average of 21.4 per game, while Flora dropped through a total of 553 for an average of 19.1. Barry Storick and Marshall both averaged almost 10 rebounds a game. Marshall had a remarkable 51.3% shooting percentage from the floor, while he and Flora both hit more than 75% of their foul shots. On the whole the team averaged 42.0% from the floor and 68.7% from the foul line, and the 84.3 point average per game was among the top 15 in the nation.

Statistics cannot measure such things as how Storick always seemed to come up with jump balls, how Winawer could look at the scorers' table and flip a pass behind him to set up a score, how Marshall and Flora always took up the slack for each other on off nights, and how Barclay Smith was able to hold some of the top scorers in the nation to half their usual total. Coach McCann had done a brilliant job in coming up with this great winning combination, considered by many as "the Cinderella team of the South" and one, if it is intact next fall, which should be a potential threat to all oncomers.
Coach Miller with Captain John Ellis

The 1954-55 Wrestling Team, made up entirely of underclassmen, showed a potential power which should manifest itself in winning ways in the future for Coach Dick Miller. This year, however, the Generals were successful in compiling a 4-5 won and lost record.

Going down to defeat in the first three encounters, the Washington and Lee grapplers were hampered by the early loss of 162 lb. Southern Conference Champion, Gibby McSpadden. The season’s opener found the home team on the short end of a 38-0 score against VPI, as Captain John Ellis was the lone man who escaped a pinning. Little improvement was noticed during the opening weeks, as the Blue and White dropped matches to Franklin and Marshall and Millersville by scores of 33-3 and 22-6 respectively.

The matmen, however, were soon to catch fire. In Lexington a partisan crowd watched individual victories by Dick Whiteford, Don Fowler, Bob Miller, McSpadden, and Ellis give rise to a team win over the Duke Blue Devils. The following week Coach Miller’s charges journeyed to Chapel Hill where they trimmed the University of North Carolina, 22-8. It was three in a row when the Blue and White were able to score four pins over the Citadel and take the match, 26-10.

It was the defending Southern Conference Champions, West Virginia, which ended the Generals’ winning streak. Bill Northrop, McSpadden, and Ellis had the task of garnering all of the home team’s points, as a hard pressed Mountaineer squad squeezed by, 21-13. Undaunted, they returned to Lexington to entertain, and defeat, Davidson 24-10. Featured in this event was a series of three pins by Holland, Fowler, and McSpadden, the last coming after only 1:49 minutes of the first period.

In the final match of the regular season the Generals played host to the University of Virginia. In a thriller which went right down to the wire, it was only a pin by Cavalier Henry Jordan which made it a Wahoo victory in the final event and the loss of the match, 16-14.
During early March all eyes turned to Doremus Gymnasium, where Washington and Lee played host to the annual Southern Conference Wrestling Tournament. The Generals were forced to settle with fourth place, behind VPI, the winners, West Virginia, and VMI, although gaining the 167 lb. crown for Gibby McSpadden, his second such honor.

Other entries in the meet found Ellis in second place, as he was stopped for only the second time of the season. Northrop and Neunreiter performed admirably as they both took strong thirds in their respective classes. The remaining entries of Fowler in the 147 lb. class and Holland in the 172 lb. class ended up with fourth place merits.

At the season’s close it was voted that team captain John Ellis should be this year’s recipient of the Malthus War Memorial Trophy for his outstanding contribution to the squad. The most successful wrestler of the year by his merits was acknowledged to be Gibby McSpadden, whose record was unblemished and who retained his reputation as a champion in the truest sense of the word.
For the second year in a row Washington and Lee's baseball fortunes were at low ebb. Coach McCann's squad, hampered by weak hitting and lack of pitching depth, posted a 4-15 won-lost record. On their annual southern tour during Spring Vacation the Generals dropped all five of their games to powerful foes, losing twice to both Clemson and Davidson and once to Furman.

Before garnering their first victory the diamond men dropped two more close contests to VPI and Delaware. Paul Weinstein, who hurled two of the Generals' four victories, was the winning pitcher in their encounter with Southern Conference foe, George Washington University. Weinstein scattered eight hits and struck out ten, while holding the Colonials to five runs. Second baseman Joe Lindsey and outfielder Tom Baker, with two hits each, were instrumental in leading the Generals to their 7-5 conquest.

Steve Schlossman, playing his last season for the W&L nine, led the baseballers to their second straight victory by hurling a hard-fought 10-7 win over William and Mary. The General's nine hit attack was led by third baseman Lowell Hamric with two singles and Lindsey with a triple.

Following these two wins the Generals abruptly returned to their losing ways and dropped their next five encounters, one of which was a heart-breaking 2-1 loss to West Virginia. Though they outhit the Mountaineers 5-4, the diamond crew could score only once, on catcher Warren Moody's triple, followed by a squeeze hunt by first baseman Tom Lohrey.

Snapping back from these demoralizing defeats, the Generals found they were still able to master William and Mary, and measured the Indians for the second time. The Generals amassed nine runs on twelve hits, while winning pitcher Weinstein limited W&M to five runs on eight hits and fanned seven.

To conclude the season the Generals lost three of their four remaining games, but the narrow margins of victory posted by their foes shows how greatly improved the squad was at the campaign's end. Schlossman, hurling five hit ball, was the loser in a tightly fought game with Richmond. Outfielder Fred Benham, who led the team in hitting with a .280 average, collected two hits in this losing effort. A 9-5 loss to V.P.I. followed this game and saw the Generals leave nine men stranded on the bases as V.P.I.'s King limited them to three hits.

W&L leveled an eight hit barrage at the Citadel in the Generals' last winning effort as Schlossman hurled the victory, his second of the season. Outfielder Dave Wouters and shortstop John Freeman contributed to a big five run inning by walloping homeruns.

West Virginia maintained its jinx over W&L by again cking out a 2-1 victory and eliminating the Generals from the Southern Conference Tournament in the final game of the season.
The 1954 edition of the Washington and Lee Soccer Team wound up its season with a 5 won, 3 lost, and 2 tied record. One of the two highlights of the season was the two victories over the University of Virginia by scores of 3-1 and 4-1. The second was the season finale against the University of Maryland, when the Generals held the Atlantic Coast Conference Champions to a 0-0 tie on the Terrapin's home field.

The season's opener was a 7-0 win over the Lynchburg eleven as Don Stewart led the Generals with three goals. The following week the Blue ran into their most formidable competition, Roanoke College, which topped them 3-2. Back again on the winning path, the home team defeated North Carolina and then took to the road.

In Charlottesville, led by the season's top scorer, Bill Boyles' three goals, W&L toppled Virginia 3-0, a team that had earlier defeated both Roanoke and Duke. Returning to Lexington, the Generals were held to a 2-2 tie by powerful North Carolina State in a rainy overtime period. The next contest was a road affair in Roanoke with the only team that had yet stopped the Blue and White. With the score 3-0 at halftime, the Maroon team was held at bay during the remaining period, but still enjoyed a 3-2 win.

Before some 300 spectators at Wilson Field, W&L's booters defeated the University of Virginia once more 4-1. Led by the play of Bel Butterfield and Boyle, the squad produced one of its outstanding efforts of the season as they completely governed play in the final half.

Traveling to Durham to face the Duke Blue Devils with only one loss marked against them, Coach Herbert's charges were held scoreless for the first time in the season. Through a steady downpower the visitors were held in tow as Duke posted a 2-0 victory.
As the season came to a close, the Georgetown Hoyas played host to the W&L team. Boyle and Butterfield, supported by Rhody Davies and Dick Belden, led the Generals to a 4-0 victory, as the entire team saw action. A hard fought contest with two over time periods ended in a scoreless tie against the team that the week before had defeated Virginia 7-0 for the Atlantic Coast Conference Championship.

Boyle and Butterfield led the General scoring throughout the season, aided by the aggressive play of Davies, Stewart, and Lucky Denu. Much credit must also be given to the play of Brayton Campbell, Gene Keith, Dick Johnson, John Buckey, and Joel Bernstein. Under the able hand of Herbert and his assistant Len Hough, the hooters ended one of the finest seasons that any team was to enjoy throughout the fall season.

With a promising aggregation of sophomores to depend upon, Coach Twombly and his Blue and White Tankmen initiated the 1954-55 season by defeating Catholic University 48-36. Though deficient in first places, the Generals made up the difference by strength in the relays and in depth. After brushing aside waterlogged Lynchburg College 69-14 and hapless Randolph-Macon 62-22, the swimmers were halted by a potent Virginia squad. W&L’s closest meet stemmed from a 37-47 loss to V.P.I. The Techmen supported a scant three point lead until the last race which they were lucky to capture. By vanquishing William and Mary and succumbing to a mediocre Davidson team, the Generals culminated the season with better than a .500 mark.

At the Southern Conference Tournament the Blue and White added more laurels by finishing third, behind champion V.M.I. and V.P.I., thanks to victories by Jay Fox in the 100-yard breast stroke, and Kalmbach, Childs, and Fox, again, in the 300-yard medley relay. The surprising success of Aliotti and Childs, combined with potential sophomore strength, make the tankmen a threat in future competition.
Washington and Lee's Lacrosse Team made a fine showing in the 1954 season by coming up with a record of 4 victories against 7 defeats in a schedule which included such national powers as Maryland, Duke, and the University of Virginia. Coach Herbert did an outstanding job in his first year as Head Coach. The team was handicapped at the beginning of the season by a lack of experienced men, but under Herbert's tutelage improved greatly as the season progressed.

The defense was led by goalie Fletcher Lowe and defenders Tom Kenney and Dick Johnson. Bill McHenry and Harry Ford were outstanding at mid-field, while Dick O'Connell and Mike Ryer, at attack, were the leading scorers with 24 and 13 goals respectively.

Lowe was picked as third string All-American goalie while Johnson and O'Connell were both honorable mention. Lowe and Kenney were chosen to play in the North-South All-Star Game where Herbert served as an assistant coach.

With many lettermen returning for the 1955 season and several promising men coming up from the freshman team, Coach Herbert is looking forward to another fine year.

Coach Herbert with seniors Fellows, McHenry, and Kenney
With a strong group of experienced men returning, the 1954 Tennis Team compiled its best record in many years. Coach Farrar's netters were victorious in eight of eleven matches and took second place in the Southern Conference. The Generals edged Hampden-Sydney in their first match of the season, but were downed decisively by undefeated Colgate in their second attempt. The team got back on the winning path with successive wins over West Virginia, Hampden-Sydney, and Richmond.

A strong Georgetown team halted their winning streak, but the Generals bounced back to upset powerful Maryland 6-3. The Blue continued their winning ways by trouncing V.P.I.; however the potent Wahoo outfit took eight of nine matches from the Generals in their next outing. The season finished with W. & L. stopping always strong William and Mary as well as V.P.I. in their last two matches.

The team was sparked by the play of Captain Don Barbe and Dave Murphey, both seniors, along with Pat Patterson, Dick Cobban, Art McCain, and Chuck Waltz while John Huebner and Milam Turner supplied much needed reserve strength.
Washington and Lee’s golfers turned in another fine record during the 1954 season. In their 5 dual matches the Generals won 3, while losing 1 and tying 1. The linksmen opened the season by losing to a powerful Virginia Tech outfit, but bounced back to deadlock a strong West Virginia team, 41/2-41/2. In the next two matches the Blue and White came up to their potential by downing George Washington and Randolph-Macon 51/2-31/2 and 6-3 respectively.

The Generals made a fine showing in a triangular event with U. Va. and V.P.I. The heavily favored Cavaliers only edged out the Generals 9-71/2, while the Gobblers, who had previously beaten W&L in a dual meet, only captured 11/2 points. In the state tournament the Blue and White lived up to their advance billing by taking third place among the Big Six. The season closed on a victorious note with a 6-3 decision over William and Mary.

The fine season and winning record were a tribute to Coach Cy Twombly who had lost four key men. The outstanding play of Captain Dick Sherrill, Fred Bear, Bill Clem, Doug Monroe, Ernie Eanes, and Bob Broudy led the golfers to compiling one of the best records of all varsity teams.

With the graduation of Walt Diggs, the Big Six Champion, and the loss of Captain Keith Belch, Coach Dick Miller turned to his talented freshmen and sophomores for a winning season. After losing their opener to Bridgewater, the thinclads routed Hampden-Sydney and then took a triangular meet from Lynchburg College and V.P.I. Following a loss to V.M.I. and Davidson, the thinclads defeated the University of Richmond by a 54-33 margin. The Generals had to settle for a tie against William and Mary, but finished their regular season with a close win over U. Va. The Blue and White fared well in both Big Six and Southern Conference competition finishing second behind V.M.I. in both meets.

Freshman Mike Barry finished second and fifth respectively in the Big Six and Southern Conference meets and gained a post on the Conference All-Star Team. Burke Armstrong, Bob Wood, John Arnold, Chuck Duffy, Watty Bowes, Dick Crutchfield, and Dana Curtis also turned in outstanding performances.

Coach Miller briefing Wood

The 1954 Track Season, although appearing unsuccessful in the won and lost column, attracted some top performers to the cinder path. Led by Captain Walt Diggs, the team ended their spring activities without posting a single win, but were able to nominate some of the team members for top honors in the Southern Conference.

Diggs set a new university record for the pole vault event with a jump of 13 feet 3 3/4 inches and with this feat was able to cop the laurels at the Southern Conference Track Meet. Those who had the opportunity to see him perform in that meet held at Blacksburg, saw the lithe Washington and Lee trackman equal a mark that had not been reached since 1928 in this conference.

Coach Dick Miller featured such standouts as Harry Kennedy, Captain-elect of the 1955 team, on the high and low hurdles. Other leading performers were Harry Shendow with the discus, Roy Sinkins in the hurdles, javelin, and pole vault events, Bob Wood in the distance events, and Bob Mann, who participated in the gruelling two mile run.

At the Big Six Meet, held this past year in Charlottesville, the Generals took fourth place behind the winners, VMI, who were to go on and capture the honors in the Southern Conference. In a triangular meet with VPI and Roanoke College, the team took second place behind a powerful VPI aggregation.

The Freshmen Lacrosse Team, under the direction of student Coach John McDowell, chalked up a record of two wins and one loss for the 1954 season.

In their first encounter the Freshmen routed the V.P.I. “rats” by a score of 12-0. However, they were not as successful in their next outing, losing to the University of Virginia Freshmen, 10-5, in a hard fought game. The Baby Generals rebounded strongly in their following contest to smash Staunton Military Academy by the tune of 17-0.

Many of the Freshmen will be counted on heavily in the 1955 varsity picture. Co-captains Tom and Dick Moore along with George Towson, Bill Wilemon, Dick Whiteford, Joel Bernstein, and George Allen are all strong contenders for key positions on next year’s varsity.
A promising group of freshmen tennis players led by Dick Butrick went through a brief schedule unbeaten in three matches. The season opened with two easy wins over Roanoke High School, both by the identical score of 7-2. The next match was with the yearling's arch rival, the University of Virginia. The contest turned out to be a real thriller in which the freshmen netters came from behind to top the stubborn Wahoos. The victory was highlighted by the fine doubles play of Butrick and team-mate Jim Carter. Down match point, this duo fought back to take the deciding match and gain the win for the Baby Generals.

Led by Coach Jim Farrar, the undersquadmen thus concluded their short season, undefeated. To Farrar may be attributed much of the spark and enthusiasm that has been viewed each spring in this squad and the highly successful varsity team.

The singles and doubles play was dominated by Butrick, Carter, Pres Pate, Herb Hummers, Bill Boyle, Rob Peeples, and Jack Armstrong. They had a very successful season and developed several good doubles combinations which proved to be the strong point of the team. With the addition of these men the outlook is bright for the 1955 varsity.

WASHINGTON AND Lee’s Freshmen Golf Team, coached by Cy Twombly, rolled through their five game 1954 schedule undefeated. Team Captain Joe Scales and Ted Kerr were the top performers, ably backed up by Tom Smith, John Wellford, Dick Rosenfeld, and Don Farriss.

In their first encounter, the Freshmen defeated VPI 7-2, and then took the measure of Staunton Military Academy by the same score. The Baby Generals defeated VPI easily in a return match, but they had a fight on their second encounter with Staunton. At the end of regular play the score was deadlock and the match went three extra holes before the Blue & White eeked out a 5-4 win.

In their final match of the year the Generals routed the University of Virginia 5-1 to close out an undefeated season. Coach Twombly was very pleased with the team’s showing and is looking forward to the addition of these men to the 1955 varsity.

It has not been too long ago that the students of Washington and Lee would, on frequent afternoons during the fall of the year, be found assembled in the stands of Wilson Field, cheering the old favorite, "Come on Blue, Come on White!" One of the highlights of the afternoon would always be the roar of the loyal crowd as they rose to their feet and the band struck up with "The Washington and Lee Swing." For many years we were shy of a band to play the song; we never failed to have the support of the cheerleaders. This year we found ourselves with both stalwart band and enthusiastic cheerleaders, but no football team.

A football team gives the students something to cheer about during the season, but there is more than a single sport to the spirit that must flow through the veins of a university. Those boys who, despite the absence of gridiron activities, devoted their time and effort to be cheerleaders, tried to put this idea into practice. As the emphasis was shifted from major sports to a fair distribution of interest in all phases of our athletic program, so the cheerleaders sought to follow this lead. They have taken an active part in the spectator participation of such sports as wrestling, basketball, and baseball. Led by Captain Jim Perryman, the group took positive steps this past year to spread itself throughout the entire athletic program.
With the de-emphasis of Intercollegiate Athletics, Intramurals found new glory and added prestige in the athletic program at Washington and Lee during the 1954-55 season. This new founded prominence acted as a tonic for the program which experienced one of the finest years in its long existence. The percentage of the students participating increased, as did the interest of the entire student body in supporting this one of the finest intramural programs in the country.

After all the points were in, and the final tabulations had been made, Delta Tau Delta reigned supreme for the 1953-54 season, and was presented with the over-all Intramural Trophy. This trophy represents excellence in the combined realms of Intercollegiate and Intramural Athletics, the two fields in which the current point system is in effect. It was awarded to the Delts on the basis of their fine showing in Intramurals and also their winning of the special Intercollegiate Trophy, given to the fraternity with the best turn-out in that department. The award for the top house in Intramurals alone went to Delta Upsilon.

The Intramural program at Washington and Lee is set up in the following manner. At the beginning of the year, each organization participating is given one hundred base points; then all penalty points lost by that group are subtracted from these base points. The program of events consists of twelve sports, the Corn Bowl football game, the Sigma Delta Psi tests, and the Sports Carnival. The last named is an unique feature of the full year that includes every possible sport. One of the fall attractions is the "Turkey Trot" which finds each fraternity entering freshmen to run a prescribed course through the town of Lexington. To the winner goes Intramural points plus a fat turkey. Each organization receives a determined number of points for participation in each event and additional points, in regards to how they rank in the final standings for that sport.

The miles of paper work and hours of organizational time required for such a smooth running Intramural program are expended by two people, the first being the Senior Student Manager, a post held this past year by Don Stewart. It is his job to make out the schedules, assign the officials, and in general, wet-nurse the entire system. He is very ably assisted in all these matters by Norm Lord, of the Athletic Department, Faculty Advisor to Intramurals.

The participating groups also have their say in the running of the program. They are represented and their opinions are expressed by their Fraternity Athletic Director.
In the 1954 edition of the Corn Bowl game, played annually as a benefit for the Student War Memorial Scholarship Fund Committee, the team representing Red Square was again triumphant. With the tons of brawn supplied by the Phi Delt and Sigma Nu Houses, they overpowered the light but speedy White Cobs by a score of 14-6.

The Intramural Football League of 1954 was one of the best that has been seen in a number of years. The winners of the four divisions were the Phi Delts, D.U.s, Sigma Nus, and the Phi Gams. In the semi-finals, the Phi Delts defeated the D.U.s and the Sigma Nus toppled the Phi Gams. The final game to decide the champions was a thriller in which the Sigma Nu team came out the victors by a 19-7 score.

Other sports completed by mid-year were Tennis, won by the Phi Psis and Swimming, won by the Sigma Chis. Basketball was moving into its final stages and a real battle was expected between the Delts and the Sigma Chis for the championship. Ping Pong had just begun, but the perennial favorite, ZBT, was again picked to win.

The Washington and Lee Intramural program is thus one of many and varied interests. Its main purpose has always been to offer to each and every student the opportunity to participate in the sport of his choosing and, at the same time, to have his talents contribute to the group of which he is a representative. It is felt that the added stimulus to Intramurals, apparent this past year, will continue to foster, what has become to us, an integral part of our extracurricular activities. We add our congratulations to those who have worked to make the past year so successful and to all who took an active part and shared in the spirit of true sportsmanship.
