FOREWORD

Progress, however disguised or indefinable, always requires that educational institutions prepare their students to make substantial contributions in a constantly demanding and evolving society. Throughout her history, Washington and Lee University has sought to insure that her graduates are prepared in a manner consistent with this end. It is with this thought in mind that the editors present the 1963 CALYX, not only as a memento of one year, but also as an attempt to develop the theme of progress—A PROGRESS NOT UNMINDFUL OF THE FUTURE.

DEDICATION
In keeping with the theme of progress, the editors of the CALYX feel that it is indeed proper to dedicate the 1963 edition to a man who has devoted nearly forty years of his life to the University.

We feel certain that in the matter of dedication and service to Washington and Lee, Frank J. Gilliam’s achievements are unparalleled. For this reason it is an honor and a pleasure even to pay this inadequate tribute to him.

There are, however, some sentiments which defy qualification by words alone. Therefore, we shall say only that if the dedication of this book conveys the idea that Dean Gilliam’s contribution to the progress of Washington and Lee transcends all verbal tribute, then our purpose is accomplished.

Right: The dean in his most familiar role.
To The Class of 1963:

It gives me much pleasure to express good wishes and sincere hopes for continuing success to the members of this Class. I believe that you have found in this University, as I have, the attributes of a "good college." The intellectual challenges here which result from an association of superior students and faculty, added to the traditions and spirit of Washington and Lee, have afforded us an exceptional opportunity in the course of the four years we have pursued our studies together. I hope that you have profited as much as I have from the friendliness of the community, both on campus and off, and from the desire of our associates to make your Alma Mater an even better place than when we came.

Those of you who leave this campus to begin your professional careers or to pursue further your studies are joining a body of alumni who have brought more than ordinary benefit to their families, to their country. Those who remain on campus will follow with much interest your future careers and hope for you the kind of happiness that comes from service and dedication to your fellow men.

Founded as Rho Chapter in 1856, the Beto Theta Pi chapter at Washington College had to be disbanded in 1861 because of the War Between the States. It was reactivated after the war and then again in 1921 when it became Alpha Rho. This year, Alpha Rho assumed leading roles in the social, academic, and athletic spheres at Washington and Lee.

In student activities, Bill Boardman is Vice-President of the Student Body, in Who’s Who, and president of Tau Kappa Alpha. Bill Burke serves as Chairman of the University Party and President of the Forensic Union. Charlie McCord was named to Who’s Who, Steve Parel is on the Literary Committee, while Mike McCord and Larry Manning are on the Assimilation Committee. George Croadock is IFC Secretary, and Buck Ogilvie holds the post of Junior EC. John Madison served on the Student Control Committee, while five Betas were members of SSS.

In the field of publications, Boardman was Business Manager of the CALYX, as was Elmo Markham of the Friday Ring-tum Phi.

Scholastically, Betas are found on both the Honor Roll and Dean’s list.

Athletically Betas were well represented in both varsity and intramural sports. In varsity sports, five Betas—Baird Grimson, Bo Ear nest, Flournoy, Madison, Ogilvie—played on the football team; Tom Day on the Baby Generals. Bob Larus, Frank Wakefield, and Tim Henry found positions on the varsity soccer team. In baseball, Chris Wiegert and Mason McGowin were on the General’s mound staff. John Mendel is on the swimming team.

Mrs. Frances D. Martin served as housemother for her sixteenth year, through all of which her influence and guidance have been of great service to the house.

Jay Smith is Secretary of AED and a member of SSS, along with Pete Alford, Dick Kreitler, Charlie Hart, and Burt Stanier. Hart is also Business Manager of the Southern Collegian with Paul McBride, Chuck Lane, Cheever Hardwick, Dick Brown, and Mark Owen working on the Collegian staff.

Phi Kappa Sigma was founded at the University of Pennsylvania in 1850. The Alpha Alpha Chapter was established at Washington and Lee in 1894.

This past year, Phi Kapp, under the guidance of its faculty advisor, Dr. Lucius Desha, and its president, Dave Spencer, has taken an active part in campus activities. Ham Emory is President of the Fancy Dress Week End. The Glee Club, under the leadership of President Sam Channel, Vice-President Dave Spencer, and Rich Hartgrove, earned high praise for their performances. The Southern Conservative had Bob Sykes as editor, Ralph Wiegandt as his assistant, and Ed Fitzgerald as business manager.

In sports, lettermen Jim Miel and Steve Hibbard played on the soccer field; they were joined by Bud Hollman and Jim De Young on the tennis courts, where all four played admirably. Participating in other sports were: Bill Marmion, baseball; Frank Glenn, football; Kiah Ford, basketball (manager); Bruce Macdonald, cross country; Charley Dickinson and Alex Alexander, wrestling; and John Beagle, track.

Freshmen seen on W&L teams were Joe Priddy, baseball; Brownie Kimes, basketball; Bob Duckwall, golf; Forrest Dickenson, rifle; Hugo Rutherford, soccer; Bo Bokinsky and Tom Corse, swimming; and John Hensley, lacrosse.

Clarence Crenshaw was news director of Home Edition and Vice-President of Sigma Delta Chi. George Spaulding was Secretary of the UCA, and Sam Tarkard was Secretary of Washington Literary Society. Mac McNeace was a Freshman Councilor and a Dorm Councilor, while Jim Bussart represented the house on the IFC. De Young was a feature writer for the Ring-tum-Phi and a member of The Southern Collegian. While Jack Crisman was acting for the Troubadors, Steve Hibbard was lending service to the Dance Board as a member of its Advisory Council.

Climaxed by Fancy Dress, the Phi Kaps again had a very successful social calendar. In addition to the regular combos, the Christmas Party for underprivileged children of Lexington was renewed.

To our housemother, Mrs. Alice Cogbill, go our sincere thanks for another year of devoted service and matchless understanding.

The Virginia Sigma Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon was founded in 1867, eleven years after the founding of the national fraternity at the University of Alabama. During these 95 years at Washington and Lee, the men of Virginia Sigma have molded a proud history.

This year SAEs are found in all phases of campus life. Lanny Butler is Secretary of the student body, and serves on the Executive Committee along with Ed Holmes. Bill Noell is Junior Class President and also Chairman of the Assimilation committee. Ham Newsom serves as Vice-President for the science school. Virginia Sigma figures prominently in athletics also. Tommy Keesee heads six other SAEs as co-captain of the football team. Bip Fauber is captain of the basketball team, with Bill Smith and Gene Pearce also playing on the team. In wrestling, Jud Babcock and Dick Albert are co-captains. John Baker is the captain of the tennis team.

Four SAEs were recognized for leadership in campus activities by being selected for Who's Who, including brothers Holmes, Butler, Fauber, and Keesee.

Virginia Sigma is indebted to its housemother, Mrs. Margarita Domenech, for her assistance throughout the year. Faculty advisors, Dr. Jay Cook, Dr. James Sterling, Dean Frank J. Gilliam, and Mr. William Washburn, also assisted the house in innumerable ways, and we are grateful to them.

Sigma Chi Fraternity was founded in 1855 at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. In 1866, Zeta Chapter was founded on the Washington and Lee campus.

Chi was active throughout all campus activities. Bucky Buxton, Rob Orr, and Tom Ware wrestled, and Scott Kennedy ran cross country. Sandy Ross is on the rifle team while Nelson Williams and Bill Broaddus swam.

With 13 men on the Dean’s List this year, Zeta compiled an excellent academic record. John Refo and Nelson Williams were members of Phi Eta Sigma, Fred Baker was a member of the Commerce Fraternity, and Jim Wood received a Robert E. Lee Research Grant.

On the Troubadour stage, Warren Montgomery, Sid Parham, and Bob Aylin contributed their talents, while Gay Reading and Steve Calvin held down major roles in several plays. Aylin was also publicity director, and George Sanders worked with the stage crew. John Palmer and Pegram Johnson were on the CALYX, with Palmer also working with Bob Phillips on the Ring-tum-Phi. Nick Ruffin and John McMurry made the debate team, while Calvin, Aylin, and Spence Sullivan are in the Glee Club. John Refo is in SWMSFC and is editor of a new literary magazine. Butch Kroos was initiated into the "13" Club.

The traditional Monte Carlo party, complete with money and jail, was a huge success, and the many sides of the Sweetheart’s Ball will long be remembered. Aside from the more formal affairs, there was the ordinary weekend, where everybody pitched in to have a good time from the trips to Goshen to New York.

Phi Beta Kappa, the oldest Greek-letter fraternity in the United States, is a national honorary fraternity which recognizes outstanding scholarship. Membership in this society has long been one of the highest academic distinctions attainable. Qualifications for membership are based on high scholarship, liberal culture, and good character. Each graduating class is considered by itself and each individual is judged on his own merits, with election not being based on any fixed percentage of the class.

The University Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics is composed of five members of the Faculty chosen by the Board of Trustees, two alumni members chosen by the Alumni Association, and two student members chosen by the Executive Committee of the Student Body.

The Committee exercises the following specific functions: to assist the Administration in the selection of a director of athletics and athletic coaches; to approve the scheduling of all contests; to prepare and submit for the approval of the Board of Trustees a budget for the operation of intercollegiate athletics; and to consider and pass on the applications of students to represent the University in all branches of sport.

CY TWOMBLY
Athletic Director
COLLEGE ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

For years, several Southeastern colleges and universities, including Washington and Lee, have pursued a policy of no special financial aid to students participating in intercollegiate sports. In January, 1962, five proponents of non-subsidized athletics joined forces in the College Athletic Conference to foster sports "solely because of interest in the enjoyment of the game." The charter members of this conference are Centre College, Southwestern at Memphis, The University of the South (Sewanee), and Washington and Lee. Washington University in St. Louis joined the conference shortly after it was formed, but will not compete in conference competition until 1963-64.

In the conference articles of organization, it is stated that: "No aid funds shall specifically be reserved for athletes, and the directors of athletics and coaches shall have no voice or participation in the determination of recipients or amounts of financial aid to any student. Criteria for admission to the individual member institutions shall be the same for all students."

The conference has no rules on eligibility as such. The articles of organization state that "it is assumed that all member institutions will permit participation on their athletic teams only to regular, full-time students in good standing as defined by the regulations of their respective faculties."

The conference will sponsor intercollegiate competition in football, basketball, golf, tennis, track and field and baseball. Other sports may be added at a later date.

A locomotive bell is the trophy and symbol for the conference. The bell, a gift of the Norfolk & Western Railway Company, will be presented to the member college with the highest number of points in all conference sports. The trophy is presented at the conclusion of the conference Spring track tournament.

In the 1962 season, the Washington and Lee Generals compiled an 8-1-0 overall mark and captured the first College Athletic Conference championship with a 3-0 conference record. Although the season was marred by the first defeat in three years, the Generals more than doubled their opponents' point total and amassed over a mile and a half in total yardage.

Despite the loss of twenty-two lettermen from the undefeated, untied team of 1961, the 1962 Generals were at least three-deep at every position. Coach MacLaughlin's three-platoon system ran up a total of 239 points and proved both a physical and psychological advantage throughout the season. Tom Keesee led the scoring with 58 points, followed by Stu Yoffee with 40, Henry Sackett with 34, and Skip Chase with 26. Yoffee was the leading ground gainer, averaging 7.1 yards per carry; and Keesee picked up 464 yards in 90 carries for a 5.1 average. Linemen Bob Payne and Mike Sheffey anchored the Blue defensive unit, while John Madison, Buck Ogilvie, Jim Sylvester, Phil McCaleb, Mickey Walker, and Bill Angel gave the Generals an impressive forward wall.

Payne, Keesee, and Madison were named to both the All-Conference and Virginia Small College teams. Yoffee also received double honors as he made the All-Conference team and joined Ogilvie, McCaleb, and Chuck Lane for Honorable Mention awards in the Virginia Small College selections.

The 1962 football team, along with the coaches and all those connected with it, should be commended for a fine effort and another outstanding season.

FOOTBALL

FOOTBALL
Washington and Lee's Generals opened the 1962 season with a 15-6 victory over Hampden-Sydney. In the first period, W&L's right halfback, Stuart Yoffe, stopped a Tiger drive by intercepting a pass in his own end zone and returning it 92 yards to the Hampden-Sydney nine. Three plays later Yoffe crashed over for the score, and Mike Jenkins converted to give the Generals a 7-0 lead.

In the third quarter, Henry Sackett swept right end on what appeared to be a 65-yard scoring run but was called back to the 20 where the referees ruled he stepped out of bounds. In the third quarter tri-captain Keesee cracked over on a fullback trap from the one and Sackett converted to make the score 15-0.

Later in the game Hampden-Sydney sustained an 88 yard drive in 19 plays to score, but the two-point conversion attempt was stacked up short of the goal.
In the home opener, the Generals defeated Lebanon Valley College 28-6. The Generals' Blue Team forced their own breaks in causing Lebanon Valley to fumble three times, and on each occasion converted the opportunity into a touchdown. Sackett, Madison, and Keesee scored the touchdowns after the fumble recoveries by Madison, Keesee, and Angel respectively. The final TD was scored by John Norman who filled in at right halfback for injured Stu Linebacker Mike Shuffey (52) and tackle Phil McCaleb (72) stop a hopless Lebanon Valley back for no yardage.

Yoffe. The most sensational play of the day was a 25-yard pass play from Chuck Lane to Bill David who went into the air to take the ball on his ten, scrambled to the five, and pitched to John Madison who went over untouched.

The Generals' defense and three-platoon system helped wear down the larger Lebanon Valley team, but the more aggressive play of the Generals was the decisive factor of victory.

W & L—33

EMORY & HENRY—38

The Generals traveled to Emory, Virginia, for the third game of the season and literally fell into a nest of Wasps. Emory & Henry had not lost a homecoming encounter in years, and this proved to be no exception as they ended the Generals' 21-game streak, 38-33. Wasp halfback Earl Hawkins scored the first of his five touchdowns on the opening kickoff, and the visiting Generals were behind six points with less than 20 seconds on the scoreboard. After the conversion failed, however, W&L came back to score with Henry Sackett's one-yard plunge, capping a long drive. Mike Jenkins' conversion put the Generals in the lead, 7-6. Skip Chase upped the point total to 13-6 in the second quarter, but another touchdown by Hawkins put the Wasps back in the lead 14-13 at halftime. To begin the second, Henry Sackett matched Mr. Hawkins' feat and returned the kickoff 93 yards for the score. Tom Keese and Stu Yoffe combined two fine runs for the fourth score as Yoffe went the last 36 yards for the tally. Shortly after, Bill David received a Wasp punt on his own 9 and threaded his way 91 yards for the score. At this point W&L led 33-14, but made the fatal mistake of letting up, and the Wasps stormed back to go ahead 38-33. The Generals displayed "sheer guts football" in holding off three Emory and Henry assaults from the 1-yard line, but on the final attempt Hawkins squirted over after being momentarily stopped.

SEWANEE—0

In the last home game of the year, Washington and Lee bested an excellent Sewanee University team 8–0. Two days of rain had turned Wilson Field into a quagmire, but both teams were up for the game and played outstanding football. Tom Keesee scored the lone General tally, capping a 9-play, 38-yard touchdown march; and Henry Sackett added the last points of the game when he powered over right end for the two-point conversion. In this drive, third-down plays played a crucial role. With third and seven on the Sewanee 35, Chuck Lane hit Stu Yoffee on a key pass play for 14 yards and a first down, and on another key third-down play Skip Chase slashed through a hole left by guard Mickey Walker for 9 yards and another first down. Defensively the Generals played what was without question their finest game. Time and again the powerful Sewanee single wing was stacked up by the Generals, and never did the Tigers mount a serious scoring drive. Interceptions by Madison and Lane choked off two Sewanee drives, but more noteworthy was the bone-rending line play by Payne and Sheffey. Such defensive play never permitted Sewanee to gain any sustained momentum and helped to earn W&L its second conference victory.

W & L—22  SOUTHWESTERN—0

Washington and Lee ended the 1962 season appropriately by capturing the first C.A.C. football crown by defeating Southwestern University 22-0. Once again rain turned the field into mire, making ball handling and footing hazardous. Neither team could manage a sustained drive until near the end of the first half when Stu Yoffe started the Generals rolling by intercepting a Southwestern pass near the General goal line and returning it to the Lynx 28-yard line. With only seconds remaining, Chuck Lane rolled out and hit Yoffe on a 27-yard pass play and on the next play from scrimmage, Tom Keesee drove the ball into the end zone, Henry Sackett added the two-point conversion, and the Generals assumed an 8-0 lead at the end of the first half. In the second half, Sackett hit John Madison with a 23-yard scoring pass and Keesee gained a Lynx aerial to run the Generals' total 27. An outstanding defensive effort and a goal line stand kept the Lynx at bay, as Washington and Lee ended the season with an impressive 8-1-0 record.

Soccer

Coach Joe Lyles' bootmen finished their best season in many years with a 7-4-2 record. The team was especially proud of its 3-1 defeat of Lynchburg College, the first in many years. The bootmen also had a moral victory while losing to Fort Lee 0-3. This was a moral victory in that Fort Lee is one of the nation's top teams and most of its players were foreign. Coach Lyles credits the team's success this season, not so much to ability but to the fact that the boys wanted to play and were willing to work hard.

The team was one of the three candidate schools, one of which would play in the Little World Series of Soccer. The other two schools were Loyola and Lynchburg. Lynchburg was selected because of its 1-0 victory over W&L in the State Tournament. Even being a candidate must be considered quite an honor.

Coach Lyles highly praised co-captains Tommy Clements and Bob Pagano for a fine season. He also mentioned as outstanding next year's co-captains, Tommy Green and Jim Mell; freshman Tim Henry who made first-team All-State; and sophomore Bruce Jackson, who also earned first team All-State honors.

The team will miss Pagano and Clements, but it has prospects for an even better season next year with juniors Green and Mell; sophomores Warner, Jackson, Hibbard, and Sweet; and freshmen Henry, Horner, Redmond, Wakefield, and Darden.

It should be noted that W&L under Coach Lyles, has started a Virginia Intercollegiate Soccer Association which aims to stimulate more interest in soccer throughout the South.

WASHINGTON AND LEE'S CROSS COUNTRY team compiled a fine 6-2 record in 1962 and captured second place in the state meet. Coach Dick Miller's squad featured balance and depth which made possible the successful season. The second-place finish in the state meet against larger schools such as U.Va., VPI, and William and Mary was most gratifying, as was the victory over Bridgewater and Old Dominion, who had defeated the Generals earlier in the campaign.

The General Harriers defeated Pfeiffer College by forfeit, Randolph-Macon 26-23, Lynchburg 48-49, Franklin and Marshall 20-43, Roanoke 25-36, and Fairmont College 25-35. Losses came at the hands of Bridgewater 48-30 and Old Dominion 43-17, but revenge was soon to come.

Mike Shank was voted the Forest Fletcher trophy as the outstanding cross-country runner, and was followed closely in points by Andy Kilpatrick and Rif O'Conner. Other men who contributed to the Generals' success are Mac Brownlee, Clyde Foshee, Scott Kennedy, Bob Patton, Rick Rodgers, Charlie Head, Robin Dyer, Scott Lavery, Jim Legg, Jim Thompson, and Ed Wood.

Captains Mike Shank and Mal Brownlee provided fine leadership and are the only two men who shall be missing from the 1963 squad. Andy Kilpatrick is the captain-elect of next year's Generals, who should fare as well as in '62.
The Washington and Lee University Rifle Club, an affiliate club of the National Rifle Association of America, fired a total of thirty-five matches during the 1962-63 season. These included varsity and freshman shoulder matches, postal matches, and a military match. The average for the season was slightly better than .500.

The varsity team was composed largely of sophomores from the freshman squad of last year. Only three upperclassmen were left from the predominantly senior team of a year ago. Academic difficulties and transfers also eliminated a number of individuals who were regarded as some of the brighter prospects among both freshmen and upperclassmen.

The season was characterized by relatively close scores in all matches. The triangular match in Washington, D.C., was the photo-finish of the season as George Washington University nosed out the Generals by one point.

The freshman team was somewhat overmatched by firing in the elite military-school league. In spite of this handicap, the freshmen gave an extremely fine performance as they improved their team score every match, and by the end of the season had increased their match average by more than 100 points. Freshman captain David Head and his regulars will provide fine varsity material in the coming seasons.

The club champion and the winner of the National Rifle Association Silver Medal was Donald Wyly, a Delta Upsilon senior, with a season-match average of 279.25. Team captain Arthur Portnoy, a Zeta Beta Tau senior, was runnerup with a season average of 273.25.

The 1962-63 swimming season under the coaching of Norris Eastman was once more highlighted by outstanding individual performances. In the twelve scheduled meets of the season every school record was broken, with the exception of the fifty-yard freestyle set in 1939.

In the first meet of the season the W&L tankmen, captained by Herb Jahncke, met arch rival Virginia. Although U. Va. won the meet with their strongest team in years, John Wolfe managed to set new records in both the 200 and 500-yard freestyle races.

The Generals' meet with Roanoke College found a trio of double winners: Grant, Bokinsky, and Broadus. Also, in the loss to Loyola, 67-28, freshman Don Casto took first place in the fifty and the final relay of the meet.

In the third loss of the season against American University, Bokinsky and Lifter finished first and second in the 200-yard breaststroke. John Wolfe again took both distance events.

The win over the Wake Forest College team saw freshman and sophomore swimmers scoring most of the points. Randy Wooten and David Geer finished second and third in the diving event.

W&L displayed an outstanding record-breaking performance against Old Dominion, when four pool records fell: Wolfe completed the 200-yard freestyle in 1:56.0; John Lifter swam a 2:10.8 individual medley; Bokinsky broke the 200-yard butterfly record with a time of 2:18.1; and W&L's 400-yard freestyle relay team of Monsarrat, Hart, Casto, and Jahncke set a new record of 2:23.9.

After a defeat by powerful Maryland, the Generals upset West Virginia 51-44. Five days later the W&L team was surprised by East Carolina 59-36 to finish the season with a 7-5 record against an extremely competitive schedule. Bokinsky and Wolfe led the team in points throughout the season. Next season's team should prove to be exceptionally strong with the return of several of this year's point leaders, and an unusually strong group of freshmen.

The 1962-63 basketball team suffered another disappointing season. The Generals, under Coach Bob McHenry and captained by Roger Fauber, were hampered throughout the season by illness and injuries, but entered several outstanding performances.

The Generals opened the season at home against Lebanon Valley, a new athletic foe for W & L this year. Captain Bip Fauber and Howard Martin each scored fifteen points, but the team was unable to handle the Flying Dutchmen, and fell 68-57. Three days later W & L traveled to Bridgewater to capture the first victory of the season, 83-57. Captain Fauber set the pace with 23 points, closely followed by the twenty points of Brett Thackston.

W & L stayed on the road for the next two games against Norfolk and Randolph-Macon. The Generals again ran into trouble, and returned to Lexington with a 1-3 record. Three days later the W & L cagers lost in overtime play to King College, although Fauber dropped in 22 points. Louie Paterno and Fauber scored in the overtime, but the Generals were edged 63-58.

On the following Saturday W & L met its first C.A.C. foe when Centre College traveled to Lexington. Generals Wallace and Paterno played an outstanding game, but the squad fell 82-78. Before the Christmas vacation the team traveled to Pennsylvania to meet Catholic University and Pennsylvania Military College. The Generals toppled in the first game to the Catholic team, 65-41.

Against P.M.C., the Generals sparkled as Howard Martin garnered a career high of 26 rebounds. Captain Bip Fauber matched his 26 points with 22 rebounds, as W&L upset their opposition 76-68. P.M.C.'s Zweed scored 31 points for the defeated Military College.

After the vacation the W&L cagers scored a surprising upset against highly touted Hampden-Sydney, 73-62. Fauber, Paterno and Supak led the team in double figures, while Howard Martin played an amazing game on the boards. Later in the season the men from Hampden-Sydney returned the upset with a 96-88 victory over the Generals. This second game was probably the finest offensive effort of the team throughout the season. W&L again had three men in double figures.

The Generals held a large lead at the half against Lynchburg College, but were unable to hold it to the end. Fauber led the team with 23 points, but it wasn't quite enough to prevent a painful 64-63 loss. With the loss of Tom Supak the Generals once more faced Bridgewater, but came up with another victory.

W&L had another shot against Roanoke College, and suffered a 77-72 defeat, with Fauber and Paterno leading the scoring. W&L ended its regular season with losses to both Baltimore and Randolph-Macon before entering the Conference Tournament. In the first round of the tournament Southwestern of Memphis fell before the Generals, undaunted by injured captain Bip Fauber. Washington University of St. Louis and Sewanee next defeated the Generals to end the season.

Next year the W&L squad will be hurt by the loss of Bill Smith, Brett Thackston, and Captain Bip Fauber. Fauber captained the Generals through three seasons, and has been an invaluable member of the squad. Had injuries and fortune treated the Generals more kindly the season would have perhaps been a more successful one.

Mixing ability with desire to win, the Washington and Lee wrestling team compiled its finest record since the late 1940's. Coach Dick Miller's squad, his finest at W&L, easily handled eight of their ten opponents. In matches that could have gone either way, the Generals bitterly succumbed to Franklin and Marshall as well as arch rival, Virginia.

The team's main attribute was its ability to have a qualified performer in reach of the eight weight divisions. Two sophomores, Tom Stover and Pete Winfield, both performing in several weight classes, ended the season with 9-1 records. Senior tri-captain Dave Montgomery, 8-2 for the year, exhibited a great deal of ability. Butch West, another sophomore, had a fine 6-3-1 record. Junior Herb Smith, next year's captain, was out for part of the season; but still managed to win 4, while losing only 2. Special credit is due Jud Babcock and Dick Albert, the other two tri-captains, for their outstanding performances in heavier weight classes than they would normally be in.

With a strong nucleus returning from this year's team and a good group coming up from the freshman squad, W&L wrestling fans can look forward to another successful season next year.
Washington and Lee's golf team, under the guidance of Cy Twombly, finished another successful season with a record of five wins and three losses. Because of bad course conditions and insufficient practice, the team started poorly with a 6-3 defeat by Dartmouth. The team came back with wins over M.I.T., 6-3, and William & Mary of Norfolk, 7-2. The Generals were then defeated by William & Mary and Hampden-Sydney. But after these defeats, the team came on strong to end the season with wins over George Washington, Lynchburg College, and Bridgewater.

Coach Twombly is rather uncertain of next season because of the loss of his four valuable seniors: Captain Grantham Couch, Will Lee, Ronnie Stewart, and Jack Vardaman, who received the Outstanding Player Award and is considered, by Coach Twombly, to be "the best golfer that W&L has had in four years." The only returning lettermen are juniors Hayes, McWilliams, and Henry. Without depth, Coach Twombly is looking to such rising sophomores as Bill Abbott, Dave Carroll, and others to fill this need.
The Washington and Lee tennis squad completed a successful season winning six of nine matches. Although they lost three out of their first five contests to Dartmouth, George Washington, and William and Mary, the team came alive and won the four remaining matches readily. Coach Washburn was especially pleased with the 3-2 win over the Cavaliers of Virginia, a match which, though rained out after five sets, was still considered a victory.

Captain John Baker assumed the number-one position on the team when Clark Valentine failed to return this year. Other standouts for the team were two freshmen, Randy Jones and Jim DeYoung, both having 7-2 records and playing in the number-2 and 3 spots, respectively.

Looking forward to an even more successful season in 1963, Coach Washburn will be calling on seven returning lettermen: Junior John Mills; sophomores Baker, Jim Mell, and Bud Holman; and freshmen Jones, DeYoung, and Lindsey Short.
When the 1962 season opened, the Washington and Lee lacrosse team found itself hampered by a lack of both depth and experience. Few seniors returned, leaving several positions open for inexperienced freshmen. The young team was led by defensemen Bart Mitchell and Bill Wheeler as co-captains.

The opening game against the Australian All-Stars was played on a muddy field in a cold, driving rain. The Generals looked strong until the fourth quarter, when the Aussies scored their final goals to win 10-8. The scoring in this game was led by Johnny McDaniel and freshman Carroll Klinglehoffer, with Ray Miller making sixteen saves in his first game as a goalie.

The stickmen lost their next five straight on the spring trip to Hofstra, Brown, Penn State, Loyola, and Massachusetts.

In the next game, against Washington College, the Generals looked forward to their first victory, but were set back 6-5. Again McDaniel led the Generals in scoring. The next week the Generals faced the power of Johns Hopkins with the formidable Jerry Schmidt, who scored six goals for them. Ray Miller had another outstanding day in the goal and was credited with twenty-five saves. The Jays took 68 shots at the Washington and Lee goal, on their way to a 15-4 victory.

Washington and Lee's first success came against the Tar Heels of North Carolina. The Generals took this game 9-4, with Charlie Gummey scoring three goals, and Bob Hankey and McDaniel netting two apiece. After this game, Ray Miller led the country in cumulative saves.

The next three games against Baltimore College, Duke, and Virginia were lost, leaving the Generals with a 1-and-11 record for the season. Ray Miller was chosen as the South's goalie in the annual North-South game, and also merited a place on the second-string All-American team. John McDaniel led the Generals in scoring, while Charlie Gummey was second. Co-captains for the 1963 season are Bob Van Rensselaer and Dan Reed. The team loses only three lettermen, and has many outstanding freshmen for next year's support.

Coach Lyles instructs Co-captain Ned Hobbs in correct batting technique.
Unable to play consistently well, the baseball team ended a rather disappointing season with a 2-13-1 record. This was virtually the same team which had compiled an 8-4 mark the previous year, but in '62 the hitting fell to a frustrating .277 and the fielding average dipped to .792.

Bad luck in the late innings plagued the Generals in the early season as they dropped four of the first five games, winning only at Atlantic Christian by a 14-2 margin. Returning from the road, the Generals lost to Lynchburg and then William and Mary in close games, the latter being decided by a grand-slam homer with two out in the ninth inning. Troubles continued as W&L could not successfully combine pitching, hitting, and fielding, and fell to the University of Richmond by a 9-0 score. Following losses to Lynchburg and Hampden-Sydney, the Generals notched their second victory with a 9-6 win over William and Mary. Pitching by Phil Sharp and Mason McGowin combined with timely hitting to provide the margin. But that was all the winning for W&L as the team salvaged only one tie with Bridgewater out of the last five games.

Although the team fared poorly as a whole, certain individual performances were outstanding. Senior Robin Wood led the Generals at bat with a .276 average, followed by Bob Williams and Ned Hobbs. Captain Hobbs led the team in total bases stolen with 27 and Robin Wood was second with 20. The pitching staff was led by Mason McGowin with a fine 3.08 ERA and Phil Sharp with a 4.17 mark. At the end of the season, Hobbs was selected as the most valuable player, and Chuck Lane was elected Captain for the coming year. Though faced with a difficult schedule and a major rebuilding problem, Coach Lyles hopes for a much more successful season in '63. He commented that a winning season would depend on the Generals' ability to co-ordinate outstanding individual performances with a combined team effort.
The Washington and Lee track team had another successful season in 1962, although they did not equal the previous year's undefeated record. Under co-captains George Cruger and Jim Hickey, the Generals finished the season with a 4-1 slate, including one forfeit and one cancellation. In its only triangular meet, the Generals outdistanced the competition for another victory. Both the freshman and varsity teams finished fourth in their respective state meets, while the varsity placed sixth in the NCAA Regional meet.

The high scorer for the season was broad jumper Robin Kell, an all-around performer who won the Forrest Fletcher trophy for his outstanding ability. In addition to his broad jumping, Kell was a high jumper and record setter in the hop, step and jump event.

The Memorial Track and Field Award, given to the most improved trackman, was awarded to Henry Sackett for both his broad jumping and sprinting.

The team for 1963 will face several problems, one being the loss of previous state champion in the 100-yard dash, Jim Hickey. Rising sophomores, however, such as Chris Kell in the sprints and Dan Manson in the shot put, should add considerable strength to the Generals. The team will be captained by Dave Monroe and Mickey Walker, both field-event men.

Captain-elect Mickey Walker throwing the javelin.
The Intramural sports, under the direction of Wyatt Durrette and Buck Leslie, are operated on a campus-wide basis consisting of teams from sixteen fraternities, the Law School, and N.F.L.

Every year the race is determined by a scant number of points; and at mid-year, a mere 48 points separate the leaders, SAE leads at semester break with 460, followed by Kappa Sigma, Sigma Chi, Pi Kappa Alpha, and Phi Delta.

The Law School took first place in football with an undefeated record, followed by Delta Tau Delta and Pi Kappa Alpha, the golf title was won by Kappa Sigma, as SAE and Phi Delta came in second and third, Pi Kappa Alpha won the tennis championship, with SAE, Phi Delta, and KA following in third place.

Basketball, which generally creates more enthusiasm than any other sport, was deadlocked at mid-year between SAE and Sigma Nu.

In swimming, SAE again captured the title despite stiff competition from Phi Kappa Sigma and Kappa Sigma.

Wrestling has been dominated by Phi Psi, but as yet, the champion has not been decided. KA and Delta Tau Delta also are strong, and the latter half of the year should provide plenty of excitement.

The "13" Club is an honorary junior society. Thirteen members of the junior class are chosen each fall by the senior members of the club and are initiated thirteen days later on Homecoming Day. The unpredictable displays put on by the new members at halftime of the Homecoming game have become another of W&L's numerous mythical traditions.

"13" CLUB
The Mongolian Minks is an esoteric organization with a history traceable to Alexander of Mesopotamia. After the demise of Alexander, the group moved to an unknown location in Germany; when the Wars of the Roses, when the Minks emerged in full strength on the British Isles, only to be forced into hiding once more by the leaders of the Puritan Revolt. Finally, after long and arduous travels, this group found worthy and permanent abode on the campus of Washington and Lee University.

The activities of the Minks, which are so enigmatic as to border on the inscrutable, have often been misunderstood, and it is for this reason that this organization has been seen in the wrong light. For public purposes, the function of the Mongolian Minks is to live life in a manner which will paradoxically merge the Dionysian and Byzantine Heritage of the group, in order that each individual may be most worthy to work for the general betterment of mankind.
The general objective of the Reserve Officers Training Corps course of instruction is to produce junior officers who by their education, training, and inherent qualities are suitable for continued development as officers in the United States Army. Instruction will cover military fundamentals common to all branches of the service. The aim is to provide a basic military education, and, in conjunction with other college disciplines, to develop individual character and attributes essential to an officer.

Epilogue

It is our hope that we have presented Washington and Lee University in transition from the old to the new, from the traditional to the evolving, progressive present. For as every freshman class brings with it new ideas and ideals, every graduating class takes away with it something of the ancient tradition of the University. It is, to a great degree, this ability to accept the new and the unique and to impart the old and accepted that enables Washington and Lee to prepare her graduates to contribute substantially to their developing society.

We feel that it is appropriate as we close the 1963 edition of the CALYX to recall the theme which we have attempted to develop—the theme of PROGRESS, NOT UNMINDFUL OF THE FUTURE. This motto appears upon the official crest of the University, but even more significant is the fact that the spirit of this motto permeates every facet of the lives of the students and faculty who are Washington and Lee.

THE MOON... and beyond!

Bright, new horizons await today's students... new technologies... new medicines... even the moon and whatever lies beyond.

How far today's students go in this space age depends partly on their imagination but primarily on their training. Conquering new horizons will demand more of today's graduates — more knowledge, more skills, more training and more specialization.

Our Free Enterprise system, with its high living standards, gives everyone an opportunity to "shoot for the moon" in any field. Whether or not our target is reached depends on how well trained we are to launch ourselves.
