VOL. III.

WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY, SATURDAY, MAY 12, 1900.

NO. 27.

W. L. U., 1; V. P. I., 2.

THE GAME DECIDED IN THE THIRTEENTH INNING.

The bull-dog was there and did his part, and rooters were not wanting, but the traditional bad luck of the University was there also, and so we lost the game; the "Jonah" which the football team left in Roanoke could not be overcome and Washington and Lee still wears the sackcloth and ashes, of such a style, however, that any other team might envy the wearer.

Such was the fate that awaited the team and the students who accompanied it to Roanoke on last Saturday. Despite the threatening appearance of the weather in the morning, the sun shone brightly and the day was an ideal one for baseball. About 500 persons were out to see the game and all who were neutral at the beginning were carried away by the excitement of the contest and before its close had joined their sympathies with one of the teams and were rooting as enthusiastically as those immediately concerned.

The game that was played has not been equalled by any college team this year, and was one of the best ever played in the state. At the beginning the odds were in favor of the University, but after the fourth inning, no one could have picked the winner. The teams were so evenly matched that only a stroke of good fortune could have given the game to either, and, of course, the good fortune came to V. P. I. V. P. I. scored in the first and thirteenth, and the University in the fourth inning. The game should have been 1 to 0 in the ninth inning in favor of our team, as the run of the Cadets was made on a misunderstanding of Bagley, J. W., as to the ground rules, while our score was earned.

The game was principally a pitcher's battle supported with good work by both teams. Crawford stood up well under the strain and pitched a phenomenal game. No one could have done better. He and Andrews also did some excellent batting, and the rest of the team played in their best form. Johnson pitched an excellent game for V. P. I., and was well supported. The game was played under protest by our team as to the eligibility of Johnson to play under the constitution and the game will probably be given to us by the executive committee.

The game in detail:

1ST INNING.

W. & L.—Boogher fanned, Crawford out 2nd to 1st, Bagley fanned and thrown out at first.

V. P. I.—Hall struck out and reached 1st on a wild throw by Bagley, steals 2nd and comes home on a passed ball. Burrell makes 1st on Spencer's error; Carpenter fans and is thrown out at 1st. Burrell goes to 2nd, and is thrown out on stealing 3rd. Jewel out 2nd to 1st.

V. P. I., 1; W. & L., 0.

2ND INNING.

W. & L.—Andrews reaches 1st on muffed fly; Bledsoe knocks to 3rd forcing Andrews out; Bledsoe out trying to steal 2nd; Booker out Hall to Carpenter.

V. P. I.—Jackson out on foul; DeCamp thrown out by Crawford; Bell out, Bagley, S. C., to Spencer.

V. P. I., 1; W. & L., 0.

3RD INNING.

W. & L.—Bagley, J. W., out on grounder to Carpenter; Lee out, 3rd to 1st; Spencer gets a hit and Boogher fans.

V. P. I.—Johnson out from Lee to Spencer; Walsh fans; Hall out, Crawford to Spencer.

V. P. I., 1; W. & L., 0.

4TH INNING.

W. & L.—Crawford hits for two bags; Bagley, S. C., out from Burrell to Carpenter; Andrews gets a single, scoring Crawford; Bledsoe out, Jackson to Carpenter; Andrews reaches 2nd, and Booker fans.

V. P. I.—Burrell out, Andrews to Spencer; Bagley, J. W., catches Carpenter's foul; Jewel gets a single and steals 2nd; Jackson fans.

V. P. I., 1; W. & L., 1.

5TH INNING.

W. & L.—Bagley, J. W., out from Jackson to Carpenter; Lee out from Johnson to Carpenter; Spencer out on a pop fly to Johnson.

V. P. I.—De Camp gets a hit and reaches second on a passed ball; Bell is hit by a pitched ball; De Camp runs on a foul and is called out by umpire for not retouching base; Johnson out, Andrews to Spencer; Walsh fans.

V. P. I., 1; W. & L., 1.

6TH INNING.

W. & L.—Boogher and Crawford fan in succession; Bagley, S. C., gets a single; Andrews out on a fly to Bell.

V. P. I.—Hall out on a fly to Bledsoe; Burrell out from Crawford to Spencer; Carpenter gets a hit; Jewel gets to 1st on Spencer's error, and Carpenter reaches 2nd; Jackson out, Lee to Spencer.

V. P. I., 1; W. & L., 1.

7TH INNING.

W. & L.—Bledsoe out, on a grounder from Johnson to Carpenter; Booker hit by ball; Bagley J. W., gets a hit, and Booker, trying to take 3rd, is thrown out by Jewel; Bagley, J. W., steals 2nd; Lee out on a foul fly to Burrell.

V. P. I.—For the second time De Camp leads off with a hit, but is thrown out by Crawford to Spencer; Bell strikes out; Johnson reaches 1st on Lee's error; Walsh out on a fly to Bledsoe.

V. P. I., 1; W. & L., 1.

8TH INNING.

W. & L.—Spencer out on a fly to Burrell; Boogher out from Johnson to Carpenter; Crawford gets a hit; Bagley, S. C., hits to Burrell who throws Crawford out at 2nd.

V. P. I.—Hall is thrown out by Andrews; Burrell ditto; Carpenter out, Crawford to 1st.

V. P. I., 1; W. & L., 1.

9TH INNING.

W. & L.—Andrews, Bledsoe and Booker fail to connect with the ball.

V. P. I.—Jewel reaches 1st on a muffed fly by Boogher but is thrown out at 2nd by Bagley, J. W.; Jackson out on a foul to Bagley, J. W.; De Camp out on a fly to Bagley, J. W.

V. P. I., 1; W. & L., 1.

The remaining four innings were the most exciting part of the game; one team shut the other out in quick succession and more than four men never came to the bat in an inning. In the tenth we had a good chance to score with two men on bases and nobody out, but failed to reach the home plate. The last inning, which decided the game, is as follows:

13TH INNING.

W. & L.—Spencer out from Burrell to Carpenter; Boogher and Crawford fan.

V. P. I.—Hall out on a fly to Boogher; Burrell then gets a three-bagger and is brought home by Carpenter's single, winning the game.

W. and L., 11; St. Albans, 9

The game with St. Albans on last Monday was about the poorest exhibition of ball playing we have witnessed this season. The uninterestedness of the game was due to the careless playing of our team. They succeeded in getting a good lead on the visitors in the early part of the game and then played listlessly, allowing St. Albans to almost tie the score, which should have been very one-sided. Andrews was not in good shape and St. Albans succeeded in hitting the ball rather much, which together with good base running on the part of some of their players and errors by ours, allowed them to roll up their score.

The batting of Boogher, Andrews and Bagley and the base running of the latter were perhaps the features of the game.

1ST INNING.

Boogher walks. Crawford is hit by pitcher and Boogher goes to second. Bagley, S. C., hits through short-stop and reaches second. Boogher scores and Crawford gets to third. Andrews gets a single scoring Crawford, and Bagley is thrown out at second. Bagley, J. W., is hit by pitcher and gets to second on Walker's error. Bledsoe out, Taylor to Daniel, and Bagley reaches third. Booker out, Walker to Daniel.

For St. Albans.—Taylor leads off with a single, Daniel goes out, Lee to Spencer, Taylor reaches second and steals third. Walker gets a base on balls and Taylor steals home. Walker goes to second on a passed ball, West fans and Munger flies out to Spencer.

W. and L. 3, St. Albans 1.

2ND INNING.

Lee fans and Spencer out, Daniel to Taylor. Boogher gets a triple and Crawford is hit by pitcher. Crawford steals second. Bagley, S. C., reaches first on Tally's fumble. Boogher scores and Crawford gets to third. Bagley, S. C., attempts to steal second and is thrown out by Munger.

Munger fans, Lawler is thrown out at first on three strikes, Bergfeld flies out to Boogher.

W. and L. 4, St. Albans 1.

3RD INNING.

Andrews singles and Bagley, J. W., flies out to Bergfeld. Bledsoe hits to Taylor and Andrews is thrown out at second. Booker gets a hit advancing Bledsoe to second. Lee out, Taylor to Daniel.

Tally fans and is thrown out at first. Taylor singles, gets around to third on Booker's error, and scores on Daniel's single. Walker flies out to Crawford. Daniel borrows second and gets third on a wild throw and is thrown out there by Bagley, J. W., when attempting to steal home.

W. and L. 4, St. Albans 2.

4TH INNING.

Spencer singles, Boogher gets to first on West's error and Spencer goes to second. Crawford gets first on Walker's error, advancing Spencer and Boogher one bag. Bagley, S. C., hits to short-stop, who throws Crawford out at second. Spencer scores and Boogher reaches third. Andrews hits to short-stop, gets to first on fielder's choice, Boogher scores. Bagley, J. W., singles, Bagley, S. C., scores and Andrews goes to third. Andrews gets out at third, Munger to Tally. Bagley, J. W., goes to third on a passed ball and Bledsoe punches.

West grounds out to Spencer, Munger out, Andrews to Spencer, Hobbie ditto.

W. and L. 7, St. Albans 2.

5TH INNING.

Bledsoe to first on Taylor's error. Lee hits to Taylor, who throws wild to second and Bledsoe goes to third, Lee to second. Spencer hits to Walker, who throws in home to late to catch Lee. Boogher gets a two bagger and is out at third, Spencer scoring. Crawford gets to first on a wild throw by short-stop. Bagley, S. C., flies out to short and Crawford is put out at first.

Lawler fans, Bergfeld flies out to Bledsoe, Tally out to Spencer.

W. and L. 10, St. Albans 2.

After the ending of the fifth inning our team grew overconfident and fell down in their batting, while St. Albans played a splendid uphill game, scoring seven runs in the remaining four innings of the game. Washington and Lee scored again in the eighth, making the final result 11 to 9 in our favor.

Boat Fund Entertainment.

Last night the entertainment to raise money for the new boat, over which Miss Annie White has been working for several weeks, was held and everything, both in the concert and play, which followed, passed off more than successful.

The V. M. I. orchestra led off with one of Sousa's two steps, and was followed by the only hitch of the evening, viz., in the curtain. It worked on a hitch but got hitched and stayed so until Mr. Anschutz very cleverly hitched it. No one knows whether it was the step-ladder, Anschutz or his red 1900 cap which did the work, but between the trio the curtain worked O. K. the rest of the evening. The W. & L. Mandolin club then rendered the "Rag-time Skedaddle" in their inimitable way and were followed by Miss Annie Krause whose well delivered song was accompanied by the orchestra.

Mrs. S. B. Walker and Mr. Anschutz, accompanied by Miss Janet Allen, then sang Campana's "I Live and Love Thee." They were followed by Miss Cooke who sang in her clear, fine soprano two selections, "The Danza" and "Der bist eine Blume." Miss Mary Preston Graham was her accompanist. Miss Gorrell then followed with two well executed piano selections, "Elegie" and the "Danse Humoristique."

Miss Margaret Graham then led the audience to the depths of despondency and the height of bliss by her "Storm and Sunshine," following with a catchy little piece from the Runaway Girl, the "Gobolins."

Kipling's "Recessional," by De Koven, was then beautifully rendered by Mr. Anschutz, followed by Miss Gilmore, who sang the "Ave Maria" from "Cavalleria Rusticana."

Miss Allan and Mr. Frierson came next, acting as well as singing a piece from the Runaway Girl.

Miss Booker, accompanied by Mrs. Walker and Miss Gorrell (violin obligato) then in a most delightful and artistic way led the audience through the melody of the well named "Angels' Serenade," and the V. M. I. orchestra finished the concert program with the overture from the "Storm King."

The second part consisted of John

Kendrick Bangs' little farce, "The Fatal Message," and without detracting from any one, all of whom acted their parts well, it must be said that Mr. and Mrs. Perkins carried off the honors. Mr. Perkins as a curtain raiser is a whole play in himself. The cast was as follows:

Mr. Thaddeus Perkins.	Mr. Armistead.
Mrs. Thaddeus Perkins.	Miss Graham.
Miss Andrews.	Miss Anderson.
Mr. Edward Bradley.	Mr. Glasgow.
Mrs. Edward Bradley.	Miss Allan.
Mr. Robert Yardsley.	Mr. McPneeters.
Mr. Jack Barlow.	Mr. Waddell.
Jennie.	Miss Brockenbrough.
Mr. Henderson, who didn't show up at a'l,	needed no one to take his part.

The audience as a majority came to help the boat fund but left feeling that the promoters owed them nothing for their attendance as the entertainment amply repaid them.

An informal dance followed the play and the whole evening was most enjoyable from start to finish.

The Bradford Bequest.

The Bradford family have been the best of friends to Washington and Lee. In 1884 Vincent L. Bradford, LL. D., D. C. L., a distinguished citizen of Philadelphia, left by will one-half of his estate to the University, which was to be realized on after his wife's death. Mrs. Bradford approving of her husband's desire to benefit our institution, in 1896 established the Vincent L. Bradford academic scholarship, which Mr. J. W. S. Tucker holds this year. By this lady's death which occurred on May 6th, the Law school comes into property which is worth at least $100,000 in addition to her husband's law library and valuable collection of paintings. There is a provision in the will to the effect that $400 shall go to the Law library each year and $500 each year to the purchase of pictures. We have already many valuable pictures but under this bequest Washington and Lee will have one of the most splendid collections in the South. The money which the Law school receives will go for the maintenance of two chairs, one of Civil Law and the other of Constitutional Law. We can only wish that the University had more generous friends like these, who would assist by their means in the noble work old Washington and Lee is doing.

President Wilson's Address.

The students are always glad to hear President Wilson and his lecture on Wednesday morning was received with great pleasure, because on account of his absence he had not addressed them for several months.

The incidents of his recent trip, the interesting characters he met in the desolate regions of Arizona, and his impressions of the region furnished the material for the president's remarks.

Although the country in the vicinity of Hot Springs is desolate, arid and uninviting, the visitor is constantly meeting with novel experiences, and encountering interesting characters, which can be found in no other part of the world. The principal industry is mining, and as in all mining regions the population is of a cosmopolitan order. The small postoffice is the place where all paths converge and there one meets the Indian, the Mexican, the American, the Swede, the English miner from the Transvaal, and many other interesting characters.

After thus demonstrating that time does not hang heavy upon one's hands at Hot Springs, President Wilson then spoke of the geographical features and the natural wonders of Arizona. In area the territory is twice as large as Virginia and is traversed by the Rocky, or Cordilleran, range of mountains. The larger part of the soil is arid and must be irrigated before it can be brought under cultivation. This accounts for the smallness of the population, of which the whites are only about 60,000 in number. The territory contains many natural wonders which are found in no other part of the world. The principal of these are the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, a miniature natural bridge and a petrified forest 100 square miles in area.

After speaking of the Indian aborigines and the various industries of the territory, President Wilson concluded his remarks. The lecture was highly instructive and was listened to with interest.

The new boat is now an assured thing, having been ordered during the past week. It will be of the same dimensions as the other "Annie Joe."

Dr. Quarles returned from Princeton on Thursday afternoon.

Editor Ring-tum Phi.

When I came here two or three incorrect impressions were gathered by me. One of them was that Newcomb Hall was a place for reading and study. This is an error. There are some persons who meet in the Librarian's office and discourse in loud and argumentative style just what is the matter with Lord Robert's tactics, why Dewey should not be president, and other matters upon which learned men are versed.

The occupants of the reading room are the unwilling audience, compelled to listen to their outbursts of self-sufficiency. The worst of it is, these offenders are not students, but those whom the Librarian might have some trouble in convincing that the "tatight" as well as the teachers have rights which should be respected. Let the boys see this because there is no use going to Newcomb if they have to listen to stump speeches from the Librarian's office.
