Being a Good Fellow.

This is copied from the Toledo Bee into a college paper published by the students at Union College, Schenectadady, N. Y. It is a good enough doctrine for older men than college students.

Any sensible young man ought to know that he can't be up late nights abusing his stomach and be in full possession of his faculties for business next day, says the Toledo Bee. And he ought to know, also, that a man must be clear-headed and in full possession of his faculties to hold his own in the keen competition of life. Your "good fellow" is popular for the time being, but when his money is gone and he has lost his job and is on his uppers the "good fellow" business doesn't get him anything. It's "poor fellow" then. Another good man goes wrong, and "the boys" are ready to hail another "good fellow" who has the price.

We don't mean by this to say that "the boys" are mercenary. They don't altogether pass up a "good fellow" when he goes broke, but it isn't the same. They say he hit the booze too hard and couldn't stand the pace. They feel sorry for him, but he is out of it. His good fellowship doesn't excuse him even in the eyes of his friends for having thrown away his opportunity.

The young man who gets the sleep his system needs, is temperate in his habits, lives within his means and shows up for work in the morning with a clear eye and active brain—that's the man business men are looking for. They want employes whom they can trust. Having worked hard and laid by a competence, they want to throw some of the burdens off, and they won't throw them off on the employe who is too much of a "good fellow."

Cut it out, boys. There's nothing in it. There's a whole lot of nonsense in that "good fellow" business. You can't fool the public by living beyond your means and keeping up appearances. There must be a slowdown some time or other, and that means a loss of self-respect and many bitter experiences. All men will think more of you if you hold yourself in and don't try to live a wine existence on a beer income.

Many a bright and promising business man has failed because he tried to travel in too swift a class, whereas, had he lived within his means, he might have become a highly successful merchant.

The world doesn't give up its treasures easily. It isn't in the cards for all of us to be millionaires, and mighty few of the "good fellows" get into that class. It's better to earn your way first and go hunting for good times when you have reached the point where you can spare both the time and money. Then, possibly, you'll have more sense and have a different notion about what a good time is.—The Concordiensis.

From a W. L. U. alumnus who was a "good fellow" when at college and who now wishes he hadn't purchased popularity so dearly.

Featherston at Chapel

Mr. N. Floyd Featherston, Washington's noted society entertainer, gave a delightful and interesting entertainment on his numerous musical instruments, interspersed with songs and anecdotes, Saturday evening, Oct. 3, at the University chapel.

This is Mr. Featherston's second appearance in Lexington, and those who saw him last year and this appreciate the fact that this is one of the best entertainments ever presented here. There was not a dull moment during the two hours and a half performance and Mr. Featherston was proved a musical and humorous entertainer of highest rank.

Miss Dora Varney accompanied Mr. Featherston on the piano, and rendered a most delightful cornet solo.

As usual at entertainments given for the benefit of student enterprises, the students failed to attend.

University Assembly.

The next meeting of the University body, including both officers and students, will be held in the Upper Chapel on Wednesday morning, October 14th, at 8:45.

Professor Currell will deliver the address.

For the information of new students attention is called to the fact that attendance on these exercises is required of all students of the University.

The seats in the Chapel will be numbered and will be assigned to students according to their classes. Professors Campbell and Howe will arrange a diagram of the seatings, which will be posted on the bulletin board in Newcomb Hall and in the vestibule of the Chapel. By consulting this diagram each student will be able to learn just what seat has been reserved for him. Any further information as to location of any individual will be given in the vestibule of the Chapel on Wednesday morning. Special attention is called to the fact that promptness in attendance is also required.

GEORGE H. DENNY,
President.

Y. M. C. A.

The program of the Y. M. C. A. on last Sunday afternoon consisted of a song and prayer service. The attendance was large and the singing was exceptionally good.

A new and interesting feature was the quartet, consisting of Mosley, 1st base; Osborne, 2nd base; Anders, 1st tenor; Thompson, 2nd tenor; who rendered two pieces—"The Riches of Love," and "Come, Spirit, Come."

This singing was much enjoyed. Such a feature deserves commendation and encouragement, and it is hoped that such will become a permanent feature of Y. M. C. A. work.

The game this afternoon between W. & L. U. and O. P. C. C. will be reported in full in next week's RING-TUM PHI.

October Collegian

After many trials and delays the copy for the first issue of the Collegian is now in the hands of the printers. The staff finds that a new office, like new clothes, does not feel comfortable until the wrinkles are properly set, but they are aiming to give an issue of between 40 and 50 pages of reading matter of various kinds. The first issue will contain among other things a poem by Mr. Albert W. Gaines of Chattanooga, Tenn., junior member of the board of trustees; a literary article on The Beginnings of the English Drama, by an alumnus, Edgar M. Darnell of Atlantic City; a story by Mr. Mercer Hartman, and a number of other contributions in the way of verse, sketches, stories, etc.

The Collegian earnestly request all men who are interested in literary work and wish to keep our magazine up to its standard of former years, to contribute as frequently as possible that we may have plenty of good material to select from.

Financial support is also necessary. To conduct any college enterprise and conduct it successfully takes money, and the Collegian needs money in the way of subscriptions. If you have not subscribed do so at once.

The contract for the new Science building has been let to Mr. Snead, a prominent contractor of Lynchburg, Va., the plans having been drawn by Theodore Link of St. Louis. This building when completed will be a great addition to the University, and we hope is not the last that will be erected in the near future.

Walter L. Main's show will be in town Oct. 20. It is said to be one of the best in the business, ranking with Sells Bros., Barnum & Bailey's, etc. There will be two performances, afternoon and night.

V. M. I. defeated the Old Point Comfort College football team Thursday by a score of 22 to 0. Let W. & L. duplicate this or make it even worse.

Mass Meeting.

As by the call which was posted on the bulletin board Friday morning, about 75 or 100 of the most enthusiastic students of Washington and Lee University met in the lower Chapel Friday afternoon. The purpose of this meeting was to raise a separate fund to secure the services of D. M. Balliett, who coached our football team so successfully last year, to come down and aid Coach Byles. Captain Trundle presided over the meeting. Short speeches were made by McNulty and Bledsoe calling for voluntary contributions.

The best enthusiasm was manifested, and much to the praise of the men present about $160 was raised. This is not quite enough to bring Mr. Balliett here, but it is hoped that the students not present will be as liberal.

We have a good coach in Mr. Byles, but it is practically impossible for one to coach both Varsity backs and line, and at the same time keep the second team and all the men as a whole in running order.

We have the material to make a winning team, and now that Mr. Balliett's coming is almost assured, what the team needs most is the liberal and enthusiastic support of the student body.

Mr. E. P. Browning of Maysville, Ky., is visiting his son, Mr. R. L. Browning.

The University Game

When the Washington and Lee eleven met and played the football team of the University of Virginia on the latter's home grounds last Saturday, it was expected that Washington and Lee would be defeated, but not beaten by such a score as 28 to 0. It was not so much a case of being outplayed as it was of being outweighed. Virginia's 200 pound line was simply impregnable.

To the casual reader the score of 28 to 0 means a decisive victory for Virginia. It tells nothing of the dogged and determined resistance with which our team fought to protect their own goal or their futile efforts to break through Virginia's line for at least one touchdown. Time and again our men were knocked out in their ineffectual efforts to prevent Virginia's ground gaining by line bucking.

Our men certainly seemed to show a lack of proper physical condition. This must be looked into and if the fault is in the men's condition it must be corrected. There is no reason, however, to be discouraged; for by hard work on the part of the men and cordial co-operation on the part of the student body we may yet hope to win both the V. M. I. and V. P. I. games, which are still ahead of us.

DETAILS OF THE GAME

For the first few minutes of Saturday's game it looked as if our expectations of keeping down the Virginia score would be realized. J. H. Alexander kicked off for Washington and Lee. The Virginia player who gets the ball does not advance 15 yards before he is tackled by Alexander. Virginia then loses 20 yards by offside play. Twice Virginia bucks our line but Washington and Lee holds firm. Virginia was forced to kick. Alexander gets ball and gains for W. & L. are made by Campbell, Lewis and Moomaw. Washington and Lee is now forced to kick. Watkins of U. Va. gets ball. Virginia now makes steady gains around end and through the line. Heald then carries the ball around right end, and Virginia makes a touchdown in four minutes.

Elmer kicks off for Virginia. Moomaw gets ball and advances it 10 yards. Washington and Lee forced to kick. Virginia fumbles and Stone gets ball for Washington and Lee. W. & L. fails to gain the necessary five yards. Instead of giving the ball to Virginia they retreat 25 yards. Again W. & L. was forced to kick. Heald gets ball and is tackled by Lewis. Heald makes a 25 yard run and is tackled by Campbell. For a second time Campbell tackles Virginia player and this time for a loss. Washington and Lee holds the Virginia line. Virginia fails to make 5 yards. The ball goes over to W. & L. W. & L. kicks. Kick is blocked and Moomaw gets ball. Trundle carries the ball through Virginia's line for the necessary 5 yards. Ball given to Lewis who fails to gain the required distance. Virginia's ball. Alexander breaks through line and tackles Randolph and throws him back. Virginia's third down and 10 yards to make. Council bucks the line but fails to make 10 yards and the ball goes over to W. & L. Washington and Lee forced to kick. Council gets ball and returns it to W. & L.'s 15 yard line. Council and Watkins buck line for steady gains. The ball is carried over and Council kicks goal.

Campbell kicks off for Washington and Lee. Watkins gets ball and advances it 15 yards, when he is tackled by Trundle. Watkins runs with ball and carries it 10 yards nearer W. & L.'s goal, tackled by Bledsoe. Virginia penalized 20 yards for offside play. Ball brought back. W. & L. offside. Watkins bucks line and goes through for an easy 15 yards. Now Council ploughs through Washington and Lee's line and is tackled by Campbell. Again he goes through to be tackled by Bledsoe. The ball is now on W. & L.'s five-yard line. Council carries it over for touchdown and kicks goal.

Campbell kicks ball beyond Virginia's goal line. Virginia kicks from her 25-yard line. The whistle blows and the first half is over.

Elmer starts the second half by kicking off for Virginia. Moomaw gets ball and advances it 25 yards. W. & L. forced to kick. Virginia's ball. Council, Watkins and Heald makes steady gains for Virginia and Council carries the sphere over for a touchdown. Time 3 1/4 minutes.

Campbell kicks off for Washington and Lee. Council gets ball and makes a 25-yard run before he is tackled. Heald breaks through line and carries the ball 35 yards, when a touchdown is prevented by Dawson, who makes a beautiful tackle. W. & L. braces and holds Virginia on her first touchdown. Watkins breaks through W. & L.'s line and advances the ball 8 yards. McCall given the ball and downed in his tracks by Dawson. Council bucks the line for steady gains. Washington and Lee braces and gets the ball on downs. Alexander kicks; Heald catches ball and is tackled by Stone. Virginia ploughs through Washington and Lee's line and makes gains around right end. An offside play carries the ball back 20 yards into Virginia's territory. Heald bucks line and carries ball 25 yards for touchdown. Council kicks goal.

Campbell kicks off. Virginia's player who gets the ball tackled in his tracks by Ross. Walker, Virginia's quarterback, runs with ball and makes a 5-yard gain. W. & L. gets ball on Virginia's fumble. Lewis bucks line for W. & L., but the ball goes over to Virginia on downs. Game called with ball in center of the field.

Is it a violation of the rule of W. & L. U. Athletic Association for any student to wear a W. & L. U. monogram tie? STUDENT

No. Only wearing of the monogram cap and sweater is restricted to those who earned them. This is the understanding of the Editor, but it would be better, for students who have not earned the right to wear the monogram, not to encroach on the rule at all.

Football Notes.

The illness of Coach Byles has possibly delayed the advancement of the team to a greater or less extent, but the prospects of having Mr. Balliet, last year's coach, to assist in the coaching, should greatly encourage football enthusiasts. Mr. Balliet needs no praise to old men, and new men will find that he knows football and how to coach it. With Mr. Balliet coaching the line and Mr. Byles the backs, the team this year should be the best Washington and Lee has ever had. The second team has elected Mr. Iden manager, and prospects are bright for several games and trips. The work of the second team during the past week has been exceptionally good, and the "Varsity" has had to work hard to retain its position.

Thursday afternoon the 'Varsity failed to score, an exceptional event in Washington and Lee football.
