WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY, SATURDAY, APRIL 30, 1904

NO. 26

OVERWHELMING VICTORY

W. & L., 14; COLUMBIAN, 3.

Washington and Lee completed her very successful Eastern trip by administering a very decisive defeat to Columbian University of Washington City by a score of 14 to 3. This was the second dose given to this institution, the first being by a score of 12 to 8. The game as the score indicates was won with great ease, the men claiming that they could have made their score larger had they tried.

The feature of the game was the batting of W. & L. U. and especially the work of Le Gore with the stick. Nineteen hits were made of which he got four out of six times up. All of the boys however had their eye on the ball and made the Columbian boys tired chasing it.

Columbian got only eight hits off of Johnson.

This was the last game on the schedule on the trip. The boys played five scheduled games and won four, losing to the strong Annapolis Naval team by a score of 2 to 1.

The papers say that quite a number of Washington and Lee alumni were present to witness the game, among whom were Hon. H. St. Geo. Tucker.

The line up was as follows:

ANNAPOLIS WINS

Navy, 2; W. & L., 1

Last Saturday the Washington & Lee team tackled the strong team from the Naval Academy at Annapolis and sustained the only defeat of the trip in a beautifully played game. The score was 2 to 1. The Baltimore papers say that the teams were so evenly matched in all departments of the game that it was a toss up as to which would win. However, the main contest seems to have been between pitchers' Needham and Chilton, both of whom pitched fine ball, holding the opposing teams down to a few scattered hits.

Ovation to Team

Upon their arrival last Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. from their victorious Eastern trip the baseball team was given quite an ovation by the students and town people. Nearly all of the students had assembled at the train with tin horns and lusty lungs, a brass band and a tallyho for the team. The members of the team were carried from the cars to the tallyho on the backs of admirers. Headed by the V. M. I. band, the tallyho draped in white and blue coming next, they paraded the streets giving vent to loud and lusty yells of exultation. The ovation was thoroughly hearty and what the team deserved.

Baseball Next Week

There will be several good games of baseball on our grounds next week. The first between W. & L. and Randolph-Macon will be played next Monday. This should be an interesting game. On Tuesday or Saturday we shall cross bats with V. M. I. again and a good game is guaranteed. All the students should attend these games and aid the team so far as possible.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

'Wash,' Presents Medals

The debate upon the question, "Resolved, That entertainments given by individuals involving lavish expense are unjustified," was the interesting part of the program of the W. L. S. last Saturday night. Messrs. Tillman and Irons supported the affirmative, and Messrs. Trundle and E. C. Miller the negative.

After the debate was finished Mr. Irons of the Committee on the Intermediate Celebration, reported the arrival of the debater's and orator's medals won at the celebration last February. At the request of the president, Mr. Barnes delivered the medals to the successful contestants, the orator's going to Mr. H. C. Tillman, and the debater's to Mr. E. W. Kelly.

Spirited Meeting of Graham-Lee

The attendance at the meeting April 23 was encouraging considering the time of the year, and no one begrudged the time spent for the program was indeed strong. Mr. Boyette's oration savored of the true, far-western spirit, being also a eulogy of that western hobby, "Billie" Bryan. As a specimen of his work in Dr. Currell's Intermediate English, Mr. Smith's "Carlyle" was beyond criticism.

The debate on the question, "Resolved, That the U. S. government should own and control interstate railways," was spirited, and aggressive, though largely impromptu.

Joint Session

A joint session of the two societies, at which some details connected with the coming joint debate and public meeting of the two societies were arranged, was held in the "Wash." hall at the close of the regular meetings.

Hon. Harry St. G. Tucker is mentioned in the Richmond Times Dispatch as probably one of the electors at large in Virginia this fall on the Democratic ticket.

Prof. Nelson Entertains the Team

At their home on Lewis street last Tuesday evening Professor and Mrs. A. L. Nelson gave a most successful reception to the baseball team. The rooms were very beautifully decorated with large blue banners with the scores of the recent games which have made our baseball boys the idols of the university. The invitations had also shared this baseball enthusiasm, having been accompanied by dainty little drawings of baseball players and bats, and balls galore. Miss Evelyn Nelson, assisted by Mrs. Page, Mrs. Kern and Miss Annie White, received. Besides the team the following guests were present: Misses Dunlap, Brockenbrough, Rust, Rogers and Barclay of Lexington; Miss Miller, of Roanoke; Miss Casey, of Bedford City; and Dr. John H. Latane, of the university.

W. & L. Defeated Virginia in 1892

The following is a letter to the editor of the County News, showing that W. & L. U. has defeated Virginia since 1877, it having been reported that we had not. In this year the W. & L. U. boys were ahead when Virginia began scrapping and wrangling, upon which the umpire awarded the game to us 9 to 0!

CHARLESTON, W. VA., April 23.

Editor of the COUNTY NEWS:

I notice in your issue of the 21st inst. a statement in connection with the defeat of the University of Virginia by Washington and Lee university in a game of baseball by a score of 7 to 1, that "Virginia has proved the better of Washington and Lee since 1877."

This I wish to correct. On May 13, 1892, at Lynchburg, Va., Washington & Lee defeated the University of Virginia and won the title for that year of "Champions of the South."

Lexington had two representatives on the team that year, Rev. Harry W. Pratt and myself.

Very truly,
RANOLPH T. CARMICHAEL

Rev. Harry W. Pratt of Washington, spent several days during the past week in Lexington with his mother, Mrs. John W. Pratt.

EDITORIAL

In the evolution of college athletics in this country we find a strong desire on the part of the best institutions to keep them pure, and to prevent the taint of professionalism from creeping in, which cannot but prevent the useful purpose which it is possible for them to serve.

We believe we can say, in all modesty and truth, that Washington and Lee has stood for pure athletics. Our faculty and student body are determined that inconsistencies shall not be charged against us, and if by any means it happens that any person plays on our team who is not a bona fide matriculate of this institution, as was done on our recent trip in Maryland and Washington, we will hasten to place upon it the stamp of our disapproval and reprobation.

We regret very much as an institution, faculty, students and alumni, that in our games with St. John's, the Naval Academy and Columbian, that there was an ex-Washington and Lee student on our team, and in the last game with Columbian our captain unwisely put in a brother of his.

We do not wish to attach any blame to any particular person, but we wish to put on record that at a mass-meeting of the student body, when a committee was appointed to confer with the faculty, resolutions of disapproval of the above acts were unanimously passed, and a willingness expressed that the student body make any statement, desired by our faculty, to the above named institutions. And on conference of the student committee with the faculty they were directed to address letters expressing our deepest sense of regret and disapproval at the above named occurrences, while our team was in Maryland.

We make no effort to justify playing a man who is not a bona fide student, on any of our teams, and we believe the teams we have played in Virginia will fully understand our position in this matter. They know that in no instance have we practiced any irregularities on them.

The following are the RESOLUTIONS OF THE FACULTY. At a meeting of the Faculty of Washington and Lee University, April 27, 1904, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the baseball team be required to disband, and that no member of the team (including substitutes) who went on the recent trip to Washington and Annapolis be allowed to play again in match game of baseball this session; and that the chairman of the faculty committee on physical culture be requested to address a letter of apology to the respective heads of the Columbian University, the United States Naval Academy, and St. John's College.

JOHN L. CAMPBELL,
Secretary of the Faculty.

At a meeting of the Faculty of Washington and Lee University, April 28, 1904, the following was adopted:

Whereas, The students of Washington and Lee university in mass meeting Wednesday night, April 27th, appointed a committee consisting of Messrs. McNulty, Sloan, Duncan, Bledsoe, T. A. MacCorkle, and Trundle to express to the Faculty regret that a man no longer a student of the University was allowed to play on the baseball team in the games at Washington and Annapolis, and a second man, a brother of a member of the team, who had never been a student at this University, in one of the games at Washington and

Whereas, They propose and agree to acknowledge the facts and to apologize to the management of athletics of Columbian University, United States Naval Academy, and St. John's College, and

Whereas, It appears that the team played within the constitution of the Virginia State Inter-collegiate Athletic Association in all intercollegiate games within the State, be it resolved:

That the baseball team be reinstated and allowed to play the schedule of games arranged by the manager for the season.

JOHN L. CAMPBELL,
Secretary of the Faculty.

Among the recent gifts to the university library few will prove of greater value to the students than the large atlas which was presented the other day by Miss Annie White. The maps are full, statistics, accurate, and the arrangement of matter, convenient.

Moot Court

Yesterday's session of the moot court was rather short. The only case on the docket was Bryan, Trustee v. Adams, Assumpsit, Brown for the plaintiff and Cromer for the defendant. The attorney for the plaintiff was not present and the attorney for the defendant entered a demurer.

The remainder of the time was taken up with the discussion of papers which had been submitted and the assignment of work for the next term.

Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Whaling's Sunday Talk

The Y. M. C. A. of last Sunday afternoon was conducted by Dr. Whaling. The service was preparatory to the meeting to be held in the University, beginning Thursday evening, April 28th.

He mentioned some of the dangerous tendencies we must avoid in connection with such efforts. Our effort, and the effort of the leader, alone or combined, can not make such as piritual success. He must rely upon powers and direction. Our effort to bring unsaved men to Christ should not be confined to any one special season. We should maintain such an attitude always. Our greatest obstacles in the way of a successful evangelistic meeting are unbelief, indifference, formalism, inconsistencies and inactivity. These must be overcome by a life of prayer and consecration.

Mr. Weatherford's Addresses

On Thursday evening Mr. W.D. Weatherford, secretary for the South of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A., addressed the students of the University in Tucker Hall. The room was well filled. An attractive feature of the service was the music by the University quartet.

The speaker made an earnest and effective talk on selfishness as the prevalent sin of college men. He opened his remarks by showing that unselfishness is the law of God as written in nature, in the instinct of animals and on the hearts of men. Though not generally recognized, selfishness is the sin to which college men are peculiarly open. He then gave some of the results of this sin. It makes any action unworthy. It makes cowards of us all. It deprives us of possible good and shuts us off from Christ, the Unselfish.

Last night Mr. Weatherford made another strong address. This time his subject was "In the Thick of the Fight." Based on the thought that college men in their unending strife with temptation need some higher strength than the human, the talk was both inspiring and practical.

Mr. Weatherford has consented to deliver another address tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in Tucker Hall. The regular 3 o'clock meeting tomorrow afternoon will be postponed. Owing to the society meetings, no address will be made tonight.

Squire's Banquet.

Last night "Squire" Granger manifested his good fellowship and old Virginia hospitality by giving a banquet to the baseball team. It is needless to say that the spread was lavish and that every man did justice to it. The dining room was decorated in the college colors with 7 to 1 draped on the walls. The figurers 7 to 1 were also iced on one of the cakes. Short toasts were responded to by Messrs. Withers and Duncan, after which "Squire" was compelled to make a speech which he did in his usual graceful manner, complimenting the team and expressing his pleasure at having the members of it as his guest.

The following men enjoyed Squire's hospitality: Messrs. Withers, Steves, Chilton, Crumble, Dickerman, Campbell, Shields, Hereford, Le Gore, Alexander, Pipes, Snead, Bagley and Duncan, all of whom appreciated to the fullest extent his kindness towards and interest in the team.

Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest

Next Thursday Mr. E. C. Miller will leave for Williamsburg, Va., to participate in the Virginia Intercollegiate Oratorical contest, which will be held at William and Mary College Friday night. Mr. Miller has prepared a fine oration, "Intelligence and Activity in Politics." It is to be hoped that he will win the medal, which has not come to Washington and Lee for some years.

The Senior class of Cornell has decided to present to the University as its class memorial the sum of $10,000 to be turned over to the treasury at the expiration of ten years. This sum will be raised among the individual members of the class by a method of subscription, each member of the class pledging himself to pay annually to the life secretary of the organization $2.50.

"Ye will not walk ignoble ways,
Ye dare not seek unworthy aims,
Ye cannot do a deed that shames,
These heroes of our holiest days.
Your oath a Roman oath must be,
Sworn with a faith that will not yield,
Sworn on the doubly sacred shield
Of Washington and Lee."

THE DELIVERANCE. By Ellen Glasgow. Doubleday, Page & Co. Publishers. Price, $1.50.

The Deliverance is not as strong as "The Voice of the People," or "The Battle Ground," two of Miss Glasgow's novels which have preceded this. The Deliverance is unnatural, which may be said to be its chief fault. We do not say that it is unnatural because certain Southern conditions are unlike those for most part depicted in Southern novels, but more because the characters themselves differ from the people we come in contact with. Aside from this the book is good and is written in Miss Glasgow's usual smooth and beautiful style.
