JOINT DEBATE

Washington & Lee vs. Univ. of Tennessee

The first joint debate between University of Tennessee and Washington and Lee will be held at the chapel tonight, and it is to be hoped the same college spirit that now so loyally supports the various athletic teams will inspire the student body to attend this debate.

For some time literary society work has been seized with a sort of lethargy, but to those who are interested in this very important phase of college work it is becoming apparent that there is a re-awakening along these lines and new life and new blood is being infused into our societies.

These joint debates are intended to promote interest in this work, and if the student body will turn out and by their presence and their applause assure our visitors and our own representatives that efforts expended by them along these lines are appreciated, there need be no fear that these debates will bear the fruits their promoters expect them to bear.

The subject chosen for debate is: Resolved, That Southern representatives in Congress from the coastwise States should be urged by their constituents to vote for the ship subsidy bill now pending therein.

This is a very live question today, and one that is pregnant with interest not alone to students of economics, but to the general public. Messrs. Richmond and Stooksbury of the University of Tennessee, will present the affirmative, while Messrs. Smithson and Speight of W. & L. will represent the negative.

This debate promises to be both entertaining and instructive and we again urge the students and invite the general public to turn out en masse.

Arkansas Travellers Entertained

The members of the Arkansas Club were delightfully entertained last week by Ramsey and McKay at the Delta Tau Delta house. Refreshments of various kinds were served, and at a late hour all adjourned with good wishes to their hosts and proud of the fact that they were "clod hoppers."

MOOT COURT

At the fourth February term of the Moot circuit court the following gentlemen were fined for absences from the preceding term: Messrs. McMurren, Mills, Moomaw, Miller, MacDonald and Mischler.

In the case of Nelson v. Land, assumpsit, Mr. Givens, on behalf of the defendant, moved to have office judgment set aside and that defendant be allowed to plead, which was so ordered by the court and a plea of non-assumpsit filed. Counsel for the plaintiff being absent, the case was continued to the next term.

Mr. Meek, on behalf of one Parker, moved the court to have one App summoned as defendant to appear and show cause, if any, why an award under arbitration agreement between said Parker and said App should not be entered as judgment of the court. It was so ordered by the court.

The demurrer to the declaration in the case of Spencer's Adm'r v. the Southern Railway and one Maddox was argued orally by Messrs. Axelroth and Carballo. Never before was such an array of books seen in Moot court. To all appearances the attorneys, after having brought down a large portion of the law library, had borrowed a few hundred books somewhere on the outside. All these they said were "authorities." The question involved was the right to join a corporation and its employee in one action for damages resulting from the negligent omission of the employee. After an elaborate argument on both sides the court took the question under consideration, and the rest of those present were aroused from peaceful slumbers by the "God save the Commonwealth" of Sheriff Wysor as he adjourned court.

Calyx Ready for Press

The manager of the annual is now ready to send all material to the printer. All material is now in the hands of the manager, with the exception of several contributions. It is desirable that persons in charge of all matter not yet submitted will see that it is handed in at once, as the time is very short before the annual must be ready for distribution.

The latest possible date at which material will be received is March 4, 1907.

ROCKBRIDGE COUNTY FAIR

Excellent Local Talent Made the Production Very Jolly and Entertaining

Thursday night and Friday afternoon the "Rockbridge County Fair" was given in the Henry Street Opera House under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

In view of the fact that the first rehearsal was only five days before the first performance, it was wonderful how complete and entertaining the production was.

The most complete features were probably the little girls' chorus, the drummers' chorus and the patent medicine "stunt," with numerous others worthy of mention.

The attendance at the two performances was about eight hundred. The costumes were very complete and the large variety of characters were well represented. Over seventy people took part, all local talent, with the exception of Misses Beverley and McGuire of Winchester, Va.

BASKET BALL

Two More Defeats for the Washington and Lee Team.

The basket ball team played two games in Staunton this week. The first game was played Tuesday night with the Y. M. C. A. of the above town and resulted in a defeat to the tune of 13 to 11.

On Wednesday night our boys played the team representing the Staunton Military Academy and again met with a crushing defeat, but this time by the score of 26 to 21.

There were no incidents of any merit connected with either game, save in the last game "Red" plad a star game, both before and after. If you don't believe it look at him.

Law Examination

On Thursday Dean Burks of the law department held an examination on Conveyancing. This is a regular third term senior ticket but owing to the fact that Prof. Staples was unable to meet his classes for a week this course was substituted during that period.

Very few seniors took the course and it will be repeated again next term.

Don't forget the Rooney Boys Thursday night, March 7. Benefit of baseball. Admission 25 and 50 cents. University chapel.

Date of Gymnasium Contest Changed to March 5

Owing to the Washington and Lee-Tennessee debate tonight (Saturday), the date of the annual gymnasium tourney has been changed to Tuesday, the 5th, at 8 p. m.

Mr. Pile, of V. M. I., will act as judge, and the medals will be delivered to the winners by Dr. Howe.

The following are the members of the team who will compete for prizes: McCutcheon, Captain; Boyer, Pruitt, Larrick, A. R.; Ghieslin, Eggleston, J. W., Cooper, Larrick, J. H., Clendenning, Taylor and Lloyd.

The order of events will be: Mats, horizontal bar, parallel bars, flying rings, wrestling match between the Larrick brothers, slack wire and juggling exhibition by Lloyd, Indian club contest between Lloyd and Dawkins, and pyramids by the team.

Admission 50 cent; Students free.

Opie Read Lecture Postponed

Owing to unavoidable circumstances the lecture by Opie Read, which was scheduled for Friday night, March 1st, has been postponed until next week.

The date on which the lecture will be held will be announced later.

It is hoped that all will turn out to hear Mr. Read. He has an established reputation as a platform lecturer, and a rare treat will be missed if you fail to attend. So let all be ready for the date when it is announced and turn out in full force.

A New Fad

It is nothing unusual to see the painful efforts of those who are afflicted with bald pates in attempting to coax a few straggling hairs to remain, or even better, to increase in numbers. But it is an unusual sight, and one that has caused no little wonder, to see so many youths with luxurious crops of hair flocking to the barbers to have said hair clipped close. Aye! verily, in some cases shaved.

To say the least, it presents the appearance of recruits (?) from the stone houses where they wear the stripes.

We are always glad to publish any communications that may be handed to us, but we desire to state that we will not be responsible for sentiment expressed.

We also desire to call attention to the fact that unsigned correspondence will not be published. Those who do not desire their names published should add a pen name and their wishes will be complied with.

Rockbridge County News Print

During the past few months various communications have been submitted for publication by members of the student body. Some of them have been published, while a larger number have been rejected. For the ones that have been published we have received much adverse criticism. In order to be fully understood in this matter, it is deemed essential that we state our position on this subject.

In the first place the management does not assume to act as judge of what does or does not express the sentiments of any part of the student body. If the communications are upon subjects that deserve the consideration of the students generally it is not our policy to cut them out simply because they do express our own sentiments, or because it may be impolite to publish them.

As to the article that have been rejected only a word is necessary. Had they been published the criticism would have been justly deserved, for to say the least they were senseless and without merit. Many of the communications were answers (?) to the communications that had been published. But instead of any attempt to answer in the true sense of the word, they were generally bombastic, sarcastic personal criticism of the writer. Suffice it to say such articles do not deserve any consideration whatever.

It is to be hoped that we will not be misunderstood in what has been said. Our object is simply to call attention to the form in which communications should be couched.

Remember the Tennessee-W. & L. debate at chapel tonight.

ORAL DEBATE

MONDAY, MARCH 4, 1907

Question, That charitable and philanthropic aid to dependent classes should be furnished solely by private individuals.

SPEAKERS

Affirmative	Negative
Mr. Borchardt	Mr. Blake
Mr. Ghiselin	Mr. Strus

BRIEF FOR AFFIRMATIVE

I. Advantages of private aid. A. Does not oppress poor by increasing taxation. B. Benefits cannot be claimed as a right. C. Smaller degree of degradation to receiver of relief. D. Opportunity for developing charitable qualities in individuals.

II. Evil effect of aid to receivers is more demoralizing under public than private help. A. Little danger of excessive relief or aid ill-adapted to its purpose. a. III-adaptation of funds by public officials. B. Under public control benefits are claimed as a right.

BRIEF FOR NEGATIVE

I. All charitable aid should be solely by government. A. Individual charities are dependent upon government aid. a. Necessary to grant subsidies to maintain them. 1. Amount too large for private individuals. b. Money is obtained by undesirable means. 1. Lotteries. 2. Begging. B. Public institutions more easily governed than private. a. More publicity. 1. Government has no way of determining if money is spent well. b. Less danger of disagreements. c. Income more regular. C. Has proven best system in other countries. a. Private charities are productive of bad government. 1. Italy. 2. France. b. Stingy man not allowed to thrive at expense of charitable neighbor.

MORE LIGHTS, PLEASE!

Some weeks ago mention was made in these columns of the fact that the Moot Circuit Court room is insufficiently lighted. The question of lights in that connection was raised rather because the change suggested would have been quite an assistance to those engaged in work, and would have added much to the pleasure of every one than because the change could be considered an absolute necessity. Our remarks at that time seem to have escaped the notice of those having these matters in charge.

We are not going to say anything more about the Moot Circuit Court room, but turn our attention to the law library. The question of lights in the law library is not one of mere convenience, but of absolute necessity. This, we deem, can hardly be doubted by any one. Nor, we think, can any one familiar with the conditions doubt the fact that the law library is very inadequately supplied with light. The reading room of the law library is one of the largest rooms in use in the University, and is, perhaps, used more than any other room. Yet we dare say that there is not another place in the University which is used at night which is so poorly lighted. The average supply is furnished by five 16 candle-power lamps. This may, by stretching the imagination, be said to be barely sufficient when the lamps are new and the current strong; but in course of time the lamps become dim and often the current is weak, and then it takes but one experience to convince one that our view of the matter is correct. We are not now complaining and we do not know who has authority to remedy conditions, but we do sincerely trust that some one who can do so will put 32 candle-power lamps in the library.

Don't forget the Rooney Boys Thursday night, March 7. Benefit of baseball. Admission 25 and 50 cents. University chapel.

A Sad Case.

A Chicago physician was one day called to attend a sick child in a "shabby genteel" quarter of the Windy City.

"Madam," said the doctor to the mother, "you should send this child into the country for several weeks each summer."

"I am sorry to say, doctor," responded the woman, "that we are not rich enough to do that."

"Then," suggested the physician, "have her sent by the fresh air fund."

"Oh, doctor," exclaimed the woman, "we are not poor enough!"—Harper's Weekly.

Too Selfish.

Cittman—What's the matter with all you Swamphurst fellows? You don't seem to like my friend Backlotz. Subbubs—No; he's selfish. Cittman—Oh, come now! Subbubs—That's what he is. A barn near him caught fire the other night, and he put it out without waiting for the rest of us members of the Swamphurst Hose to reach the scene.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

The Comfortable Fortune.

"What is your idea of a comfortable fortune?" asked the ambitious youth.

"One," answered the man of experience, "that is big enough to buy you everything you want and not big enough to attract the attention of the grand jury."—Washington Star.

A Novelty.

Guest—I hear you are going to give up housekeeping. Host—Sh! Not so loud! My wife wants to have the satisfaction of discharging the cook.—Puck.

Feminine Bravery.

Tom—Do you think women are braver than men? Dick—Yes, I do. I never saw one yet that wouldn't take a chance at marriage.—Detroit Free Press.

FRESHMAN CLASS

A meeting of the Freshman class was called yesterday afternoon to consider the question of adopting the "Numeral System," which system will restrict the wearing of the '10 numeral to only members of the class who have been members of the class teams, or who have been awarded the 'Varsity monogram. After discussing the matter fully it was decided to adopt the system. A board of five was elected to draw up the rules regulating the wearing of the class numerals. The board consists of the following men: Chenoweth, H. A. Derr, W. W. Gwathmey, Hodges and Streit.

Prot. Pomeroy Lectures to Senior Law Class

The lecture before senior class in Equity today was delivered by Professor Pomeroy of the University of California. The subject under discussion was the rules in regard to securing injunctions.

The first part of the period was taken up by Professor Pomeroy in pointing out several rash statements made in the text by the author. The regular class quiz was then taken up and the period was one of great benefit and importance to the members of the Equity class.

The members of the class seemed to be somewhat frightened, owing to the prominence of Professor Pomeroy as a text-writer, but toward the end the men found their bearings and made the period an instructive one throughout the balance of the lecture.

Final Ball Subscription

It is essential that the members of the Executive Committee of the Final Ball, who have in charge the securing of subscriptions, will complete their canvas as soon as possible.

The amount subscribed to date is far short of the amount necessary to conduct the Ball. It is desirable, therefore, that the men do all they can to aid the management.

TEXAS BANQUET

Saturday, March 2, is independence day with Texas. Late that night, when the song of praise has hushed, the cup has ceased to clink against its fellow and the glad hills ceased to echo to rejoicings within the borders of the Lone Star State and when enthusiasm has turned to slumber on the ranch, President Boyett will call the members of the Texas Club to order with a flourish of his 38 Colts in the banquet hall of the University Inn.

Mr. Boyett will preside as toastmaster and toasts will be responded to by Messrs. Miller, Beard, Berringer, Ray and Denman.

Their native Texan abhorrence of so unpalatable a thing as a dry banquet will be manifestly established, the mandates of Lexington's Law and Order League to the contrary notwithstanding.

Don't forget the Rooney boys Thursday night, March 7. Benefit of baseball. Admission 25 and 50 cents. University chapel.
