WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12TH

11.00 A. M.—Commencement Exercises

10.30 P. M.—Final Ball

The University officials and those in charge of the various dances and exercises at finals have completed the program which will be carried out, beginning on Saturday, June 8th, and ending on the following Wednesday night.

On Friday evening, probably, the Senior class will hold its usual banquet. The senior law class, which gives its banquet separately, is also expected to gather around the festal board on that night. On Saturday night the interfraternity dance, given by all the fraternities in college, will be held in the skating rink. Harry M. Butler is president of the dance.

On Sunday morning the baccalaureate sermon will be preached in Lee-Memorial chapel at 11 o'clock by the Right Reverend Beverley D. Tucker, D. D., Bishop coadjutor of the diocese of Southern Virginia. Dr. Angus Crawford of the Episcopal Theological Seminary at Alexandria, had been expected to preach the baccalaureate sermon, but was obliged to decline. Bishop Tucker will also address the Y. M. C. A. in the chapel on Sunday evening at 8:30.

The dance given by the Sigma ribbon society, led by Robert R. Witt, Jr., president of the society, will be held in the skating rink on Monday morning. On Monday afternoon the annual boat race between the crews of the Albert Sidney and Harry Lee clubs, will be held on North river. There will be two races, each club having a first and second crew. This is one of the most interesting events of final week, and the "island" is always crowded with vehicles decked out in red or blue, while even the cliffs above the river are lined with spectators. The rivalry between the crews is keen, and partisanship runs high.

The annual celebration of the literary societies will be held in the chapel on Monday evening at 9 o'clock. There will be four orations, E. W. Somers and B. R. Lemon speaking for the Graham Lee socie-

YALE MAN IS HEAD FOOT-BALL COACH NEXT YEAR

James Reilly, Eli Star Athlete, Will Instruct Squad—Moomaw Assistant

After several months of careful consideration and negotiations on the part of the Washington and Lee athletic authorities, it is announced that James Reilly, Yale, '12, will be the head coach in football next fall. Now that his coming is a certainty, the authorities are congratulating themselves on their good fortune. Reilly is one of the best products of Yale's athletic system and will come here with a splendid record behind him. He first broke into the lime-light back in 1907 at Andover, as a baseball star, the next year found him the captain of football, basketball and baseball there; his work as a player was so conspicuous that he was retained the next year as baseball coach. Entering Yale in the fall of 1909 he was end on the freshman team, and in his sophomore year he played at fullback and end; and last fall in his last year he was one of Yale's most consistent back-field men, having all the natural traits of a football player and being a close student of the game, understanding every point of play. He has been on the basketball and baseball teams for two years, having played forward in basketball and first base and left field in baseball. Besides this exceptional athletic record he is one of the most popular men at Yale, having recently been named by the Senior Class as their popular man and by an overwhelming vote. Walter Camp and Graduate Manager

Thompson of Yale have both recommended Mr. Reilly very highly, saying that he will be the best of the coaches who go out from Yale this year to the other colleges. These men say that Reilly is the sort of man who can command the respect of his squad and who will get their perfect obedience; and who will be able to ever get the most out of his material.

Reilly will have the help of Clovis Moomaw, captain of the 1911 team who will be the assistant coach. He should make an ideal man for this job; he was best captain in years, he is a hard worker, he never gives up, he has wonderful faculty for getting along with every man with whom he comes in contact. He may be relied on to give the line men a thorough system of training, and to keep these cond string in fine fighting fettle all during the season.

NOTICE

The following men are invited to attend the Senior class banquet, to be held probably on Friday evening, June 7. All men receiving B. A., B. S., and M. A. degrees; all men who entered college with the class of 1912, whether they are receiving degrees or not, and regardless of whether they are in the academic, law or engineering schools; and all post graduates, whether receiving degrees or not.

FRATERNITIES ENTER INTO AGREEMENT

No New Men Initiated Until Tickets Have Been Passed

As a result of several conferences which have been held recently, at the instance of one of the University officials, an agreement has been entered into between the fraternities represented at Washington and Lee, by which, it is hoped, the standard of scholarship in the fraternities and in the University at large will be raised.

A similar attempt was made a year or two ago, but difficulties arose, which made it impracticable to put the arrangement into operation. This year, however, a definite set of rules has been drawn up, providing for a council composed of one member from each fraternity, which council will see that the plan is enforced. The agreement is as follows:

"The fraternities at Washington and Lee agree:

"1. That no student shall be initiated by any fraternity unless and until he shall have passed two tickets at one examination, if he is a student in the academic or engineering department, or one major ticket, if he is a law student. Fulfilment of this condition shall be evidenced by a certificate from the Registrar of the University. (Note: The following tickets in the law department shall be considered major tickets, viz., Contracts, Torts, Carriers, Constitutional Law, Corporations, Pleading, Evidence, Real Property, Bankruptcy, Negotiable Instruments, Criminal Law, Equity and Domestic Relations.)

"2. That no man who is pledged to a fraternity shall be approached on the subject of fraternities by any person whatever, so long as he remains pledged.

"3. That a council, composed of one member from each fraternity adopting this agreement, shall decide all questions arising under the agreement. This council shall have the power of appointing an alumnus member of the council, who shall preside over its sessions, but shall have no vote in its deliberations.

"4. This agreement shall go into effect as soon as ratified by twelve fraternities."

The agreement thus makes it impossible to initiate a Freshman until after the Christmas examinations at the earliest. If he fails to pass two tickets at those examinations (and still remains in the university) he must remain uninitiated until after the spring examinations, and so on. The agreement puts no prohibition on pledging Freshmen, however, but does provide that a man who is once pledged shall not be approached on the subject of fraternities. The system of "rushing" at the first of the session will therefore remain in vogue, but the formality of initiation will be deferred until the conditions have been complied with.

Most of the larger institutions have found it necessary to adopt some such plan in regard to fraternities, and the arrangement is looked upon by the fraternities here as promising. All the fraternities in college have signed the agreement.

FORUM HEARS COMMITTEE REPORTS ON CONVENTION

That Body to Have Member on Executive Committee of Inter-Collegiate Civic League

The last meeting of the Forum for this session was called to order on Thursday, May 23rd, at 8 p. m., by Mr. B. D. Smith. After the roll call and reading of the minutes, he turned the chair over to Mr. James Somerville, Jr., the newly elected president. Mr. J. N. Daniel was installed as recording secretary, Mr. W. F. Milling as vice president, and Mr. W. H. Eager remained in office as corresponding secretary.

Reports of the various committees on the Mock Democratic national convention were made and accepted, and suggestions were made by the chairman, whereby the work of the committees at future conventions would be facilitated and improved. It was moved that these reports be filed for future reference. Mr. Delaplaine moved that a filing case be procured. Mr. Eager amended this by moving that all written work of Forum members together with a bibliography of all books consulted be filed. This was passed and it is hoped that the Forum within a few years will have a reference list on many important topics.

The names of delinquent subscribers to the Democrat were apportioned for collection and it is hoped that the seventy odd "delinquents" will pay up at once as it is important that the affairs of the Democrat be settled at once.

The corresponding secretary read a letter from the secretary of the National Executive committee and noted that "The Washington and Lee Forum" was already upon the letter head. The letter stated that the Washington and Lee Forum had been chosen to have a man upon the National committee of the intercollegiate Civic league and Mr. Walter H. Eager was elected to fill the position.

The question of a permanent meeting room for the Forum was discussed and a committee of one was appointed to try to arrange with the University for accommodations next year.

"A Perplexing Situation" Played by Senior High School Students

A large audience enjoyed a pleasing little farce played in fine spirit in the High School auditorium by students of the high school Monday evening, under the direction of Miss Fishpaw of the faculty.

Around the picture of a number of pretty girls successfully keeping speechless for hours to win a check from the miserly old head of the house, offered in banter, was involved "A Perplexing Situation," in which fun and sentiment combined to keep alive the interest. The cast of characters was:

Mr. Middleton, a miserly gentleman
Mrs. Middleton, the patient wife
Tom Middleton, the son
Jessie Middleton, eldest daughter
Nancy Pendleton
Nancy Middleton, second daughter
Sue Middleton, youngest daughter
Lucy Fair, niece
Maud, a friend of the family
Mabel, a friend of the family
Mrs. Nossie, a neighbor who likes to investigate mysteries
Alexander Wilson, Jessie's young man

DAVIS WILL MANAGE BASEBALL NEXT YEAR

Fiery and O'Quin Assistants—Bush Captain of Gym. Team

At a meeting of the Athletic Council last Saturday night E. P. Davis was elected manager of the baseball team for next year, and Leon O'Quin and B. F. Fiery were chosen assistant managers.

All three men are widely known in college, and their ability is undoubted. "Eddie Parks" Davis has been in college three years, and has taken an active part in athletics, having played fullback on the varsity football team in 1910. He assisted with the football work last fall, and is a member of the athletic council.

O'Quinn and Fiery are Sophomores this year, and will rank as junior assistants. Both have taken part in class athletics, and O'Quinn has done good work in pole vaulting. He tied for first place in that event in the recent track and field meet with V. P. I.

The council will hold a meeting tomorrow, at which time some unfinished business will be completed.

At a meeting of the gymnasium team recently held, C. B. Bush, this year's all around champion, was elected captain for next year, and J. L. Larrick manager.

We are always glad to publish any communication that may be handed to us, but we desire to state that we will not be responsible for sentiment expressed.

We also desire to call attention to the fact that unsigned correspondence will not be published. Those who do not desire their names published should add a pen name and their wishes will be complied with.

This being the last regular issue of the Ring-tum Phi, the editors feel called upon, both by precedent and inclination, to "make a few remarks" before resigning their tasks to their successors.

As has been the case of so many of those who have gone before us, we lay down the work with a feeling of satisfaction at having completed an assigned task, mingled with some regret at the imperfections which have marred the work, of which we are fully conscious. We must also confess to a feeling of no small relief that the last hour of labor has been finished, for the work has often been heavy, exacting and trying, not to say nerve-racking. The task of filling from sixteen to eighteen columns with supposedly readable matter each week, in the face of scarcity of news and other difficulties, has sometimes been burdensome, and we are frankly glad to have done with it.

At the same time the compensation has been large—as large, we believe as the reward offered by any other college activity. The college paper supplies a real need; it has an extensive field of usefulness and influence, and it is often the criterion by which a college is judged by a large class of outsiders. In conscientiously endeavoring to live up to these requirements and meet the situation squarely, we have found a great deal of satisfaction.

As stated, we are conscious of the defects which have appeared in the paper. The Flat Hat of William and Mary College, which, though a diminutive sheet, we consider one of the best edited papers on our exchange list, recently paid us the compliment of placing us among the four best college papers in the South. College Topics of the University of Virginia being one of the others. The writer was of the opinion that the Ring-tum Phi was perhaps the best in at least one department, but pointed out that too much importance was attached to athletics. We recognize the fact that a great deal of space has been given to athletic contests in our columns, and we realize this is not as it should be. At the same time, football and baseball are easily the most engrossing topics during their respective seasons, and crowd other matters from the attention of the students to a large extent. When there is very little going on except a series of games, there seems to be nothing left for the college paper but to report those games with a fullness corresponding to the amount of interest they create. We feel that this defect in our news department can be remedied by the college itself more effectually than by the college paper. Let the men who are not taking part in athletics devote their activities into other channels as energetically as the athlete turns his into his chosen field and space will not be denied in the paper to report their work.

The same article in the Flat Hat accorded to College Topics the praise of having the best "reporter system" among the college papers. It is, indeed, evident that the University of Virginia publication has an excellent reportorial system. All the news of the University is covered thoroughly and ably, showing that the members of the staff take an interest in the work. It is betraying no secret, and casting an aspersion upon no one, when we state that this is not, and has not been, the case with the Ring-tum Phi to any great extent. Each year the burden falls upon the editor-in-chief and two or three men who feel some responsibility for the appearance and content of the paper.

Aside from the hardships to the men upon whom this burden falls, such a state of affairs is detrimental to the paper in a high degree, and an injustice to the student body. The editor is not elected for the purpose of securing the news and writing the paper each week, but for the purpose of directing the work of his reporters, taking an equal part in that work himself, and deciding upon the make-up of the paper, besides, as a rule, providing the editorials. Only when all the members of the editorial staff work together conscientiously, each feeling a portion of the responsibility, will a truly representative paper be turned out, and only when this condition is attained will we feel that the Ring-tum Phi is approaching the excellence of which it is capable.

How to reach this Utopian state has been a matter of considerable thought with us, and we are convinced that it is not Utopian, in the sense that it is unattainable. The solution of the problem seem to be the one which has been applied successfully in other colleges,—namely, competition. The plan, in outline, which has been tried elsewhere, is this: Any and all men in the University who care to do so are invited to contribute to the paper either news items or editorial articles, which are accepted, rejected, or edited by the editor or an assistant. A record is kept of all work of this kind which is turned in, and from among the men who have shown the most ability the editorial board of the following year is selected. From this board, in turn, the editor and the assistant editor are selected for the following year. In this way a graduated system is established, with efficiency and ability as the only essentials for promotion. The college paper is made cosmopolitan, thorough and democratic; all the news is fully reported; a force of trained men is always at work, and the work of the editor becomes in large part what it really should be—editorial.

The Ring-tum Phi has fallen into able hands for next session, and the foregoing is no reflection whatever upon the ability of the editor to turn out the paper single-handed; but in order to relieve him, it may be, of the necessity of doing so, and at the same time in order to enable the paper to keep its rank among the rapidly improving publications of Southern colleges, we would strongly urge that some such plan be inaugurated next year. If these suggestions bear fruit, we shall feel that the best work of the present administration was in causing the paper to be placed upon a new basis of organization. It will be necessary of course, to work out the details of the plan, such as empowering the editorial board of one year to select that for the following year, and vesting the right to elect an editor and assistant editor either in the editorial board, or in the entire student body, as at present, confining eligibility to members of the staff. Such details we leave for later consideration, should the plan meet with acceptance.

Deaver Resigns as Graduate Manager

At the meeting of the Athletic council held on May 13th, the resignation of Mr. Mason C. Deaver, who has been the graduate manager since the new athletic constitution was adopted last year, was accepted. Mr. Deaver had shown a great deal of interest in the work which he had undertaken, and his resignation, due to the pressure of other matters upon his time and attention, was accepted with regret by the council. A successor to Mr. Deaver will be appointed by the council, subject to the approval of the President of the University.

The following letter was sent to Mr. Deaver, expressing appreciation of his work:

My 14, 1912.

Mr. Mason C. Deaver,
Lexington, Va.

Dear Mr. Deaver:

The undersigned, representing the Athletic council and Student Athletic association of Washington and Lee University take this opportunity to express appreciation of your past work as general manager.

At this time we wish to assure you of our full appreciation of the interest you have manifested in connection with the welfare of student athletics and the great amount of time which you have sacrificed to their advancement.

We thank you heartily for the services which you have rendered as general manager and we regret exceedingly that the press of other matters has made your resignation necessary.

Freshmen Have Lively Election

In an exciting meeting held last Thursday evening, in which parliamentary law, it is said, was often a negligible quantity, the Freshmen chose the men who will guide the destiny of the class next year. The following men were chosen:

President, C. T. Lile.
Vice President, R. P. Hobson.
Secretary-treasurer, Zack Justice.
Executive Committeeman, Fred Kellar.

Historian, G. D. Shore.
Charley Lile called the meeting to order and after a few preliminary arrangements, nominations were declared to be in order for President. Charley Lile, H. W. Rodgers, and R. W. Fowlkes were nominated and the election took place. Fowlkes receiving the least number of votes, dropped out and votes were cast to decide between Lile and Rodgers. Lile was elected by a majority of 8 votes.

President Lile then called for nominations for vice president. Before any nominations were received, a motion was made and carried that the remaining officers be elected on a single ballot. R. P. Hobson, J. G. Boatwright and R. C. Shaw were nominated for the vice presidency; J. E. Evans, Zack Justice and L. R. Ledbetter were nominated for the combined office of secretary and treasurer; the men for the executive committee were Fred Kellar, P. B. Erwood and J. R. Matthews; for class historian, G. D. Shore and L. M. Layman were nominated.

The results of the balloting are stated above. Evans and Justice received 35 votes each, but on the second ballot, Justice was elected.

Newsom and Herndon

Get Wisconsin Fellowships

Mr. W. W. Newsom and Mr. J. G. Herndon have received notices of appointments to fellowships in economics in the University of Wisconsin for next year. Mr. Herndon will hold a working fellowship in taxation and Mr. Newsom a similar fellowship in insurance.

These are two out of six working fellowships recently established by the University of Wisconsin in conjunction with the state tax commission, the state insurance commission and the state railroad commission. The holders of the fellowships receive six hundred dollars a year, and spend part of their time in practical administrative work under these commissions at the state capitol. Mr. Herndon is assigned to the tax commission, and expects to go to Wisconsin as soon as his duties here will permit, to spend the summer with the tax commission before taking up his university work in the fall. Both men expect to enter the graduate school of the University of Wisconsin in the fall to continue their work for the degree of doctor of philosophy in economics. These are among the best and most sought after fellowships in the United States, and Washington and Lee men are honored in receiving two of the appointments.

Mr. Leckey McC. Kinnear, B. S., '11, who during the past session has been coach and an instructor in science in the Georgia Military academy near Atlanta, has returned to his home in Lexington.

ty, and T. McP. Glasgow and J. A. McDonald for the Washington society. The Senior ball, led by Robert C. Hood, president of the class, will also be held on Monday night.

On Tuesday will take place the german given by the junior ribbon societies—P. A. N. and White Friars—in the gymnasium. The board of trustees will also hold their annual meeting on Tuesday morning, and the alumni association will be addressed on Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock by the Hon. James L. Slayden, member of congress from Texas. Following the address there will be a reception given by the dean to the alumni and visitors in the library building.

The final exercises will be held in the chapel on Wednesday morning, when the graduates will receive their degrees and the commencement address will be made by Governor William Hodges Mann of Virginia. The final ball will be held on Wednesday night, led by K. W. Pipes, president.

Kappa Sigma—Phi Delta Theta Game

Kappa Sigma went into the final series of the interfraternity league on last Tuesday, when they handed Phi Delta Theta an 11 to 1 defeat. Clemmons deserved better support than he was accorded, and the score would have been materially smaller had he not given up the cause in the seventh and allowed the Kappa Sigmas to fatten their averages. Only two hits were secured off McDonald.

The feature of the game was a home run by Tommy Glasgow, which did not materialize, for after slamming the ball over the left field fence, he neglected to touch first base on his maiden trip around the sacks, and ran into an ice berg in the shape of the umpire, who called him out when he started on a second voyage to first.

The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Kappa Sigma	111	020	6—11 11 2
Phi Delta Theta	100	000	0—1 2 10

Batteries: K. S.—McDonald and Baird; P. D. T.—Clemmens and Glasgow. Struck out—By Clemmens, 5; by McDonald, 8. Umpire—Mr. Donahue.

Pi Kappa Alpha—Phi Kappa Psi Game

In a see saw game featured more by loose fielding than by heavy hitting, the Phi Kappa Psi's retired the Pi Kappa Alphas from the championship race by securing a 6 to 5 victory last Monday. Both Williams and Wright got off to a bad start, but tightened up after the first inning, and a lively pitchers' battle ensued, of which Wright had a shade the better. It was anybody's game until the last out, and so closely were the teams matched that it is hard to draw any distinction between them. Phi Psi excelled in fielding, but the P. K. A's. made up for their errors by running the bases in better style than their opponents.

The score:

	R.	H.	E.
P. K. A.	301	010	000—5 6 6
P. K. P.	200	121	000—6 7 2

Batteries: P. K. A.—Williams and Rothrock; P. K. P's.—Wright and Somerville. Struck out—By Williams, 11; by Wright, 15. Umpire—Mr. Donahue.

CALYX HAS ARRIVED

—ALL SOLD

Review of the Book By One of the Editors

A small shipment of the Calyx was received last Saturday, and the rest of the books are expected during the early part of the week, at which time distribution will be made to those who have ordered them. Every copy has been sold, and the books are at a premium for the first time in a number of years. Mr. Owen has endeavored to manage the enterprise on a businesslike basis, and ordered only enough books to fill the orders he had, in order to avoid the experience of previous managers, who have had a number of books left on hand.

The book presents many new and distinctive features this year, doing great credit to the originality and efforts of the editor and staff. In addition to the regular athletic, class and fraternity sections which are unusually good, it contains the "College Life" section, consisting of about thirty pages of wit, humor, laughter and art comparing favorably with the best journals in the country devoted to these things. Another innovation is the "Rank Bum File," section, setting forth all the latest news in a pleasant and mirth inspiring manner.

The excellent art work which characterizes the book does great credit to the diligence and efficiency of the art staff, all of the work being of an order which is seldom met with in amateur art circles.

The volume presents a pleasing external appearance, being prettily bound in brown leather and bearing upon the front cover a replica of the Main building and the University coat of arms. A number of more elaborate covers, consisting of white and gold, and selling at a slight advance, have also been prepared.

Dr. Pollard Plans New Athletic Field

Dr. Pollard is working on some plans for a new "playground" to be used as a baseball diamond, football field, and for other purposes by the class and fraternity teams. The proposed grounds will take the place of the upper tennis courts, north of the athletic field, which are never used for tennis at present. Dr. Pollard plans to grade this ground down the level of the varsity athletic field and use the earth thus removed to fill in on the rear of the grounds, thus increasing the available space. According to his calculations, the new field will be about 400 feet long and of a good width. Mr. R. F. Royal of the engineering school has acted as engineer and made the measurements and calculations.

While the work is as yet hardly more than planned, it is probable that Dr. Pollard will see the plan carried through. The lack of such a field has long been keenly felt, as the regular field is given over to the varsity squads, and others can play there only occasionally. Dr. Pollard commented on the excellence of the fraternity baseball games, and said that with a new field, the standard would be materially raised. In addition to this, it will provide a training ground for the varsity candidates, and should serve to bring out much new material which, under the present system has no chance to develop.

Liberty Hall Day Exercises

Monday, June 3rd, which is Confederate Memorial day in Lexington, will be given as a holiday in commemoration of the Liberty Hall volunteers. The exercises will as usual be held in Lee Memorial chapel at Washington and Lee at 11 o'clock in the morning. The orator of the day will be Professor Charles A. Graves of the faculty of the University of Virginia. There will be the presentation of a number of crosses of honor to old Confederates and their representatives. After the exercises a procession led by the battalion of cadets of the Virginia Military Institute and including other organizations, and veterans and sons of veterans will march to the cemetery. The graves of General Lee and of General Jackson and of all Confederates will be decorated.

Last Meeting of Chemical Society

The chemical society met for the last time this year on Friday evening, May 24th. After a short business session in which Mr. Henry Moncure was elected president for 1913, Dr. Walter LeC. Stevens delivered an illustrated lecture on the Mammoth cave of Kentucky.

The lecture was followed by a banquet at the Lexington hotel. After a short speech by the retiring president, Mr. Walter Hood, several of those present responded to the request for remarks. Among these speakers were Dr. Harry Campbell, the acting president of the university, and Dr. Howe, the head of the chemical department and guardian spirit of the society.

The society has been very fortunate in procuring several prominent speakers during the past year and preparations are being made to have an equal if not a greater number for next year.

KAPPA SIGMA CAPTURES CUP

Phi Psi's Fail in Final Contest, 8 to 3

Getting their hits when bingles meant runs, the Kappa Sigmas captured the final game of the inter-fraternity series from Phi Kappa Psi last Saturday by 8 to 3. With the championship goes the cup, which will remain in the possession of Kappa Sigma for a year, and will belong to the fraternity which wins it twice in succession. The cup will be presented by Dr. Harry Campbell at some future date.

The Phi Psis attribute their defeat more to errors of omission than commission, for their fielding was more mechanical than artistic.

Billy Wright, the no hit "phenom," who was suffering with a sore arm, was touched up for several long bingles, Baird's home run in the ninth being one of the hardest hit balls seen on Wilson field this season. Fleming Burk was the leading run getter of the day, with four tallies to his credit, and he also accumulated three hits, while Yonge's catch of McCain's fly in a collision with Frank Moore was the feature play of the series. McCain was the fielding star for the Phi Psi's.

McDonald for Kappa Sigma pitched a steady game throughout, issuing only one pass and fanning eleven. Although in several critical situations, he tightened up in time to prevent scoring.

At a meeting of the Sophomore class, on May 20, at 3:30 p. m., in the English room, the officers were elected for the ensuing year. The meeting was originally called for the purpose of attending to an assessment, for the class representation, in the Calyx, but upon motion the election of officers followed. "Jiggs" Donahue was elected president; Henry Barker, vice president; J. W. Baylor, secretary; L. T. Patton, treasurer; J. D. Thornton, executive committeeman, and C. R. Dexter, manager of the class baseball team.

YOU CAN SAVE MONEY

as shirts, collars and cuffs are injured more by improper washing and ironing than by actual wear. This is an absolute fact, as you probably know. It is also an absolute fact that your linen will wear twice as long and look better by having it laundered by the Lexington Steam Laundry, No. 1164 N. Main St. Branch office, Model Barber Shop. This you can prove by giving us your work regularly, and finding out how much you can save by it. Students get a special discount on all their work.
