CURTAIN DESCENDS ON BASKETBALL

FRESHMAN TANK TEAM LOSES BY ONE POINT

Final Score 36-35—Cook and Frost Gain Stellar Berths for Frosh.

The Washington and Lee freshman swimmers lost a very close meet to A. M. A. by one point, the final score being 36-35. At no time was either team more than three points in the lead. The relay proved to be the deciding event. Before it started the score stood Washington and Lee 32, A. M. A. 31. When McPherson nosed out Woolfolk, swimming last for the Blue, by a bare two feet, the meet went to the cadets by one point.

Cook and Frost starred for the Little Generals, the former winning the 50 yards breast stroke and 50 yards back stroke events. Frost swam in the relay, placed second in the 50 yard dash, third in the Fancy Dive, and first in the 100 yard dash. Woolfolk showed up well in the dashes and won second in the Fancy Dive. For A. M. A. McPherson made ten points, winning the Fancy Dive and the 50 yard dash. He also swam a pretty race in the relay. Taylor also did well for the cadets.

Coach Twombly has been handicapped by an absence of material and it is urged that all freshmen who have aspirations along the swimming line report to him at once. In the dash events there were only five men available and this made it necessary to enter the same men in several events. A meet will probably be arranged with Fishburne for next week.

The results were as follows:

Plunge: Mott, W. & L. and Gresheu, A. M. A., tied for first with 52 feet, third, Eldon, W. & L.; 50 yard crawl: first, McPherson, A. M. A., second, Frost, W. & L., third, Woolfolk, W. & L., time 26 1-5 seconds; 50 yard breast: first, Cook, W. & L., second, Wright, A. M. A., third, Dearborn, A. M. A., time, 38 seconds; fancy dive, first, McPherson,

BLUE AND WHITE LOSES ON MATS

Both Varsity and Scrubs Experience Defeat—Asbury Corners Decision.

Both the Varsity and the scrub wrestlers went down to defeat before Trinity and A. M. A. respectively, the scores being 21-3 and 18-5. The varsity match was held in the Doremus gymnasium Monday and the Scrubs journeyed to Fort Defiance last Saturday to meet the cadet matmen.

In the first varsity event Payne, the Washington and Lee representative in the 115 pound class was thrown by Hardaway in the first extra period after nine minutes of even wrestling. Following this Kilmon lost the decision to O'Daniels of Trinity. The first nine minutes ended with O'Daniels having a slight time decision. During the two three-minute periods following, O'Daniels increased this to 5 minutes 35 seconds.

In the 135 pound class May threw Cummings, Washington and Lee, in 8 minutes 20 seconds. Cummings put up a splendid bout and had the better of May for the larger part of the time, but in attempting to throw his opponent went down himself and pulled May on top of him. In the next match Hubbard, substituting for Mobley, lost to McLellan, the Trinity 145 pounder, being thrown in seven minutes. Hubbard put up a good match.

Elms met Midget, the Trinity star, in the 158 pound class and lost on a time decision of 4 minutes and 12 seconds after a hard fight. Midget in three matches this year had wrestled seven men, winning six times. In the match he lost he entered the middleweight, the light heavy and heavyweight classes. He won the first two but lost a decision in the last.

The Generals gained their three points when "42" Asbury won a time

CALYX STAFF CONTAINS TALENT AND ABILITY

Indicative of a Superior Book Worthy of Washington and Lee.

If the Editorial Staff of the Calyx, as announced by Editor Snively, is any indication of the worth of the book, it may be said that from all appearances the annual this year will be one which is truly representative of the Student Body and worthy of Washington and Lee.

Carl Gill, former Business Manager, holds the Assistant Editor-in-Chief's position, in addition to being Art Editor. His introduction to the Student Body is unnecessary and his ability along publication lines is recognized as exceptional. The Managing Editor's job is filled by Buck Avis, well known editorial writer, and member of several publication staffs. The Editors of the various departments include: Bob Campbell, University Editor; Wyatt French, Society and Publicity Editor; Herb Elias, Fraternity Editor; Scramble Sale, Athletic Editor; Johnnie Steer, Photographic Editor; Punk Walter, College Life Editor; and Lefty Klein, Copy Writer and General Utility Editor. The remainder of the staff is made up of the artists, Ted Harris, Overlander and Mayor, and the photographer, Charlie Handley. Contributions have also been received from other members of the Student Body.

There will be a meeting of the Staff on Thursday at 3:30 in the Calyx office, third floor, Newcomb Hall.

Collection Committee To Get Under Way March 2nd—Invitations Ready for Subscriptions.

The finance committee of Finals will begin the collection of subscriptions on Friday, March 2. It is necessary for all who have subscribed to pay at once when approached by a member of the committee, as this is the greatest factor of Finals' success. It being near the first of the month it is expected that a large percentage of the subscriptions will be paid immediately. There is a large number of men who have not yet signed up for their quota and it

W. & L. FAILS TO PLACE IN BALTIMORE MEET

W. & L. did not place in the Intercollegiate indoor meet in Baltimore last Saturday. The meet was a handicap affair with most of the large northern colleges taking part. Among those represented were Yale, Penn State, University of Pennsylvania and the Navy.

All of the six Blue representatives did well, Howard in particular running a pretty race. Running from scratch in the mile against a large field, many having as much as 50 yards handicap, he passed all but four. His time was estimated at 4:35, a remarkable indoor record for that distance.

Catholic University Squad Grabs Generals' Last Game

Brooklanders Strengthen Championship Claim By 28-18 Victory.

C. U. KEEPS SLIGHT LEAD

Thomas the Star for W. & L.—Generals In Good Form In Passing and Shooting.

The Generals dropped the last game of the season last Saturday night to Catholic University by the score of 28 to 18, thus strengthening the Brooklanders' claim for the South Atlantic championship. The game was fast and well played throughout and the final score by no means indicates the relative merits of the two teams.

Both teams battled on practically even terms during the whole game, C. U. managing to keep a slight lead most of the time, but its lead was so small that it was forced to keep going at full speed during the entire tilt. And then it was only in the last few moments of the game that they managed to forge ahead far enough to assure them a victory.

The Generals showed that they had all that a good team needs. As a team they passed and guarded exceptionally well, all the men showing good shooting ability. Jimmy Thomas was easily the star of the evening. He not only showed himself to be an excellent dribbler but he also caged eight out of nine fouls.

Eberts drew first blood shortly after the opening tip-off, Thomas tying things up a minute later on two free throws. He then gave the Generals the margin by making a field goal from almost the center of the floor, and then added two more points on fouls. This was the only time during the game that the Blue team had C. U. trailing for at this point she rallied and tied the score

THIRTY ANSWER CALL FOR BASEBALL TRYOUTS

Coach Delivers Address—Tuesday Witnesses First Preliminary Action.

The demise of the basketball season has brought no regrets since there has been issued the call for candidates for diamond service. Thirty strong candidates piled out to answer Coach De Hart's summons, and a likely looking bunch they are, too.

Coach delivered the customary preliminary "fight" talk; customary but unusual in the punch and meaning the message carried. Ability counts, was the statement of his policy for selection of men who would fill the numerous berths left vacant by the departure of varsity men last year. The best man would get the job be he a last year regular, a scrub, or novice. The men present signed up and were dismissed without further event.

Tuesday witnessed the first preliminary warming up on the lawn in front of the gym. The men were in uniforms tossing the pill with grace and ease. It was evident that their number had increased since the previous afternoon, the horse hide thrill having seemingly penetrated others

COMMANDER OWSLEY TO SPEAK SATURDAY

Students To Hear Legion Commander In Chapel—To Address V. M. I.

On Saturday morning at eleven o'clock the students of Washington and Lee University are to have the honor of hearing Commander Owsley of the American Legion who will speak in the Chapel.

Commander Owsley is making a tour of the United States and this is one of the three stops he is making in the state of Virginia. He is to be the guest of the Lexington Post of the American Legion.

Just before his address to the students and townspeaple at eleven o'clock, Commander Owsley will visit the tomb of Lee. At one o'clock the American Legion is to give him a luncheon in the Washington and Lee gym. All the over-seas and ex-service men in the University are invited to the luncheon. During the evening there will be drills in his honor at V. M. I. At 7:30 p. m. he will address the cadets of V. M. I.

TO SUBSCRIBERS

Beginning with the issue of March 10th the names of all who have not paid for their subscriptions, to the Ring-tum Phi by that time will be dropped from the mailing list.

Communication From Omicron Delta Kappa

Lexington, Va.,
February 26, 1923.

Washington and Lee University,
To the Student Body:

We wish to call your attention to some matters concerning the campus that should be of deep interest to every loyal student, but which are prone to be neglected in the hurry and bustle of collegiate life.

Our campus is justly famed as one of the most beautiful in America. It is superfluous to say that you are all proud of its appearance, but even those most diligent in maintaining W. & L. traditions, those most jealous of its ideals may fall into careless habits through naught but little acts of thoughtlessness.

We are reminding you that the beauty of the campus is marred by scattering of loose papers and careless throwing down of cigarettes, empty tobacco packages and other trash. New and convenient rubbish

DELTA TAUS EASY VICTORS

The Delta Tau Delta's decisively defeated the Lambda Chi Alpha's Saturday afternoon in a very exciting game by the score of 13 to 3.

Lynn and Maddux were the stellar performers for the winners, the former shooting three field goals and the latter two. For the Lambda Chi's, Limpert was probably the individual star, scoring all three of his team's points.

The first half ended with the Delta Tau Delta's leading by an 8 to 0 score and it looked as if they would win easily. But the Lambda Chi's came back strong in the last half, scoring three points and holding their opponents to five tallies.

PHI'S WIN CLOSE ONE

Saturday afternoon the Phi Delta Theta's defeated the Phi Epsilon Pis in a hard fought contest by the narrow margin of 5 to 2. The first half was especially close, ending in a scoreless tie.

Near the close of the second half the Phi Delta's got busy and with the score 2 to 1 against them, Bear and Allison put in the two winning field goals. Cohen scored the only two points for his team with foul goals.

Both teams showed remarkable guarding ability during the whole game, but were weak on goal shooting. There were no particular stars for either side.

MAKE YOUR WORDS COUNT!

Most students realize that words are effective only when used in the proper way and not overworked. But the general tendency today is to overstate contentions and to overwork expressive words. Attention has been called to the fact that the words "awful" and "terrible" are continually used by the majority of people, when other and better words could be substituted.

We notice that the University of Indiana is making an attempt to omit the words "damn" and "hell" from the school yells. Such action is very commendable, and one which might well be instituted at Washington and Lee. Various college and university papers over the country are conducting campaign against swearing. The Daily Iowan says that swear words are used all too frequently. Continuing, the editorial says, "What will a man who swears when he breaks a shoestring do, when he finds his wife has left him and run away?"

It is obvious that swearing has no place in a student's vocabulary, and the practice is due, either to carelessness, or a lack of refinement. Some authorities agree that it is directly traceable to an abbreviated, "cut" or slight vocabulary, the result of not having had suficient work in rhetoric. The cause, regardless of what it is, should be eliminated, and our speech placed on a higher plane.

Professor Gilman of the University of Wisconsin claims that college men, or, at least, those preparing for business activity, should have four years of rhetoric while in the university. The question is one, which the individual can best decide, but the fact remains that college students would do well to take cognizance of their choice of words, remembering to use high-powered words sparingly, so that when necessity arises for them they may have the desired effect.

PLAY THE GAME

As the Senior nears the end of his school career and begins to look forward—rather apprehensively in most cases—to taking his place among the myriad of professions of the world, his mood becomes thoughtful.

On entering college, a man usually thinks that he has a theory of life that, if followed, will bring him success. As new problems confront him and as youthful ideas are crushed, new theories take the place of the old, and the ideas of yesteryear are oft times almost like the taunting laughter of some monster who seeks to destroy.

We've watched the masses hurrying thither and yon, and wondered if the competition isn't too great, and if it would not be just as well to forget those old ideals and settle comfortably into a convenient rut and let the work of building up be borne by someone else. Even the strong man thinks thus—at times.

But though Despair may haunt us, success may seem like another aircastle, and life like an unsolvable math problem, the strong man never quits.

It is easy to go forward when everything is going right, and when there's money in the pockets and your grades are honor roll high; but start down grade once and it's hard to stop and right-about-face for the climb back.

We're living in a little world of our own here on the campus and we play the game and win here, we can hold our own in the outside world.

At the beginning and the end of the terms, it is easy to work, for our goals are near. But out in the stream where the water is swift, it's easy to loaf, for the goals are far away and the work is very hard. Then we must call on our heart and nerve and sinew to fight their hardest.

Play up! Play the game every minute and you can't lose; but stop a moment and you're lost.

Theories have their place and serve their turn but the way up is through steady plodding work—and the goal is always worth while.—(Courtesy of "The Technique.")

INTERCOLLEGIATELY SPEAKING

"Bob" Carroll, president of the St. Petersburg club in the Florida State League, announced that "Red" Johnson, University of North Carolina infielder, who had been sought by the Atlanta Club of the Southern Association, had accepted the terms offered him by the Saints and would become a member of the team for this season.

S. I. N. A.

The University of North Carolina is scheduled to play only teams from Mississippi in the Southern basketball tournament. On the first night they meet Miss. State College, and if they win they will play the University of Miss., and if successful again they will meet the Miss. Aggies.

S. I. N. A.

An individual foul tossing contest is to be held at the University of Tennessee, in which any student in the school except those making a varsity letter, can participate. The prize consists of a gold basketball especially designed, and the contest consists of trying to see which one can cage the largest number out of 50 throws.

S. I. N. A.

Michigan lost her chance to get the Big Ten title when she was defeated by the University of Wisconsin by the score of 16-11. This was the second victory of the Badgers over the Wolverines this season. As in the first game Michigan was not able to break through the defense of the Wisconsin team.

MINK TO APPEAR LATE THIS WEEK

The Society number of the Mink should arrive in Lexington during the latter part of this week. The delay has not been due to any fault of the editors and managers. All the inside pages have been printed and are waiting to be bound. The cause of the tardiness is the covers, which are printed in New York, and have not yet been delivered by the express company. As soon as the covers arrive, the Minks will be bound in Lynchburg and delivered in Lexington the following day.

The editors again urge that students manifest more interest in the Girls' Number, and request their girl friends to submit material by March 9 to the Contest editor of the Mink.

BETA-SIGMA CHI GAME CLOSE

The Beta Theta Pi's defeated the Sigma Chi's Monday in one of the best games of the series thus far by the score of 16 to 12. This contest was a hard fought one throughout.

The whole Beta team worked to perfection. The forwards co-operated with the rest of the team and some really good team work was displayed. The Sigma Chi's also had a smooth working team but could not quite reach the heights attained by the Betas.

The work of McMillan for the winners was the feature of his team's play. He scored eight of the sixteen points made. For the Sigma Chi's, Urian was star in finding the basket.

PHI KAPPAS WIN, 7-4

The Phi Kappa Sigma's finally came out on top in a bitterly contested game with the Zeta Beta Tau's Monday afternoon by the score of 7 to 4. The winner was in doubt up to the last minue, due to the closeness of the score. Lindburg, however, scored the winning tallies for his team by good foul shooting.

There were no individual stars on either team as both teams displayed team work. The guarding of the entire Phi Kappa Sigma team was excellent.

SIGMA NUS CONQUER

The Sigma Nu's defeated their neighbors the A. T. O.'s in a heartbreaking battle by the score of 7-6, Tuesday afternoon. The contest was hard fought throughout. It was only in the last minute that the winning points were scored. As the whistle blew McVay had a chance to tie the score by a field goal but he missed his shot by a narrow margin.

Personal fouls were plentiful during the game and this was partly the cause of the close score. There were no particular stars for either side.

A. X. P.'s GAIN VICTORY

The Alpha Chi Rho's came out on top in a rough and tumble game with the K. A.'s Tuesday by the score of 9-8. The score indicates the closeness of the match.

Love for the winners was easily the star player of the game. He scored every point for the winners, four field goals and a foul goal being his share. All of them were from difficult angles and his excellent work brought much applause from the spectators on the side lines. Tutwiler also played well for the winners. Dismuke was the individual star for the losers.

KAPPA SIGS LOSE TO PHI GAM

The Phi Gamma Delta's nosed out the Kappa Sigma's in a close game by the score of 11-8. The winners jumped into the lead early in the first half and were never headed. However, the Kappa Sig's never allowed them to gain much of a lead and in the second half it looked as if they might overhaul their opponents. The lead was maintained to the end, however.

The floor work of Bock for the losers was very good. Other than this there were no other features of the game.

and thereafter kept a little ahead. When the half ended the Brooklanders had a two point advantage, 15 to 13.

Just after the start of the second half Lake caged a long one, thus bringing the Generals up to within a point of tying C. U., 19 to 18. This was, however, the last scoring done by the Generals. At this point Catholic U. rallied and brought its total to 28 points.

Both teams showed good foul shooting, Thomas caging eight out of nine throws while Lynch was successful in 14 out of 20. Both Lake and Thomas showed up exceptionally well and easily captured the individual honors for the Generals. For C. U. Breslin and Eberts were the offensive stars.

Line-up and summary:

W. & L.		C. U.
Lake	L. F.	Breslin
Thomas	R. F.	Eberts
Hines	C.	Fitzgerald
Cameron	L. G.	Lawler
Schneider	R. G.	Lynch

Substitutions—McDonald for Cameron, Snively for Thomas.

Floor goals—Breslin 3, Eberts 3, Fitzgerald, Thomas 2, Lake 2, Hines.

Foul goals—Thomas 8 in 9, Lynch 14 in 20.

Referee—Hughes.

COMMUNICATION FROM OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

receptacles are being placed about the campus at points where there is most passing each day. It is very little trouble to wait until you reach one of these to throw away waste paper or cigarettes.

As Spring is near we urge also upon you that you will refrain from taking short cuts across the lawn in places where paths are being formed. Especially should this be observed in walking from the law building to the chapel and in other parts where such crossings are made by a large number of students each day. Use the walks wherever at all practicable. Do not hestitate to remind others of this small duty in preserving our campus at its best, for unless the person reminded is either narrow brained or ruthless in not caring for the appearance of the campus he will take it in the spirit in which it is given—for the common good that we all regard.

It is hoped that the co-operation of all loyal students will be secured in this move to maintain and care for the campus in the spirit with which we all regard it.

Sincerely yours,

ALPHA CIRCLE OF OMICRON DELTA KAPPA.

SIGMA UPSILON AFTER GILLIAM LITERARY PRIZE

To Enter Play, Poem, and Short Story—Monthly Campus Journal Discussed.

Sesame chapter of Sigma Upsilon held its regular bi-monthly meeting Friday. In addition to matters of business it was decided that the literary fraternity would encourage and take active steps toward publication of the winning play, poem and short story in the contest for which a prize is being offered by Mr. T. W. Gilliam 2d, a Lynchburg alumnus.

The project was discussed at length of a monthly journal or review conducted jointly by the leading departments of the University in which there are honorary societies, such as chemistry, law, engineering, biology, commerce, literature; such magazine to contain campus articles and sketches besides contributions from the members of these societies.

The society will hold its annual initiation next Friday night, followed by a Bohemian feed.

Regular meeting of the Promotion Force at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening at the "Y" room. Subject, "Christianity and Economic Problems." Dr. T. K. Young, leader.

SPECIAL MEETING OF "Y" PROMOTION FORCE

Lyman Hoover Makes Enjoyable Address—Mission Courses To Be Initiated.

At a special meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Promotion Force held Tuesday night two very interesting speeches were made. Mr. Lyman Hoover, traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement, gave a short and interesting talk on the meeting held recently in East Radford. His subject was "Why Missions Should Be Studied." His address was enjoyed by all.

Immediately after Mr. Hoover's address A. T. Roy made a short address. He also told about the recent conference at East Radford and announced that beginning with Friday, March 2nd, there would be a course in missions. This course is open to all, and anyone that wishes to attend should notify "Ted" Schultz at once.

There will be two sections to this course, both meeting at one o'clock. Dr. Howe will teach one section and his subject will be "Misions as a Whole." Dr. Howe has a son in China now doing mission work and is very much interested in this subject.

Mrs. W. R. Sharp, wife of Professor Sharp of the department of history, will teach the other section. Her subject will be "Missions in the Near East." Mrs. Sharp has been in Europe and knows the conditions that prevail there. Each class will last about forty-five minutes.

THREE BIG PICTURES FOR REST OF WEEK

"The Bond Boy," one of the greatest pictures Dick Barthelmess ever made, holds the boards at the New Theatre today and tomorrow. For gripping scenes and tense action, the feature is unbeatable. A two reel Education Comedy completes the bill.

Friday and Saturday Ethel Clayton, famous Paramount star, will appear in "If I Were Queen," an elaborate and entertaining production. Saturday night at the Lyric, "The Hound of the Baskerville," the well-known Sherlock Holmes story, will be presented. A good comedy will also be shown.

FRESHMEN TAKE SECOND FROM TECH YEARLINGS

The V. P. I. freshmen were snowed under by the "Little Generals" in a game played Tuesday by the score of 53 to 18. The game was scheduled to be played Monday night but the "Little Generals" missed their train in Roanoke.

Whitley was the individual star of the game, shooting 13 field goals. The whole first year team worked very smoothly during the entire game and had the game "on ice" from the beginning.

Coach Brett used his usual line-up and during the latter part of the game the substitutes that made the trip were used.

BLUE AND WHITE LOSES ON MATS

decision over Mathewson in the last event of the evening. "42" had the best of the big Trinity man throughout the whole bout and came very near throwing him.

Mr. Zimmerman refereed all the bouts in a very creditable manner.

Hubbard scored all of the Generals' points in the Scrub-A. M. A. contest. He threw his man in short order. Bloom, Alves and Cooper in the 115, 135, and 145 classes respectively were thrown and Beard, light heavyweight, lost on decision.

They do funny things with radio. Some people even make money.

LAWYERS MEET IN FIRST INTERCLASS COURT GAMES

Schedule Arranged—Games Must Be Played Date Set or Forfeit.

Interclass basketball will start Thursday, March 8th, when the Intermediate Lawyers meet the Junior Lawyers. Two games will be played each afternoon from 4 to 6 p. m.

It was decided at a meeting of the class presidents that the teams must play on the day and time set or forfeit, that the captains are to select the officials, and ten-minute halves shall be played in all the games except the finals in which the halves shall be 15 minutes long. All men receiving Varsity monograms or freshman numerals are ineligible. If monograms or numerals have not been awarded by that time, those recommended for same are barred.

The schedule is as follows:

Thursday, March 8, 4 p. m.—Junior Law vs. Intermediate Law (A).

Thursday, March 8, 5 p. m.—Freshmen vs. Senior Academic (B).

Friday, March 9, 4 p. m.—Sophs vs. Senior Law (C).

Saturday, March 10, 4 p. m.—Winners of A. and B.

Saturday, March 10, 5 p. m.—Winners C and Junior Academic.

Monday, March 12, 4 p. m.—Finals.

THIRTY ANSWER CALL FOR BASEBALL TRYOUTS

with its appeal. This light workout will continue for the present until weather permits more strenuous operations. The gym and the field house will probably see quite a little action in case of inclement weather, which is surely due to come. Daily practice with no let up is the menu for the present.

As regards coaching the Generals can consider themselves most fortunate. Dick Smith, Al Pierotti, Twombly, and Jimmie De Hart are all lined up to confer, plan, and work to realize one of the best baseball seasons Washington and Lee has experienced.

Prospects for several strong, capable and brilliant batteries are exceedingly bright; the moundsmen being represented by three of the old guard of last year, Lindberg, McCallum, and McDonald, reinforced by favorable material in Hawkins, Klein, Urian, and Norman; while Mattox has the company of Taliaferro, McMillan, and Tilson, all backstops of ability. With this encouragement the coaches will be able to instill enthusiasm and the winning spirit into the squad—the psychology of a weak battery being a hard matter to overcome.

DIG, GENTLEMEN, AND DIG DEEP FOR FINALS

is urged that they do so at once. Any member of the finance committee will receive the subscription.

The proofs for the invitations are now on the bulletin board, and all those desiring them can sign at once. This is necessary as the order must be placed within a short time and this year no extras will be ordered. It must be remembered that these invitations are not for the Seniors alone but for the whole Student Body whether attending Finals or not. The dummy samples show only the cover, but the inside will be equally attractive. The invitation usually contains the engraved invitation to Finals, Senior class roll. Finals program, and several cuts. This year, however, two pages have been added, one which will be an engagement page, and the other containing a poem appropriate to the occasion.

Why are they called film plots? A film is something you can see thru.

"THE LADY IN GREEN"

After several weeks of deliberation, the Executive Officers of the Troubadours have announced the name of the annual musi-comedy, "The Lady in Green." The production is being perfected day by day, and will be ready to go on the road toward the latter part of March.

T. J. ELLIS ELECTED VALEDICTORIAN OF '23

At a recent meeting of the Senior class, T. J. Ellis was elected valedictorian, and hence will deliver the valedictory address at the commencement exercises during Finals. This adds another to the ever increasing list of Jean's campus honors.

He is the holder of two scholarships, and a member of the Publication Board, Circle, Sigma Upsilon, Iota Nu Kappa, and the Executive Committee. He has also served on the Mink staff, and was a member of the wrestling team, and coxswain of the Albert Sidney crew last year. In addition Ellis was the editor of the 1922 Ring-tum Phi, and is associate editor this year. His earnest and fruitful efforts in the editorial department of the paper for the benefit of Washington and Lee will long be remembered on the campus.
