

NON-CLIQUE AGREEMENT RECALLED TO MIND

Passed Last Year To Abolish Factional Politics—Agreement Published.

The agreement which was adopted last year abolishing "cliques" and "factions" in Student Body elections reads as follows:

"Recognizing that positions of responsibility and honor in the Washington and Lee Student Body should be filled by men elected thereto with regard to their individual fitness for the office and to their individual desert, and believing that the welfare of the Student Body is seriously endangered by the presence on our campus of permanent "cliques" and "factions," to whose rivalry for political prestige the interests of the Student Body are often subordinated.

We therefore, hereby sever all political affiliations, and solemnly agree to run campus elections only by the conscientious consideration of the merits of the candidates.

In witness whereof, we, by our representative hereunto duly authorized, sign this agreement.

THE AGREEMENT.

1. "This agreement expressly prohibits any two or more organizations from combining to name a "ticket" or to prevent the free entrance into the race of any candidate. It also prohibits approaching any organization with a request that such organization, as a unit, support any candidate. It also prohibits any organization from pledging its support, as a unit, to any candidate, no matter what their motive in so doing.

2. "Nothing in this agreement shall prevent any individual candidate or his supporters, as individuals, from approaching other individuals in the interest of such candidate.

"GIRLS' ISSUE" MINK ACCLAIMED SUCCESS

Girls Have Privilege of Slamming Students To Heart's Content.

The Girls' issue of the "Mink," which came out last week, has been acclaimed a great success. Much speculation was made as to whether the girls could edit a humorous magazine as well as our staff. But with only one glance at the "Mink" they were handed the paper loving cup. This issue has afforded the students much pleasure, mainly because it is different from other "Minks." Instead of the usual slams on girls the tables are turned this time and we students are the ones to suffer.

The cover design drawn by Miss Mary Murray of Ward-Belmont is exceptionally good, and has drawn much praise. The interior of the "Mink" is crammed full of clever jokes and poems, and the cartoons are "the stuff." Mrs. Dink Ducey showed that she was perfectly capable of shouldering the heavy burden of editing "The Hickville Herald" during her husband's absence.

The following young ladies have been announced as winners of the first prizes offered by the "Mink" in the contest:

Best cover design—Miss Mary Murray, Ward-Belmont.

Cartoons—Miss Margaret Watts, Fairmount School, Washington, D. C.

Original jokes—Miss Muriel Wilson, Vassar College.

Humorous literary contributions—Miss Grayce Gillihan, Plainfield, N. J.

The following girls' schools were represented: Ward-Belmont, Vassar, Sweet Briar, Southern Seminary, R.-M. W. C., Sullins, N. G. F. A., Central, Virginia Intermont, Mary Baldwin, Hollins, Smith, Virginia, and many others.

MARYLAND TRACK TEAM VARSITY'S FIRST OPPONENT

Expected To Be Close Meet—Local Squad In Excellent Shape.

The Varsity track team will open its season here next Friday when they meet the strong University of Maryland team. The meet will start at two-thirty in order that the baseball game with V. P. I. can begin at four o'clock.

The meet next Friday is expected to be a very close one as the Maryland team showed up particularly well in the indoor meet held at Baltimore in February. The outdoor meet held last year between the two schools at College Park was won by W. & L. This year Maryland has some very good men on the team. Beers, who holds the South Atlantic record for the shot put, is expected to show up well in all the weight events. He is six feet, six inches tall, weighs 230 pounds, and has had considerable track experience.

In the meet with the freshman squad last Saturday the Varsity showed up very well, the freshmen securing only one first place, that being in the high jump which was won by Biddle.

The results were as follows: 100 yard dash: First heat: first, Kemp; second, Switzer; third, Smith. Second heat: first, Thomas; second, Rhodes; third, Simmons. One mile run: first, Howard; second, Decker; third, Hawkins. 120 yard high hurdles: first, Rhodes; second, Simmons; third, Davis. Shot put: first, Rhodes; second, Lewis; third, Little. 440 yard run: first, Thomas; second, Manning; third, Summerson. Two mile run: first, Smith; second, Lankenau; third, Guerrant. High jump: first, Biddle; second, McKnight; third, Lowry and Davis tied. 120 yard low hurdles: first, Simmons; second, Rhodes; third, Davis. Javelin throw: first, Lewis; second, Taliaferro;

TROUBADOURS LEAVE ON ANNUAL TRIP FRIDAY

The Washington and Lee Troubadours will leave on their annual spring trip next Friday morning. They will play in Roanoke Friday evening and in Bristol Saturday night, returning here Sunday. It has been decided not to play in Lynchburg on this trip. If the show which the Troubadours staged in Lexington is any estimate the trip should be a huge success. The seniors of Sullins College have announced that they will give a dancant Saturday afternoon for the entertainment of the players while in Bristol. Another trip has been planned for the Troubadours in the near future, which will include Clifton Forge and Staunton.

White and Blue Weak With Willow When Hits Are Needed.

RICHMOND PLAYS WELL

Six Errors Are Tallied Against Generals—Off Form In Every Phase.

Richmond University defeated the Generals' nine yesterday afternoon on Wilson field by the score of 6-1. The White and Blue was very much off form and could not produce hits when they were needed.

The Spiders played a splendid brand of baseball and fully deserved their victory, hitting the ball hard and putting up a good fielding game. In addition they showed a knowledge of inside baseball, working a squeeze play in the ninth which gave them a run and a hit and run play in the fifth which produced another.

The Generals fielded very poorly making six costly errors. Lackey also was off form, allowing ten hits and walking five men. The walks and errors gave the visitors half of their runs.

Mattox was best at bat for the home team, getting two solid singles both of which were through the pitcher's box. In the field both Aylmer and Wilson played well.

Richmond University made their first run on a double and single in the first inning. They scored again in the third on a double and two errors. Their third run came in the fifth. Jones singled, and went to third when Mattox let Cook's grounder go through his legs. He scored as Cook was put out at second on

RING-TUM PHI BUSINESS STAFF ENDORSES CARRUTHERS

Local Circulation Manager Now—
Two Years' Experience On Staff.

At a meeting of the business staff of the Ring-tum Phi Tuesday night, A. B. Carruthers, '24C, was endorsed for business manager of that publication for the session 1923-24. "Bees" is not a novice at the managerial game by any means, having served for two years on the staff. During the present session he has held the responsible position of local circulation manager.

Carruthers' endorsement does not prevent other candidates from entering the field in the Student Body elections, April 27. However, members of the staff are in position to know the fitness of the various candidates, and by their endorsement recommend to the student voters the man who, in their opinion, is best fitted to manager next year's Ring-tum Phi.

The plan of endorsing candidates for positions on campus publications was inaugurated last session, and it is hoped will continue with good results.

The editorial staff will hold a meeting the latter part of this week to endorse one of their number for the position of Editor-in-Chief.

BLOW UP IN EIGHTH GIVES VIRGINIA GAME

Eight Consecutive Passes Given Opponents By W. & L. Twirlers.

FREW GETS FOUR HITS

Generals Ring Up Nineteen Hits—
Six Were Allowed Virginia.

The Generals lost their first game of the season last Monday afternoon at Charlottesville when the University of Virginia trimmed them, in what might be termed a give away, by the score of 12 to 14. W. & L. took the lead at the start and continued to hold it until the last half of the eighth inning when the team seemed to blow up. At this stage, four of the Blue twirlers issued eight passes in a row and forced seven runs across the plate, giving Virginia a lead of two runs, which she held until the end of the game. The Generals threatened their opponents again in the ninth when Switzer made his third hit of the game, but Holland had had a long rest during the eighth, and forced Mattox, McMillan, and Frew to pop flies.

"Student" Frew was the star of the game connecting for four hits out of six times at bat, making a single, double, triple and a home run. He also fielded well.

According to reports no such hitting has been witnessed at Lambeth Field in years. There were nineteen hits secured off Holland, Frew making four of them, McMillan contributing a three bagger, McDonald two doubles, and Aylmer, Wilson and Switzer connecting for one each. While on the other hand Virginia was only able to get six hits off McDonald. Of these, however, two were triples, one by Foster in the fifth when the bases were full and the other by Hubbard immediately after Holland had singled over second.

Neither team was up to the standard on its fielding, the players handling the ball with much nervous-

THE ELECTIONS

We may as well be frank about it
—some men on the campus do not believe in the efficacy of the non-politicking agreement signed last spring.

They do not think that politics at Washington and Lee can be purged of factionalism and prejudice and are suspicious of the motives of the advocates of the plan.

Every sensible man will heartily endorse the splendid purpose of the agreement—to establish as a basis of our campus politics individual fitness of candidates for office and unprejudiced voting by the several students.

It remains for the coming elections to vindicate the good faith of the candidates and their supporters.

The possible rub lies in the practical operation of the system, whether it is to be observed in spirit as well as in letter, for a thousand flagrant breaches threaten unless the spirit is caught and observed.

The agreement is signed by representatives of every element of the Student Body—non-fraternity as well as fraternity—and is republished
in this issue of the Ring-tum Phi.

If the Student Body is unanimously sincere in its desire for clean politics, the new plan will be magnificently successful and will be a permanent asset to our campus life.

But if even a small element is not wholeheartedly behind this sweeping reform in our system, the agreement will degenerate into a hollow mockery and farcical burlesque.

IT'S UP TO YOU!

RELIEVE THE CONGESTION

The custom of prescribing term papers as a major portion of the term's work seems to be growing among the professors, and with it comes an increasing congestion at the end of each term. Students feverishly search through reference books and encyclopedias, and pound
the typewriter in the wee small hours of the morning in a vain endeavor to strike off something in a short time which will remotely resemble the work of several weeks.

When a student has only one such manuscript to prepare, the result is not quite so confusing, but when he has as many as seven in one term, and all of these due the last week of school, the possible value for each is minimized.

Of course, he has had at least a month's time or more in which to prepare his papers, but there exists

in the mind of all humans an innate tendency to leave as much as possible for tomorrow. Matriculation in a University does not wholly eradicate this tendency. In the old days, the thought of approaching exams
was bad enough—but now with term papers added, the last few days of the term are a period of almost hopeless confusion.

Some professors have, and very wisely, too, assigned the term paper for the first part of the term rather than the last. This method has several advantages. The organization of material necessary in the preparation of such work forms an excellent background for the remainder of the term's work. Furthermore, the papers can be read with greater care, and such criticism as is made will be really valuable—and not merely passed by as "old stuff"—
which is the case when it is received after the term's grade has already been made up.

A more calm and peaceful state of mind on the campus at examination time is highly desirable. One step in that direction will be taken when the work of term papers is spread more evenly throughout the term.—Courtesy Oregon Daily Emerald.

HERE AND THERE

"Snake" Maben, '22, has been elected as one of the baseball coaches of Charleston High School for the coming season. "Snake" will be remembered as one of the twirlers of our Varsity for two seasons. This is his first attempt at coaching baseball but no doubt he will not have any trouble in turning out a winning team for the West Virginians.

S. I. N. A.

The University of Kentucky, after a victory over Notre Dame by the score of 5-3, succumbed to the attack of the Michigan baseball team
by the overwhelming score of 23-6.
This came as a big surprise to the Kentucky team's followers as they were confident that the Lexington boys would turn the Wolverines back with a loss. Gregg, State's star twirler, was knocked to all corners of the lot.

S. I. N. A.

City College of New York will open their baseball season this week, playing Columbia University on the latter's home grounds. The uptown school of New York has already engaged in one encounter with the New York Exchange outfit, and defeated them by a score of 11-6. This game has given Coach "Nat" Holman a chance to look over his boys before the Columbia game. Captain Axtell
will no doubt pitch the first game for the Lavender team. He is considered to be one of the best twirlers in the East.

S. I. N. A.

Centre College is expected to have one of the best baseball teams in the history of the school. Practices have been held for the last few weeks and the team is rounding into shape. In Cregor, Hicks, Holland, R. Snowday and Burbank, Centre has five good hurlers.

S. I. N. A.

Centre College has inaugurated a campaign for $55,000 for the purpose of building a new stadium in Danville. Coach Moran and "Red" Roberts, All-American end, are touring the state of Kentucky in the interest of this campaign. Already more than half of the required amount has been subscribed. All the Centre Alumni and many loyal supporters of Centre are contributing to this fund.

NO BELL RINGING UNLESS SPECIAL OCCASION

Decision Reached By Executive Committee—Election Returns Posted.

The Executive Committee announces that at the meeting held Monday night it was decided that the University bell shall not be rung except upon cases of extreme athletic importance. The Committee feels that in the last few months the promiscuous ringing of the bell has minimized its significance in connection with the big games, such as the Va.-W. & L. football game, and it is for this reason that the motion was passed.

The election of the Athletic Council, to be held Friday, will be engineered by the Executive Committee. Returns will be posted by 2:30 o'clock at The Corner and on the main bulletin board.

The Committee cannot stress too much the necessity of every student voting on the two amendments which will be submitted next Friday. These are:

President of Fancy Dress.

1. That the new office to be created be known as the President of Fancy Dress.

2. That this man shall be elected from and by the Student Body at the annual election in April.

3. That this office shall have charge of the affairs of the Easter period.

4. That he shall be the leader of the Fancy Dress Ball.

5. That he shall manage and direct or see that affairs are properly managed or directed. That the Business Manager of the Troubadours shall be the Business Manager of Fancy Dress.

6. That he shall turn into the Executive Committee of the Student Body a report concerning the financial conditions of the Fancy Dress Ball by May 15 of the year in which he is elected.

7. That the President of Fancy Dress shall try to reduce the cost of Fancy Dress as much as possible.

8. That the Troubadours be allowed to recommend not more than two men for this office, other recommendations coming from the Student Body at large. Any student is eligible.

9. That in case profit is realized from the Fancy Dress Ball, fifty per cent shall go to the Troubadours and fifty per cent to the Athletic Fund.

10. That the Troubadours shall be financially responsible for Fancy Dress.

Senior Commerce Class.

That the Senior Commerce Class be organized as the other Senior classes and receive representation in the Student Government.

SPLIT WITH VIRGINIA IN GAMES MEANS THIRD

If Washington and Lee defeats the University of Virginia nine in the game scheduled to be played here next Tuesday, a third game will be played on neutral grounds at a later date. A contract for this game has been definitely made by Graduate Manager "Dick" Smith.

The date of this contest has not been decided upon as yet but it is thought that it will be May 5. The location of the clash is also undetermined at present but will probably be either Roanoke or Lynchburg.

RACQUET WIELDERS GET FLYING START

Large Number of Candidates Out For Initial Practice—Courts Good.

The tennis team had its first outdoor workout of the season last Monday afternoon, there being a large number of candidates for the team present. The courts were in first class condition for the first practice due to the good weather which has occurred during last week.

The tryouts indulged in only a few sets each, being told to take only a light workout. The men out for the team showed very good form and from present indications it seems that Washington and Lee should be represented by a first class aggregation of racquet wielders. Nearly all of the members of last year's team are in school at present, and there is a great deal of good new material.

Tryouts are to continue for the next two weeks. After this, probably a cut will be made in the number of candidates.

GRAHAM-LEE RENDERS EXCELLENT PROGRAM SAT.

The Graham-Lee Literary society gave an excellent program last Saturday night, having as the principal number a debate on the question, "Resolved that the United States should enter the League of Nations."

The question is of immediate importance since it will probably be made an issue in the next presidential campaign. F. E. Pass and J. V. Penn on the affirmative side debated against C. P. Snyder and B. R. Rhett, who defended the negative. The judges decided unanimously in favor of the affirmative.

Amending Coue's maxim to suit the situation, and thus stating, "Every day in every way the United States is getting closer and closer connected with European affairs," J. V. Penn set forth the principal contention of the affirmative maintaining that the interest of the United States demanded membership in the League.

The next number was an extemporaneous speech by W. B. Williamson, who mentioned that the Society had two Phi Beta Kappa men in J. V. Penn and R. G. Wickersham, and urged a vote of congratulation. The program was concluded with a summary of the week's current events, given by G. B. Simmons.

RICHMOND SPIDERS TAKE EASY ONE FROM GENERALS TUESDAY BY 6-1 SCORE

Snead's grounder. The Spiders were retired by means of three double plays in the sixth, seventh and ninth innings, respectively.

In the sixth with a man on first and none out, the second batter hit into a double play, Lackey to Mattox to Aylmer. In the seventh "Bo" McMillan with the bases full caught a line drive and touched third base before Fray could get back. In the ninth the visitors scored three runs on two bases on balls, two singles and a well executed squeeze play. The last double play came following this when Walden grounded out to Aylmer, who after touching first threw A. Creath, coming in from third, out at the plate.

The Generals scored in their half of the ninth. Lovelace, batting for Aylmer, was safe on an error. Wilson singled. McDonald, batting for Lackey, made first on a fielder's choice, Lovelace being safe at third, however. Lovelace scored from here as McDonald was thrown out at second on Gwaltney's infield grounder. The game ended when Walden caught Switzer's hard drive to center.
