SUCCESSFUL SEASON ENDED

Generals Take Nine of Thirteen Games and Run Up 317 Points To Opponents 252.

Last Saturday night at Morgantown the Generals closed a very successful basketball season, winning nine of the thirteen games played, and piling up 317 points while their opponents secured 252. The particularly bright spot of the season was visible on the night of February 15th when the powerful unbeaten team from from Trinity was forced to accept the blue and white yoke of an eighteen point defeat, while a combined hoodoo and jinx was encountered in both games played with V. P. I.

The team started off slowly but even at that was fast enough to initiate the season with a 43-23 victory over the team from Roanoke. South Carolina was next but her excellent floor work failed to prevail against the superior shooting ability of Washington and Lee and her 33-11 defeat was the result. The third game of the season was rather ragged, Richmond University putting up a stiff opposition but finally bowing to a 21-16 defeat. The boys from Richmond were scrappy and determined and provided breath-taking thrills.

The Generals displayed their first real flash of form in the following game with Citadel. Although handicapped by the absence of Hines, the team put up an article of basketball that filled the gym with ceaseless cheering for several minutes after the 29-15 victory was won. In this game McDonald was shifted to center and the resultant combination worked very well. The first out-of-town trip was taken for the game with V. P. I. in Roanoke, that team securing the long end of a 25-9 victory. The inability of Washington and Lee to shoot fouls and the precise opposite on the part of V. P. I. made the first defeat of the season possible. The absence of Hines as a foul-shooting artist was keenly felt here.

WEST VA. DEFEATS W. & L. IN FINAL GAME

Mountaineers Administer 32 to 21 Defeat at Morgantown; Kiger for W. Va. and McDonald, for Generals Star.

The West Virginia Mountaineers defeated the Generals in the last game of the season last Saturday night at Morgantown by the score of 32 to 21. Both teams employed the five men defensive system of play, which slowed up the game considerably. As a result of this style of play most of the baskets were caged from a distance.

Undoubtedly the game would have been much closer had the Generals' running guard, Stephens, been able to participate.

For the Generals, McDonald was the outstanding star, putting in three goals from the field, and making seven out of twelve free shots. Cameron and Arbogast both did some superb guarding, and the work of the former shows a great deal of promise for the future.

Most of West Va.'s goals were shot from outside the foul line. Their forwards were closely guarded. Kiger, the Mountaineer center, played a great game. He scored four field goals from difficult angles. West Virginia's eleven point margin in the game was largely due to foul shots, the Morgantown team getting twelve out of twenty tries.

Shorty Hall, going in for Thomas, had his knee thrown out of place shortly after the substitution.

Line-up and summary:

West Va.—32	Pos	W. and L.
Martin (C)	F	Thomas
P. Hill	F	Harris
Kiger	C	McDonald
G. Hill	G	Arbogast (C)
Hawkins	G	Cameron

Field goals—W. Va.: Martin, 2; P. Hill, 2; Kiger, 4; G. Hill, 2. W. & L.: Thomas, 1; Harris, 2; McDonald, 3; Arbogast, 1.

Foul goals—Martin, 2 in 6; P. Hill, 10 in 14; McDonald, 7 in 12.

Score end of half—W. Va., 13; W. and L., 8.

Substitutions for W. & L.: Hines for Harris, Harris for Hines, Hall for Thomas, Thomas for Hall.

Georgetown and Hopkins Take First and Second Places In S. A. I. A. A.

The men representing W. & L. at the Hopkins-Fifth Regiment Indoor Meet in Baltimore Saturday night made a very good showing. W. & L. was represented in both the Open Handicaps and the South Atlantic events. In the latter Capt. Price and Mabry did especially good work.

Price won his preliminary heat and Mabry took second place in his, but in the finals LeGendre of Georgetown was first, Mabry getting second and Price third. Penn and Cobb both qualified in the preliminaries but were out-distanced in the finals of the 100 yd. dash.

Garard ran a very pretty race in the mile getting fourth place. In the handicap events Griffin took second place in the pole vault, a Ga. Tech man getting first. Williams won fourth place in the 440 yd. run as did Caldwell in the 880 yd. Both ran

Nationally Famous Evangelist With C. F. Myers and Homer Hammontree Arrive This Morning; First of Services Introduces Trotter and Party to Practically all Students and Faculty; Campaign to Continue Until Friday Night

The nationally known Grand Rapids Evangelist, Mel Trotter, who conducts a series of Evangelistic services on the campus the first four days of this month, arrived in Lexington on the C. & O. this morning, and immediately captured the interest of practically all the Students and Faculty Members in the opening address in the Chapel, speaking on the "Riches of the Followers of Christ."

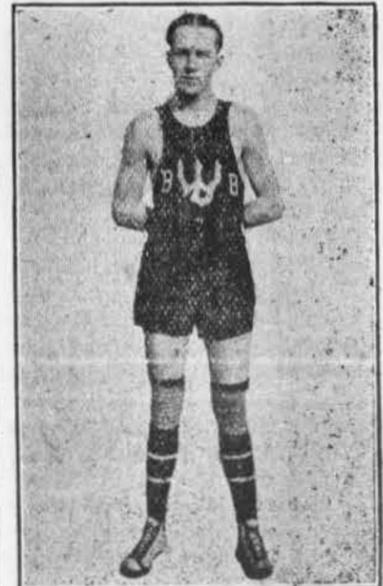

Mr. Trotter is accompanied by an alumnus of W. & L., C. F. Myers, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Greensboro, N. C., and Mr. Homer Hammontree, Director of Music, both of whom will assist with the services and in personal interviews.

The only way to get any idea of Mr. Trotter's appeal, genuine Christian faith, and red-blooded character is to hear him. He took his text from the last verses of the third chapter of First Corinthians; "For all things are yours, Whether Paul, or Apollos, or the world, or life or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's."

He said that formerly when the world used to rule him, nothing belonged to him, and that since he had become Christ's, all things are his, past, present, and future.

"There is no reason why the world should rule a man with red blood in his veins," Mr. Trotter emphasized. "Until ye are Christ's, nothing is yours."

The program for the services will be found on another page. Don't miss hearing the second one tonight.

DICK SMITH, '11

Appointed To Fill Newly-Created Office of Graduate Manager Next Year

DICK SMITH, '11, TO BE GRADUATE MANAGER OF ATHLETICS

Former Captain of Baseball
Now Athletic Coach
at F. M. S.

(The following sketch of W. & L.'s future Athletic Manager is taken from the "C. Q.", the Cadet Publication of Fishburne Military School).

Richard Andrew Smith was born in that historic part of Virginia which saw the brilliant and masterly strategy of Lee clash with the stubborn and indomitable Grant. When he was a boy he played on the ground over which marched the "foot-cavalry" of Stonewall Jackson.

He was born at Rixeyville, Culpeper County, Virginia, on the seventh of December, 1888. It is claimed that he was a handsome child, but no one contends that he has not now outgrown this handicap. While a boy Dick was busy most of the time, for, when he wasn't selling the farmers a plug of "Brown's Mule," he was ambling over to his brother's farm at Fauquier Springs, preparatory to a week or two of plowing. These activities took place when he was about four or five years old, evidence enough of his future energy and industry.

The second part of Dick Smith's career was staged on no less famous a place than Basis, Va., often alluded to by the extremely optimistic as Basis City.

Cadet Smith during his four years at Fishburne played on the baseball and football teams two years, and was selected by several authorities as the star shortstop among the preparatory schools of Virginia.

Having graduated at Fishburne, Dick Smith, with the two Ebird boys and Harry Moran, journeyed to Lexington and matriculated at Washington and Lee University. Here Smith remained three years, during which time he was prominent in all branches of athletics, and in 1911 was made Captain of the nine.

He became a member of the Sigma Nu Fraternity, and several Ribbon Societies. He took a high stand in his academic work and was deservedly one of the most popular men in the University.

Since leaving Washington and Lee, Capt. Smith has been an instructor in Mathematics and Athletic Coach at Fishburne Military School. He was assistant coach at Fishburne from 1913 to 1915, and since then has been head Coach.

Capt. Smith has turned out many championship teams for Fishburne, and during the five season of baseball prior to the last, eighty-six games were played, resulting in eighty-two victories, three lost and one tied.

In 1915 the subject of this sketch was married to Miss Champ Carter Thompson of Culpeper, Va., and Capt. and Mrs. Smith are the proud parents of one Richard, Jr., aged one year, and the future champion second baseman of the world.

Now F. M. S. is to lose Capt. Smith, for he has accepted the position of Graduate Manager of Athletics at Washington and Lee University. This position is one of great responsibility and an honor deservedly conferred on one of the University's greatest athletes.

ROANOKE AND ELIZABETH COLLEGES ENTERTAIN STATE S. V. ASSOCIATION

Four W. & L. Men Attend; Unusually Powerful Speakers

With delegates from over thirty-nine institutions and a group of speakers unusual power, the Virginia Student Volunteer Convention held at Salem from the 18th through the 20th was a complete success. Washington and Lee was represented by: M. W. Parse, S. H. St. Clair, C. A. Tutwiler and F. P. Morris. Probably one-fourth of the delegates were not themselves Volunteers. The Convention was held under the auspices of Roanoke and Elizabeth Colleges, which with the townspeople, did everything in their power to accord the delegates a warm welcome.

The speakers included two national officers of the S. V. Movement, Mr. R. P. Wilder, General Secretary and Miss H. B. Crane, Education Sec'y; also Dr. J. H. French, President of Emory and Henry; Dean O. E. Brown of Vanderbilt; Mr. and Mrs. Madison, missionaries to India; and Miss Parker of Korea.

Among the student speakers was C. H. Patterson who will be remembered as an outstanding leader at W. & L. when he took his B. A. in '19. Two young men from Brazil and Japan, respectively, who are students in this country, told about the needs of their own lands to which they expect to return. J. B. Glick of Bridgewater and Miss Cox of R. M. W. C. gave the college students' point of view of this great world problem.

Mr. and Mrs. Madison have had some very unique experiences, the telling of which proved most helpful. Dr. French spoke on the "Call of Foreign Missions" and Miss Crane on the "Value of a Purpose." Dr. Brown addressed the Convention on "What is God's Will for Me" and "Why I Should Volunteer," touching on some of the excuses given for not volunteering. Mr. Wilder gave the history of the growth of the Student Volunteer Movement and a very inspiring answer to the question "Why Pray?" During the meetings a reception was tendered the visitors in the college gymnasium.

The Convention next year will probably be held either at Lynchburg College or the University of Virginia.

The officers of the State Association for the coming year are: Mr. Mayhew, Lynchburg College, President; Mr. Knight, U. Va., Vice-President; Miss Sikkelee, Blackstone, Secretary; Mr. Lefew, Roanoke College, Treasurer.

Young Surgeon: I hope the operation meets with your approval, Doctor.

Head Surgeon: Yes, it was well done except for one slight mistake.

Y. S.: What was that?

H. S.: You cut off the wrong leg. That was all.

NOTICE TO OUT-OF-TOWN SUBSCRIBERS

A special issue of the Ring-tum Phi devoted to the Evangelistic Campaign and to the speakers who come to the campus today was published last Friday and sent to every student in the University. Any alumnus or out-of-town subscriber who desires a copy may secure one as long as they last by dropping a card to E. B. Shultz, Secretary, or to the Business Manager of the Ring-tum Phi.

WELCOME, MR. TROTTER

The Ring-tum Phi welcomes you to the campus, Mr. Trotter, and all those associated with you in your few days with us. You come to a Southern institution of learning that has been in need of a man of your type for a long time. May your stay with us be the means of turning many W. & L. men to Christ, and may you in the hurry and strain of the Campaign not fail to get all the benefits and advantages that the historic atmosphere of Lexington has to offer.

The campus admires fighters, and men who have come back. It does not always live up to its ideals, but it seldom pretends to be anything it is not. You will find us fair-minded, and open to conviction. We pride ourselves on being typical Southern students, and you may be assured that you will be accorded the courtesy for which the Southern gentleman is noted.

CARELESSNESS

Yes, this is intended for you if it is your habit to throw cigarette butts just where you finish smoking them, without taking the trouble to see if they are alive or dubs. Last week some one carelessly dropped a lighted cigarette in a pile of rubbish on the bottom floor of the Washington building. By the grace of the Goddess of Luck the conflagration was discovered in time to avert a serious blaze.

A statement of absolute fact follows: If the time-honored and treasured Washington Building once got started burning in earnest, all the Lexington Fire Department with all the Bucket Brigades that could be organized could not save it. The dry timbers of this historic building would go like one of McCrums' eight cent Havanas. We shudder to think of the fate of the occupants of Dr. Smith's Math Room and Mr. Brown's combination Lecture Hall if the stairway were wrapped in flames.

Think this over when you drop your snipes around promiscuously, Fellow Student.

AN APPRECIATION

The Basketball Season is gone but not forgotten. Aside from the interest attached to the nine games played on the home floor, the most most pleasurable feature of the season was the music furnished by Tex Shelton's Orchestra of six pieces. Their playing before games, between halves, and the rendering of the Swing during the games were entirely voluntary.

The spirit shown by these men who gladly do their best to increase the pep at the winter games, and add greatly to the enjoyment of the contests, is to be commended. We feel sure we are voicing the feeling of the entire Student Body when we say to each of these men, "We thank you."

GREATEST OPPORTUNITY OF CAMPAIGN

The Evangelistic Services which start today are not the only opportunity for you to come in contact with the speakers and leaders who are giving this week to W. & L. The greatest opportunity of the campaign is the privilege of meeting the leaders personally. A committee has been appointed with Bill Stephens as Chairman to arrange interviews for all who desire them.

The schedules for these interviews will undoubtedly be full by the last two days, so be sure to make yours as soon as the opportunity is given.

COMMUNICATION TO THE STUDENT BODY

It has been reported to the committee in charge of the Clovis Moomaw Memorial Fund that various persons have criticized the using of Mr. Moomaw's name in this connection on the ground that it was merely for the purpose of aiding in the raising of funds for a cause with which he had no association.

The committee wishes to state that in May, 1914, Mr. Moomaw, then a professor in the Washington and Lee Law School, called together in his room four students, one of whom, Ted Shultz, is still on the campus, and proposed to them that a fund be raised to aid in sending C. S. Osborne, Washington and Lee, '09, to India in Y. M. C. A. mission work.

This conference resulted in the raising of $983.00 for this purpose. As Mr. Osborne was unable to go after having planned to do so, this fund was donated with the consent of the contributors to other Y. M. C. A. work in the same field. Such was the beginning of the fund which has been continued as a memorial to Mr. Moomaw's life and service at this school.

It may be added that the committee is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Moomaw's brother, Dr. Ben C. Moomaw of Roanoke, heartily endorsing the fund and stating that Dr. Moomaw considers it "a most fitting monument" to his brother's memory.

The committee will make a final report of the raising of the fund for this year as soon as a number of the outstanding pledges have been collected. It will greatly assist in this collection if those who have promised subscriptions will hand the amount to Dah Blain, Manager of this year's campaign, or to the undersigned.

L. BERKELEY COX, Chairman.

SCRUBS DEFEATED

The Varsity Scrub Basketball Team was defeated by V. P. I.'s Scrub Team last Friday night in Blacksburg by the score of fifty to ten.

The ten points of the W. & L. quint were scored by "Toad" Snively.

The men playing in the game for Washington and Lee were Minnich, Snively, Stevens, Sturm and Yancey.

Al Pierroti arrived on the campus yesterday for a few days' visit before leaving for Galveston, Texas, where the baseball club he is with, the Boston Braves, go into spring training.

FRESHMEN SWIMMERS DEFEAT A. M. A. 34-33

In a fast and thrilling meet held in the W. & L. tank Thursday night, Feb. 24, the W. & L. Freshman Swimming Team defeated Augusta Military Academy by a 34 to 33 score.

With the first three events which A. M. A. won easily it looked as if it was going to be something of a walk-away for them, but the Freshmen soon began to show form. In the next three events, the Breast Stroke, the Back Stroke, and Diving, the Freshmen came back with a rush and the results of these favored W. & L. very largely. The superb diving of Hock for W. & L. was easily the feature of the whole meet. In the "100" also first and second place went to the W. & L. team.

With the end of the hundred yard swim and only one more event scheduled the score stood 30 to 28 in favor of A. M. A. The Freshmen had only one man entered in the last event, the "220", making it impossible for them to win. At the last moment Jenkins was also entered and got third place when one of the A. M. A. swimmers was disqualified for not touching the end of the pool with his hand. This one point decided the meet in favor of the Freshmen.

The results of the meet were as follows:

25 yard relay; won by Tanner, Harryman, Majie and Lynn for A. M. A. in 54 3-5 seconds.

Plunge for distance: Dwyer, A. M. A., first, 45 feet; Eldon, A. M. A., 44 feet, second; and Wiggins, W. & L., third, 43 feet.

50 yard: Majie, A. M. A., first; Lynn, A. M. A., second, and Hartridge, W. & L., third; Time: 30 3-5 seconds.

The Breast Stroke: 50 yards, Drought, W. & L. first; Cole, W. & L., second; Bauman, A. M. A., third; time: 39 3-5 seconds.

The Back Stroke: 50 yards, McCarthy; W. & L., first; Harryman, A. M. A., second; and Tanner, A. M. A., third; time: 37 3-5 seconds.

Diving: Hock of W. & L. first with 80 points and Majie of A. M. A. second with 56.7 points.

The 100 yard: Merke, W. & L. first; Jenkins, W. & L. second; and Marston, A. M. A., third; time: 73 4-5 seconds.

220 yards: Hartridge, W. & L., first; Harryman, A. M. A., second; and Jenkins, W. & L., third.

Total points: W. & L. Freshmen, 34; A. M. A., 33.

MISS MAGGIE GRAHAM

A great loss to Lexington and to the Students of the University occurred last Friday night in the death of Miss Maggie Graham, sister of Mr. E. L. Graham, President of the Alumni Association of the University. Some of her relatives and ancestors have been connected with Washington and Lee in an official capacity, and her friends among the Student Body are numbered by the score.

The funeral services were held at her home on Sunday afternoon.

ARMY WRESTLERS WIN MEET FROM BRETT'S MATMEN

W. & L. Loses at West Point by 19 to 6 Count; Two Decisions To Southerners

Meeting some of the finest athletes in the country, the Washington and Lee Wrestling Team lost to the Army last Saturday night at West Point, N. Y., after winning two decisions, the final score being 19 to 6, in favor of the Cadets.

In the first bout, in the 115 class, McGill was thrown after 2 minutes and 50 seconds of wrestling. He had the head scissors on the West Point man who broke it and got the head lock.

Cothran's bout in the 125 lb. class was very interesting and he was thrown in the last minute of the overtime period.

Sutherland, 135 lb. class, put up a fine exhibition of wrestling and won his bout on a decision.

Hampton, in the 145 lb. class, who was doomed to be thrown within 2 minutes time, escaped being thrown by his excellent bridge work, finally losing the decision. Hampton probably wrestled West Point's best man. Asbury, 175 lb class, fell even. It

FINALS' PLEDGES WILL BE COLLECTED NEXT WEEK

Plans For Final Week To Correspond to Amount Received

Collection of the money which was recently pledged for Finals will be postponed until the first part of next week on account of Trotter's Campaign the first week of this month, according to S. L. Raines, President of Finals.

The Executive Committee of Finals will conduct the canvass for redemption of pledges. This committee is composed of representative men of the student body, and is entrusted with important duties. Upon their success or failure to carry out these duties depends the success or failure of the Finals of '21, and the insuring of a brilliant closing week should be the concern both of men who stay and enjoy this year's festivities and of those who will do likewise at other times in the future.

No contracts will be signed until the approximate amount of cash is known definitely and the size of this year's Finals will depend upon the amount paid in during the week beginning March 6. For the benefit of those unfamiliar with this University institution, it might be said that this campaign will offer the only chance of contributing, and that no further requests will be made after the coming campaign. Everything given under the auspices of Finals is free, and there will be no unexpected "gate receipts."

It is certain that everyone wants Washington and Lee to stage a Finals worthy of her traditions, and one that all will be proud of, but a great deal of money is required to carry out any large undertaking, and the providing of a solid week of genuine entertainment is no small matter. The expenses of the Fancy Dress Ball alone show what must be raised, in proportion, to meet necessary expenses.

The plans are big, tentatively, but if necessary they will be cut down to the level of money received.

The following men compose the Executive Committee of Finals and will see all students who have pledged their support:

W. B. Webb, chairman, J. L. Patterson, vice-chairman; Garland Alexander, N. C. Allen, R. M. Barker, A. M. Bernstein, W. O. Burtner, W. T. Caldwell, D. E. Carter, F. C. Currie, D. B. Dawson, J. W. Gifts to Colleges

The Rockefeller Foundation has donated a million dollars apiece to McGill and Toronto Universities to be used for the purpose of medical education in Canada. A grant of $700,000 is to be made to the Municipal University of Cincinnati provided the university itself raise $400,000.

Navy

The announcement of the Naval Academy some time ago that it is willing to adopt the usual college eligibility rules, if requested by its opponents, was put in force last week when all first-year men were dropped out in the swimming match against Princeton. The Navy has also taken the attitude of willingness to conform to the rules of any body governing a branch of sport to which it is admitted.

Wisconsin

Five women students are learning automobile mechanics in the Engineering Shops of the University.

Ohio

A new course which is expected to be very popular has been included in that of the college curriculum, namely, football science. The teacher is Mr. Wilce, the football coach, and it is reported that a large number of students have already enrolled in the class.

Kansas

Kansas leads in the number of students in their own State University in proportion to the population of the state. For every 10,000 inhabitants in the state, there are the following number of students in the respective state universities: Kansas, 27; Michigan, 24; Minnesota, 22; Iowa, 21; Nebraska, 21; Wisconsin, 19; Indiana, 15; Oklahoma, 10; Illinois, 8, and Missouri, 8.

William and Mary

The college has secured the services of Eppa Rixey, former student at the University of Virginia and now with the Cincinnati Reds, as coach for the battery men of the Varsity nine.

Trinity

The regular yearly election to Phi Beta Kappa was held last week at which time five undergraduates and several alumni were honored. The annual initiation will be held at the end of March.

Tulane

A contest to determine the couples that are the best dancers on the campus has been in progress for a week, the proceeds of all the dances being sent to the European Student's Relief Fund. The preliminaries are being held in each class to decide upon the best and second-best couples who will contest in the finals.

CARELESS STUDENT CAUSES NEAR FIRE

A commotion resulted last Thursday morning from a blaze that was discovered in the lower hall of the Main Building. The student who made the discovery turned in a call to the Lexington Fire Department, which quickly responded, only to find that the blaze had been extinguished earlier by the application of a pint of water.

Some careless student had thrown a lighted cigarette butt behind one of the radiators into a pile of paper, and the blaze resulted. Luckily no damage was done.

By far the best team that the Generals had encountered up until that time, had to fight desperately to nose out a 29-25 victory, in one of the best games ever seen on the local floor. It was anybody's game until the last half minute of play. Davidson then came up from the Tar Heel State with determination to repeat. Washington and Lee played stellar basketball and eventually triumphed 31-28.

On the Maryland invasion, Johns Hopkins fell victim to the onslaught of the Generals and was extremely fortunate to roll up 23 points against the Virginia quint's 29. St. Johns came to Lexington for the next and the slow game with Trinity which followed has already been mentioned. This hitherto invincible team followed glowing press reports but the Generals launched a perfect attack and built up an almost impregnable defense. The quint from North Carolina was hopelessly outclassed and bewildered by the superb basketball of their opponents. This was the game in which Bill Stephens came into his own and provided thrill after thrill by his manipulation and mastery of the inflated sphere.

Another North Carolina team, Wake Forest, provided little opposition for the Generals. They took part in a rough game and with the score 25-14 against them, their Coach called his team from the floor. The final two games of the season were played away from home and resulted in defeats. W. P. I. faced a team determined to win, but secured two baskets in the last few minutes of play that gave them the lead and the game. West Virginia took the last game last Saturday night, 32-21.

The varsity was composed of Hines, who became ill at the start of the season and was incapacitated for the remainder; Bill Stephens, acting captain and sensational guard, McDonald, the rangy Arkansan, who starred in many of the games at his new position of center, Thomas, the plucky little forward of accurate aim, Harris, Thomas' highly capable running mate and a wizard on making difficult field goals, and Arbogast, the burley guard who was a veritable mountain of defense as well as a goal shooter of considerable ability. Stewart, Hall, Snively, Yancey, Cameron, Minnich, and Bill Stevens were members of a highly efficient squad ever ready to step in and capably substitute for any of the first string five.

"BOOTLICKING" DISCUSSED AT MEETING OF "Y" PROMOTION FORCE

Professors Farrar and Cox Give Helpful Talks

"Bootlicking" was the subject of talks made by Professors Farrar and Cox at last week's meeting of the Y.M.C.A. Promotion Force, held Thursday night. The program was entirely in the hands of the Faculty, and the arrangement proved to be pleasing to all present.

The devotional part of the service was conducted by Prof. R. N. Latture. Dr. T. J. Farrar made the first of the talks on Bootlicking. He said that so far as he knew there was no such thing at Washington and Lee, and that he believed that any student had the right to approach any professor on the campus on any subject on which he desired advice. It was his opinion that he spoke for the majority of the faculty when he said that he was more than glad to have the opportunity to helping students at any time with problems. Dr. Farrar emphasized the fact that it is the place of the student to go to the professor for advice, and not the professor to come to the student asking to be of service.

Prof. L. B. Cox, who followed Dr. Farrar, told of the probable difficulty of a student approaching a professor seeking help, because his fellow students might think he was bootlicking, and explained how such a difficulty might be overcome.

ANNUAL CELEBRATION OF SQUARE AND COMPASS

The Washington and Lee Square of the Square and Compass Masonic Fraternity held its annual celebration in the Phi Delta Theta Rooms on the night of February 22, Washington's Birthday. Arrangements for the celebration were in the hands of Dr. T. J. Farrar, National President of the Square and Compass, C. E. Jewett, and G. M. Wiltshire.

The program which was reported as being excellent was as follows:

Ten minute talk, short stories and jokes, by W. M. Tuck; ten minute talk by John G. Anderson; Musical selections by A. B. Taylor; Readings by J. W. Dupree; and a short talk by E. B. Shultz.

The officers of the local square are as follows: G. T. Holbrook, President; Lewis Tyree, Vice-President; W. V. Ross, Secretary; G. M. Wiltshire, Treasurer; and C. E. Jewett, Tiler.

ARMY DEFEATS WRESTLERS

was an overtime bout and he lost by seconds.

Potts, recently elected Captain of the team, went up against a former all-American football center. This was a very exciting bout, both men barely escaping being thrown time and again, but Potts had the decided advantage throughout and won the decision.

The team reports a good time on the trip. The Cadets were very hospitable, there was a large attendance at the meet, and last, but by far not the least in the estimation of the members of the team, was a most enjoyable dance which followed the match.

VICTORY MEDALS GIVEN OUT TILL MAR. 11TH

Every student who served in the United States Army, Navy or Marines during the World War is entitled to the Victory Medal,—testimonial of a grateful nation for his assistance in crushing the German world ambition. A representative of the United States army came to Lexington today to distribute these medals, and will remain until March 11. He has authority to issue a medal to anyone presenting an honorable discharge for his inspection.

Offices for the distribution of Victory Medals are in the Red Cross rooms, second floor of the Rockbridge National Bank building. Tomorrow, Thursday and Friday afternoon from three to five the army official will be in the Y. M. C. A. room especially to give out medals to the students of Washington and Lee.

Any man who is entitled to a Victory Medal and who has not yet received it should write or telegraph home at once for his honorable discharge, or papers releasing him from active service. These must be shown to the official before a medal can be issued.

A poster on the main bulletin board displays a picture of the Victory Medal, a handsome bronze medal suspended by the inter-allied victory ribbon. Each allied power has prepared a similar testimonial to be issued to every soldier who served on the victors' side in the Great war.
