West Virginia Able To Make But One Touchdown.

(Special to the Ring-tum Phi.)
Morgantown, W. Va., Oct. 15.—“Fats” Spears’ Mountaineers had anything but an easy time with the Ohio University eleven here this afternoon, barely nosing them out by a single touchdown, in a game that was featured by the individual playing of George Hill, West Virginia fullback.

In the first quarter after West Virginia secured possession of the ball, on the second play Hill sprinted forty-seven yards to a touchdown—the only score of the afternoon. Hill, as was the case last Saturday against Pittsburgh, monopolized the spotlight by his great all ‘round playing. He took Loomis’ kickoff at the beginning of the second half and dashed sixty-five yards through the whole Ohio eleven, only to drop the ball when Loomis cut across the field and made a wild dive at him.

Hill fumbled the ball and Ohio recovered. These two spectacular dashes and a steady drive of sixty-three yards by West Virginia to the Ohio two-yard mark, were the only features of an otherwise sluggish encounter. The long drive was marked by rushes into the line and two forward passes, but Nardaccai fumbled when West Virginia had first down on the Ohio two-yard line and the score was averted.

SPIRIT BEHIND TEAM 100 PROOF

Generals Made Fighting Speeches; Great Send-Off.

Displaying the real W. and L. spirit by backing the Fighting Generals to the utmost, the Washington and Lee Student Body turned out almost 100 per cent strong Thursday to give the team a rousing send-off before they hit the trail to “get” Rutgers.

At the rally held on Wilson Field during the afternoon a brand of enthusiasm was exhibited which plainly indicated that the students confidently believed the team would bring back a victory from their Northern trip. The short speeches of the individual players, which were full of fighting spirit, brought continued rounds of applause from the students. “Gentlemen,” said Captain Lindsey Moore, “I am not so cock-sure of winning this game as I was a few days ago, but I can tell you fellows one thing: there’s going to be somebody beaten at New Brunswick Saturday and that ‘somebody’ is not going to be us.”

Coach Raftery compared the Fighting Generals with the team which he saw in action last Saturday, and although the Rutgers aggregation has W. and L. outweighed, he declared that “Washington and Lee has the best team, and I can assure you that the best team is going to win.”

Chilled by the cold breeze, but warmed by enthusiasm, the crowd that gathered at the station later in the evening to see the Generals leave were alternately singing the Swing, giving yells, and as a parting word to the team as the train pulled out, yelled:

“GO GET ‘EM GENERALS!”

GENERALS LOSE TO RUTGERS IN LAST QUARTER

Lone Point From Kicked Goal Is Slim Margin For Scarlet; Mattox Scores First In Second Quarter.

BOTH TEAMS SCORE BY AERIAL ATTACK --CAPT. MOORE STARS

Game Is Spectacular and Generals Fight To Final Whistle.

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 15.—After holding Rutgers scoreless the final period of play here today, meanwhile scoring a total of thirteen points for themselves, Washington and Lee University’s Fighting Generals were barely defeated by a score of 14 to 13 in the fourth quarter of the game when Rutgers crossed the Southerners’ line twice, beating them by a lone point only by the merest of chance.

Today’s game was perhaps one of the most spectacular ever played on the local gridiron. The visitors displayed a fighting aggressiveness, coupled with a beautiful aerial attack, which served to completely baffle the Scarlet until the last quarter of the contest. Mattox’s long heaves of the pigskin oval to Tucker and Thomas were directly responsible for both W. and L.’s touchdowns, Mattox plunging across after a triple pass had netted 45 yards. Thomas snatched another long one from Mattox for the General’s second score.

First quarter scoreless; W. and L. scored thru an aerial attack. Second quarter, Terrell fumbled ball, W. and L. recovered. After losing five yds., Mattox heaved the ball to Thomas for twenty-five yard gain and scored touchdown. Frew missed goal.

With ball in mid-field, a triple pass, Frew to Mattox to Tucker gained 45 yards. The ball was on the one yard line. After three attempts Mattox scored a touchdown. Frew kicked the goal.

At the beginning of the last quarter, Rutgers staged a comeback. A forward pass, Raymond to Maloney, netted five yards. Another pass, Raymond to Dickerson advanced forty-five yards. Another pass was incomplete. Benkert gained twenty yards

FOOTBALL FANS FLOODING TOWN

Five Special Trains Concentrate Spectators From All Over the South.

With 6,000 visitors and alumni swarming over the campus and streets, today has been one of the greatest for real sport in the history of Lexington.

With two special trains from Charlottesville loaded with a solid thousand backers of University of Virginia, one each from Lynchburg, Roanoke and Richmond bringing in a proportionate number of V. M. I. and U. Va. alumni, the spirit of both institutions seems to have reached its highest pitch.

The gala day was started with a game at Wilson Field, between Shen-

VIRGINIA TRIUMPHS OVER KEYDET RIVALS

Oppleman Performs Brilliantly for Victors; 6,000 See Game.

Six thousand wildly cheering fans saw the University of Virginia eleven turn back the Flying Squadron from V. M. I. with the unsatisfactory end of a 14 to 7 result here this afternoon, thus settling the score of her defeat at the hands of the same opponents last year. The first gridiron classic of the Southern season was crammed with sensation and thrill enough for several ordinary combats and was bitterly though cleanly contested.

“Izzy” Oppleman was perhaps the brightest scintillant of the afternoon, the brilliant Virginia back gaining spectacularly and consistently and scoring the tying touchdown for the Victors. Witt, Davis, Michie and Rinehart also shone. For the Institute, Farley excelled, while Bunting and Summers fought superbly.

The Cadets received the first break of the game when Witt fumbled a long and could not recover in time to prevent the fast-flying Hunt to scoop up the oval and race 15 yds. for the initial score. The Orange and Blue tied it up in the next quarter largely through the individual efforts of Oppleman. The third quarter was a desperate battle to a standstill but the last saw the entry of many Virginia subs who at once rushed the ball within striking distance and then pushed it over. The visitors immediately proceeded to bring the ball back to the 1 foot line but the Squadron line held and the

V. E. S. DEFEATS SHENANDOAH VAL.

Episcopal School Goal Line Not Crossed This Season; Score 14 To 0.

Virginia Episcopal School defeated the Shenandoah Valley Academy 14 to 0 in a rather ragged game on Wilson Field this morning.

V. E. S. had a slight edge on S. V. A. in weight and in the ability to advance the ball. The game was marred by fumbles and penalties on both sides. The first touchdown was made in the first quarter after a spectacular run by Loth and a pass to Frazier. Loth bucked the ball over. Buckner kicked goal.

The second touchdown was the result of a fumble by S. V. A. Captain Lee picked up the ball and ran 20 yards for the tally. Buckner kicked goal. V. E. S. came near scoring in the second quarter when they carried the ball to the 1 yard line, but lost the pigskin on downs when they attempted a forward pass.

Though slightly outclassed, S. V. A. fought hard, especially during the last half, after the second touchdown had been made by their opponents, and they continued to display a superior brand of ball through the rest of the game. Loth, Lee (Capt.), and Frazier starred for V. E. S., while Yates, McCauley and Rowe (Capt.) played brilliantly for Shenandoah.

The line-up follows:

V. E. S.	Position.	S. V. A.
Braxton	l. e.	Smith
Maddux	l. t.	Dickenson
Hitchcock	l. g.	Rowe (Capt.)
Buckner	c.	Arthur

Frazier	r. e.	Yates
Payne	q.	Riley
Terry	r. h.	Miller
Loth	l. h.	McCauley
Lee (Capt.)	f. b.	Schalcks

Officials—Referee, Schultz. Umpire, Silverstein. Head linesman, Brett.

Substitutions—V. E. S.: Barbour for Braxton, Meade for Barbour, Elliot for Buckner. S. V. A.—Schultz for Triplet Triplet for Schultz.

The following alumni are in town for the Va.-V. M. I. game and are staying at the Delta Tau Delta house: Jimmie Caskie, Lynch Christian, Tom Kirkpatrick, Bob Winbourn, Roger Winbourn, Kemp Ford, W. H. Wamsley, Jack Newton, and R. D. Ramsey.

FRESH FIND PACE TO VICTORY AT ROANOKE

Defeat Heavy Team 14-0; Salmon Speeds To Touchdown On Kick-off.

Finally hitting their real stride the Freshmen yesterday applied the whitewash to Roanoke High School’s strong eleven to the tune of 14-0, clashing in Roanoke in a fast and hard but cleanly played game.

Though the Roanoke crowd outweighed the first year men by a good many pounds with a team that is far above the average in weight for a prep school team and rates as one of the best, if not the best high school in the state, the yearlings rose to the occasion and displayed real class on both offensive and defensive.

They began with a rush and knocked the home team off their feet from the start when Salmon got away for a beautiful seventy-five yard run to the goal posts from the kick-off. From then on the game was hard fought, both teams about equalling in first downs made, but the long gains by Salmon around the ends and Taliaferro tearing through the line began to count up. It was a fight to a standstill, however, until the final quarter, when the ‘25 men got another start and after a series of powerful line-bucks and long end runs Taliaferro took the oval over for the second touchdown.

PRAYING COLONELS DEFEAT CATHOLICS

Straight Football Used Thru-out; McMillan and Bartlett Starred.

(Special to the Ring-tum Phi.)
Cincinnati, O., Oct. 15.—Centre defeated St. Xavier here today 28-6, using only straight football.

St. Xavier scored their lone touchdown in the first half on a recovered fumble and Centre immediately retaliated with another score. The first half ended with the 7-6 in Centre’s favor.

The “Praying Colonels” opened up in the last quarter and made three touchdowns on the brilliant broken field running of McMillan and Bartlett.

The playing of McMillan and Bartlett featured the game.

Little Cadets Make Good Fight; Governor Stars for A. M. A. Eleven; Fumbles Frequent.

Fighting against heavy odds, the diminutive cadets from Augusta Military Academy suffered a 12-0 defeat at the hands of the V. M. I. Reserves here today on Alumni Field. Many fumbles marred an otherwise interesting game. There were no outstanding features of the game unless the playing of Governor for Augusta and Saunders of V. M. I. be mentioned.

At all times the V. M. I. eleven seemed to lack the necessary punch to put the ball over the goal line, although threatening the A. M. A.

YOU CAN'T BEAT A SPIRIT!

One of the best teams of real men
south of the Mason-Dixon Line, (which is equivalent for anywhere), climbed aboard the C. & O. train Thursday night bound for New Brunswick.

That team played the sport of kings this afternoon on Neilson Field, with all the power that men of iron brawn and steely sinew can summon to battle for Alma Mater.

We are satisfied to know that they left here to give all they had for Washington and Lee, and we know further that they did. Their departure was a magnificent and moving scene. It was the best demonstration of W. & L. spirit seen in many a day. Not hilarious, not foolishly overconfident, but unquestionably and proudly loyal to the nth degree and last ditch of fighting was the Student Body on that occasion, bidding godspeed to brothers-in-arms.

Nobody kidded himself as to the outcome, but faced the test with a sane head, a set jaw, and an unshakable faith in that team.

We still have that faith, and the same spirit will welcome the Generals back to Lexington and accompany them in every game.

No team can fail with that spirit backing them. It rang in the ears of every one of them on the kick-off, and made them see red when the ball came into our territory.

But flesh and blood have their meagre limits, and the best of men cannot be superhuman.

Our conclusion is—sometimes, and then, we consider, by a lucky train of accidents or by phenomenal football, you may beat that team—but always,
you can't touch that spirit!

EVER FORWARD

The action of the various classes and clubs in approving the proposed plan for Student Body control of the Dances presents two noteworthy aspects: (1) Washington and Lee will lead in the movement for sane regulation of dances, and (2) it will do so as a matter of self-government.

The first is not especially remarkable, for Washington and Lee has ever been a leader, not a follower;
but the second is of vital importance to the campus. It means that the Executive Committee, Cotillion Club,
and others who presented this plan, had faith that the Student Body was willing to accept the privileges and responsibilities of self-government, and that their faith was justified.
Heretofore, the Student Body thru their Executive Committee, has had charge of the regulation of the Honor System which although fundamental, does not extend to all phases of student life.

Now the Student Body is to attempt real self-government by taking over the regulation of those phases of campus life which lie outside of the Honor System, and the first of which is the dances.

M. Barker is attending the V. P.
I. dances.

Will Be Back Next Year From Leave of Absence.

Dr. J. W. H. Pollard, Professor of Hygiene and Physical Education, is on a year's leave of absence and is now Chief Health Officer in Quincy, Ill.

Last year the State of Illinois passed regulations enabling each city of the state to organize a complete health department. Quincy was the first city to establish such a new health department and called upon Dr. Pollard to supervise the work for one year.

He has the co-operation of the leading citizens of Quincy and his ability to handle this work has already been shown. He was recently elected a member of the Rotary Club there. He will be back again next year to resume his position as head of the Department of Physical Education here.

"INDIAN EVANGELIST" IS DOING GREAT WORK

Meetings End Tomorrow Night; Dr. Wright Has Interesting History.

In the meetings conducted by Dr. Allen Wright, which began October 2 in the Presbyterian Church and will conclude tomorrow night, there has been a great attendance at every meeting accompanied by a number of reconsecrations and confessions of Christ.

The name Dr. Allen Wright was given to the evangelist by a missionary, his real name being Killhot, which means "To go and conquer." His mother was Harriet Nuel Mitchell, a Choctaw missionary from Dayton, Ohio. Dr. Wright's father was a graduate of Union College, Schenectady, New York, and of Union Seminary, New York City. Thirty years afterwards Allen Wright, Jr., followed in his father's footsteps and graduated from both Union College and Union Seminary. Dr. Wright was born at Boggy Depot, Indian Territory, and after his college career, he felt the call of evangelistic work and for five years was a missionary to his own people. Then he was called by the Executive Committee of the Reform Church, New York City, to be a missionary to the Blanket Indians of Oklahoma, where he lived in tents six months out of the year for six years pioneering them in the evangelistic work.

The sermon for Sunday, which will mark the close of the meetings, will be on the "Duty of Confessing Christ." An unusually large crowd is expected at the last meeting.

The line held well against the heavier team, and every man in the line-up exhibited speed and nerve. Two new additions to the team, Graves and Beard, held tight. Tallafarro's punts averaged forty yards to Roanoke's thirty-five.

Roanoke's backfield showed good form, Cuddy playing conspicuously, while Miller at tackle also starred for them.

Taking the ball on the kickoff, the Generals tried an overhead game. Benkert intercepted a forward pass in midfield; line plunging failed; a forward pass Benkert to Gardner netted twenty yards. From this point, the Scarlet eleven advanced by line plunging. Gardner ripped the Generals' line for big gains, finally plunging across. The Generals offered stubborn resistance but were handicapped by fresh men thrown in by Rutgers.

Shenandoah Valley Academy and Virginia Episcopal School, won by the latter, 14-0 at 2:30.

At that time the second preliminary was staged, between A. M. A. and V. M. I. Scrubs. The annual classic clash between V. M. I. and U. Va. began promptly at 3:30.

Meanwhile, the Generals were battling on Neilson Field with Rutgers College with every W. & L. man on tiptoe to hear the result.

Every hotel, cafe, and boarding house was booked up for the day early this morning. Nearly as many spectators arrived last night as this morning. Every fraternity house was jammed with its own alumni and visiting brothers from Virginia. Today is one that will live long in the memories of W. and L. and the citizens of Lexington.

eleven most of the game. The first touchdown for V. M. I. came in the third quarter when a kick made by an A. M. A. back was blocked and knocked back over the goal line to be fallen on by McColgan, of V. M. I. V. M. I. failed to kick the goal.

V. M. I. kicked off and the quarter ended with the ball on A. M. A.'s twenty-seven yard line. By a series of plunges and aided by their superior weight the Reserves were able to push the ball over the line for another tally. Moore carried the ball over. V. M. I. failed to kick goal.

There were no thrillers to mark the game, both teams seeming to rely almost wholly on straight football.

The following men from the University of Virginia are visiting at the A. T. O. house: W. Williamson, J. M. Battle, C. Wills, W. Coleman, B. Manning and D. Hugel.
