Dunson Lists 55 for Figure Of Final Ball

Elizabeth Hudson Leman To Lead Finals Dance; Plans Near Completion

Fifty-five students were today named by Brad Dunson, president of 1942 Finals, to walk in the Final Ball figure on Tuesday evening, May 26. At the same time Dunson revealed that the advance subscription drive had sold enough tickets to insure the success of the two-day set, which will feature the music of Hal McIntyre and his orchestra.

The Final Ball, which will last from 11 p.m. to 6 a.m., will be the climax and close of Washington and Lee's 193rd Commencement. The figure will be led by Dunson with Miss Elizabeth Hudson Leman of Mary Baldwin College and LaGrange, Georgia.

Other members of the Finals Week Committee and their dates who will assist in heading the grand march are George Parton with Miss Neysa Dalby of Gary, Indiana; Felix Smart with Miss Jane Cutting of Hollins and Fort Smith, Arkansas; Walt Downie with Miss Alice Evans of Ogantz School and Sanderson, Texas; Tom Clark with Miss Lucie Kathryn Baker; and Bud Levy with date.

Decorations for the entire set are being designed by Fred Lynch of Philadelphia. The background color will be white and the smaller decoration features will be changed for the two evening dances.

The following students in addition to the committee were listed for the Final figure:

Administration to Handle IOUs Unpaid by May 20

All IOUs that are unpaid by Wednesday, May 20 will be turned over to the administration for action, Student Body President Howard Dobbins said today, stressing that this is the final opportunity for students to settle overdue IOUs before they are turned over to University officials.

Dobbins said that some of the IOUs were signed early in the school year and that the organizations involved were dependent on the revenue from IOUs to meet their expenses.

Students May Get Calyx Tomorrow from Noon on

Approximately 800 copies of the 1942 Calyx, featuring enlarged opening and beauty sections and more extensive intramural coverage were being handed out today in the Student Union basement.

Holders of activities tickets who did not obtain their copies will be able to get them tomorrow from noon on, according to Bud Robb, newly-elected business manager of the annual.

In addition to the enlarging of the three sections, other features of the annual include a dedication to W&L men in the armed forces, snapshots of each fraternity in their respective sections, enlarged pictures of the graduating seniors, full-page dividers between each section, and a new theme—"College Friendships."

Col. Hume, Representative Of Medical Field Service, Talks at Assembly Friday

Colonel E. E. Hume of the Medical Field Service School will speak on the work and opportunities of this branch of the U. S. Military organization at an assembly in Washington Chapel Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The work of the Medical Field Service School will be explained and the qualifications for acceptance will be outlined by Colonel Hume. This branch includes not only the medical, dental and veterinary officers, but also members of the Medical Administrative Corps. This Corps is a commissioned branch in which men do not have to hold professional or medical degrees to be eligible.

The assembly will be compulsory for all pre-medical students.

Lewis Wins Washington Award For Outstanding Service to W&L

Dan Lewis, academic senior from Richmond, Va., was last night presented the annual Washington Award for outstanding service to Washington and Lee this year at the Forensic Union banquet by Bill Noonan, Washington Literary Society president.

The purpose of the Award, given each spring by the Washington Society, is to recognize not only outstanding service and achieve-

Cranford to Give '42 Baccalaureate

Dr. Clarence W. Cranford, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church of Washington, D. C., will deliver the baccalaureate address to 183 seniors of the graduating class at the 11 a.m. services in Lee Chapel May 24.

The 193rd graduation exercises will be held May 26 at 6 p.m. President Gaines will address the class and visitors at the commemorations following a valedictory speech by Paul Baker, Jr., of Ashland, Ky.

Also scheduled for May 26 are a meeting of the Alumni Council at 9:30 a.m., a meeting of the University board of trustees at 10 and a Dutch luncheon at 1 p.m. Dr. and Mrs. Gaines will hold a reception at their home for graduates, their parents and alumni following the graduation exercises.

Twenty-two students of the class are scheduled to receive their LL.B. degrees, five will be given master's degrees; 100, Bachelor of Arts degrees; seven, Bachelor of Science degrees and 50, Bachelor of Science in commerce degrees.

There will be a compulsory assembly for freshmen and sophomores in Lee Chapel on Monday, May 18, at 2:00 p.m. A representative of the Navy Department will be present and will explain the V-1 program.

Dr. J. G. Varner, director of the W&L Glee Club, which recently won the regional contest of the annual Fred Waring Contest.

Applicants for Army To Get Tests Friday

Screening tests for air crew applicants and physical examinations for both air and ground crew applicants will be given Friday in preparation for the return of Col. Prindle, of the Army Air Force, to the campus on that date to receive enlistments in the new Army Enlisted Reserve Corps, Dr. A. W. Moger, head of the program here, announced this morning.

Flying duty applicants will take their screening test in room 31, Payne Hall, Friday at 8:30 a.m. and will be excused from classes missed. Physical examinations for this group will begin Friday at 2 p.m. in the gymnasium. Applications should be turned in to Dr. Moger by tomorrow.

Physical examinations will not be given for ground crew applicants, however, until applications have been approved by the chief of the Army Air Corps. Applications should be in the hands of Dr. Moger by Friday.

Conventional Dress Rules Will Hold During Summer

Students attending the W&L summer session will be required to dress conventionally, the Executive Committee voted at a recent meeting, after a survey of student opinion revealed that most students favored the continuance of the conventional dress tradition.

Student Body President Howard Dobbins said today that in addition to the coat and necktie requirement no T shirts would be allowed. Dobbins added that the EC rules do not apply to classrooms and that professors may allow students to remove their coats in class.

Gas Rationing Tomorrow

All student and faculty members with cars will register for gasoline rationing between 2:30 and 5:00 tomorrow afternoon in Washington Chapel. Registrants are reminded to bring along state registration cards for their cars.

New York Finals Set for May 30, 31 In Carnegie Hall

After nosing out choral groups from Maryland and Temple Universities in the semi-finals of Fred Waring's "Pleasure Time" National Glee Club competition, Washington and Lee's Glee Club entered the contest finals tonight, having been judged the best college group of their class in the middle Atlantic states.

Announcement of finals choices were made at 7:00 tonight on Waring's Chesterfield program over 108 NBC stations from coast to coast.

The approximately 40 club members will leave Lexington May 27 to compete against groups from eight other regions for the coveted national championship position. The students will remain in New York as guests of the Fred Waring organization until the following Tuesday, and will participate in the final concerts in Carnegie hall on Saturday night, May 30 and Sunday afternoon, May 31.

The club, in its personal appearance, will present a 20-minute choral program containing six number chosen from those given at its last Lexington concert in Lee Chapel Monday night.

Records of "Loch Lomond," "Bless the Lord, O My Soul" and the "W&L Swing," made on April 9 under the direction of Larry Lawrence, a technical adviser and member of Waring's Glee Club, were used by the contest judges in selecting the regional winner. Excellence in phrasing, diction, tone, color, recording dynamics and general ability to put the songs over were the principle points which shot the W&L group from lower brackets to the national competitions.

The Glee Club has appeared in Washington for the last three years of Waring programs at the Capitol theatre and won the regional contest for college glee clubs in the spring of 1939.

Singers Present Concert As Last Local Program

The Washington and Lee Glee Club gave its annual spring concert in Lee Chapel last night before a large crowd of students and townspeople who heard the choral group for the last time in Lexington this year.

Conducted by Waller Dudley and Prof. John Varner, the group sang 15 pieces including "College Friendships," "Washington and Lee Swing" and several folk songs.

Jack McCormick, Bill Noll and Stan Carmichael sang solo parts in several of the club's presentations. Director of the group is Professor J. G. Varner. Paul Brown serves as president and Bill Webb as business manager.

Also among the pieces sung by the club were "Deep River," "The Night Is Young," "Bless the Lord, O My Soul," "Loch Lomond," "Pen-Park," "Summertime" and "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms."

Hats Off to The Champs

The Washington and Lee Glee Club was tonight named the outstanding group of collegiate singers in the mid-Atlantic states, and as one of the eight championship clubs in the Fred Waring contest; the 40 students, under the direction of Dr. John G. Varner, will go to New York during the last of May to compete for the national award.

Their accomplishment is certainly a feather in the cap of Washington and Lee, and it seems strange indeed that the recognition of the Glee Club's excellence comes from a group of musical authorities in distant New York before they receive any appreciation and attention on the W&L campus.

Perhaps now the students here will sit up and take notice of this group. The few hundred people who heard the annual Spring Concert in Lee Chapel last night came away praising the Glee Club in no uncertain terms. They did not know at the time that they were listening to a championship club, but they did know that the music which they heard was remarkable in every respect.

The balance, the tone, the style which these boys displayed is not attained by paying a membership fee in "another campus activity." It come rather from long and tedious rehearsal and work, and all of them are to be commended for their hitherto unnoticed application and accomplishment.

Our hats are off to them!

The Best Yet

With no advance buildup publicity, unheralded by extravagant claims of being "the best yearbook ever," the 1942 Calyx made its appearance on the campus this afternoon. It should and will create quite a stir, for it is, by far, the most beautifully designed, the most cleverly arranged and the most completely representative book that Washington and Lee has yet published.

All students should be particularly proud of their copy of this year's Calyx for several reasons. It will be cherished by all, and certainly by the Seniors, as a reminder of their close friends in the generation of W&L men who are being scattered over the world in this war. There is no phase of campus life which goes unnoticed—no activity, no memorable happening, no bit of campus or local color which is not presented.

Because of the exigencies of the war and the effect it will have on all student activities and publications, it is doubtful if W&L will have another annual such as this one for several years. For that reason it is excellent that the 1942 book should mark such a high point in achievement.

Credit is due Editor Cal Bond, Junior Editors Al Darby, John Peeples and Jim Davis, Business Manager Bob Wersel and all the other students whose combined ideas and efforts made the '42 Calyx the outstanding book that it is.

Sweetheart of Sigma Chi Department: Good old Dick Jeffrey of the famous Chi house had the sweetest girl in the world. She wasn't like other girls. She didn't smoke, she didn't go to dances at the University of Virginia, she didn't like Betas and, in general, she was just obsessed with one thing—Jeffrey.

Jeffrey, in turn, fell to the inevitable and sacrificed everything for his one great love. He, too, didn't go to dances at the University of Virginia, and he, too, led a model life. In fact things were looking very much as if Jeffrey were going to come through college unscathed on the road to matrimony. Even Porky Dickinson hadn't done that.

So, good old Jeff kept carrying on a terrific campaign as only a Sigma Chi can. If he sang that song once, he sang it fifty times. He told her all about what he could do to make her his very own sweetheart of Sigma Chi, and she loved it, because she wasn't like other girls.

In fact, it turned out that she was so much unlike other girls that the resemblance was amazing. The other night, when our boy Jeff just couldn't study any more, because he was thinking how different she was, he chanced to pick up one of the lodge publications and started leafing through it.

And there it was, in great big blaring print. A life-sized picture of the one and only surrounded by the Colgate chapter of Sigma Chi, after she had been chosen as their "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi."

Good old Jeff still has his convertible, no gas and Ed Lyons. As for the girl, she's got Colgate, a plaque and her ideals. Deliver us from these girls that are different! There are too damned many of them.

School Gets Portrait Of Annie Jo White

A portrait of Miss Annie Jo White, originator of W&L's Fancy Dress Ball and for 27 years University librarian, has been presented to the school by an anonymous alumnus, Foster E. Morhardt, librarian, disclosed yesterday.

The portrait, which pictures Miss White seated at her library desk in 1900, was painted by Miss Burdette, who has done a number of works for W&L.

The picture will be hung in the browsing room of the library. Dedication exercises will be held either at Finals or at such a time when a large number of alumni are on the campus, Dean Frank J. Gilliam said today.

Miss White's death in 1938 severed the University's last link with General Robert E. Lee, with whom she was acquainted as a young girl in Lexington. According to Dean Gilliam, who knew her personally, she was vitally interested in students and student enterprises.

As the founder of Fancy Dress Miss White was the guardian spirit of the ball, missing only two of the sets from their initiation in 1907 until her death in October, 1938. For more than fifteen years she was in personal charge of the Fancy Dress Ball over which period the event evolved from an event costing no more than forty-two dollars to a gala occasion necessitating an income in excess of several thousand dollars.

Raving Reporter Department: C. Thomas "10, count 'em" Fuller draws the rusty periscope for this week by breaking Buzz Lee's record of 8 shafts for one houseparty (scored in 1938) by two full refusals. Fuller, when interviewed, was very modest, though obviously shaken, and simply stated that it isn't everyone that knows ten girls that won't come to a Phi Psi houseparty. We admire the spirit, but wonder why he didn't let Buzz Williams get him the date he promised.

Pete Day's Johnny Henry was here as advertised in the company of that Powers model from New York. It seems that Johnny's friend has her legs in all the Real-silk ads. Gordie Long had the date for the weekend, but that wasn't Long with her in the lobby of the R. E. Lee at 6 a.m. Sunday morning. Underneath all that lipstick it looked a lot like Cuttino.

At the Sem: "Maybe Bobby Vaughan's just bashful. He won't talk to me on the phone unless there's a chaperone listening."... Also at the Sem: "Every time Michaux would get ready to kiss me he'd say 'Bong.' It sounded like Big Ben all evening."

"Song of the Island" will still be at the State tomorrow, but we're not giving any advice. If you can't find anything interesting in this concoction of comedy, romance, songs, dancing and color, you're as bad as somebody who changes restaurant checks.

Wednesday and Thursday at the State is Edward G. Robinson and Jane Wyman in "Larceny, Inc."—another Little Caesar role, but not nearly as good. Robinson is a little guy who wants to become the No. 1 gangster of the city.

He digs tunnels, robs banks, sells luggage and then decides to go straight, but the usual Hays Office ending takes care of him.

"Sleepytime Gal" with that colossal little woman who can do most anything, Judy Canova infects the Lyric tonight. Skinny Ennis makes his screen debut in this which centers around song contest winners, gangsters bandsmen, friends of bandsmen, enemies and casual acquaintances.

There are about four or five plots running through the show so maybe one will strike you—if you can keep it straight.

Wednesday "Birth of the Blues" returns to the Lyric. Rubinoff and his $100,000 Stradivarius come to the State next Thursday and added to this is Gracie Allen's new picture "Mr. and Mrs. North," which is one of her best. She plays the usual talkative wife role that winds her husband up in jail (translated, she squeals).

Thinclads Bring up Rear in Meet; Golfers Place Fourth in SC Clash

W&L Track Year Folds As Miller Wins Hurdles

The General track team ended one of its most unsuccessful seasons on record Saturday as it scored four points to finish sixth and last in the Big Six Meet at Charlottesville. VMI's powerful thinclads captured the championship, thus ending Virginia's long rule over the Big Six cinder paths.

Captain Bud Yeomans provided the only outstanding performance for the Blue with his efforts in the 220-yard low hurdles. Competing against Virginia's Tom Todd, one of the nation's top timber-toppers, Yeomans, eked out a second to the Virginia star, and pushed him to a new meet record of 24.2. The W&L captain was only two strides behind as he covered the furlong in the sound time of 24.5.

The other General point was scored by Hank Woods, holder of the school record, in the discus. Woods' toss of 137 feet was good enough to take a fourth place.

The six man freshman squad that made the trip to Charlottesville pulled the surprise of the meet when it totaled 25 1-2 points to give it a tie for third place in the freshman division. Each of the six Brigadiers scored at least one point as they threw a scare into Virginia and VPI, frosh teams which were blessed with two or three times as many entries as the

Linksmen Tie Champions In Upset of Blue Devils

Coach Cy Twombly's varsity golfers concluded a successful season Saturday in gaining a fourth place in the annual Southern Conference tournament in Winston-Salem, after an overwhelming defeat of an impotent Davidson four and a tie against a powerful Duke squad, Thursday and Friday.

S. L. Kopald led the stokers against the Davidson squad on Thursday, scoring a 76 to defeat his opponent, 3-0. Captain Bill Noonan followed in medal score with a 77 to take a 2 1-2 to 1-2 victory, while Gordon Sibley and Felix Smart scored 3-0 wins with 79s on the difficult Old Town links. Noonan and Sibley picked up 2 1-2 points in the best ball while Kopald and Smart took 2 to complete the rout.

The tie with Duke on Friday came as one of the biggest upsets on this year's W&L sports calendar against one of the strongest teams in the country, a team that finished third last year in the National Intercollegiate and won the Southern Conference Saturday with a 75 average.

Noonan led the Generals in the engagement, stroking his way to 74 to defeat Duke's Grover Poole, Conference champion for the past two years, 2-1. Sibley, playing in the number 2 slot, chalked up a 3-0 conquest of Bill Goldthorpe with a 75. Sibley and Noonan took their best ball match, 3-0, to provide 8 out of the possible 9 points.

The remaining score was furnished by Kopald and Smart who took a half point each from their opponents. The final score of the match came as a surprise, owing to the fact that the Duke team has not been tied in the past two years in dual competition and has not been beaten in their last four or five seasons.

The Blue's aggregate of 643 strokes against representatives from eight schools was good for a fourth place in Saturday's 36-hole medal play tournament, ranking behind Duke's 601, North Carolina's 620, and Citadel's 636.

Sibley led the local linksmen in finishing in a tie for thirteenth place with a 79-76, 155, a total which included two penalty strokes for hitting a competitor's ball. Had he not incurred the penalty, he would have gained a sixth place tie in the final standings.

Noonan's 160 took down second for W&L, followed by Kopald's 161 and Smart's 167.

Frosh Netmen Drop Only Match of Year To Cavaliers by 5-4

In their only match of the season, the Brigadier netmen bowed to the Virginia frosh 5-4 last Friday on the local courts. There is a possibility, however, that another tilt will be scheduled for the latter part of the week, according to Jim LaPlante, team manager.

Bob Gaines, number one man, lost his singles battle, 5-7, 2-6. Dave Smith won, 6-1, 6-3, but Bill Clayton, in the third position, lost, 2-6, 4-6. Neel Walker then evened the score with a 6-2, 6-1 win and Charley Johnson won, 6-2, 7-5. In the final singles encounter, Harry Orgain was bested, 5-7, 0-6.

Clayton and Walker won the first doubles engagement, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4, to send the team into a 4-3 lead. The Wahoos then bounced back with two wins for their victory. Smith and Johnson bowed by scores of 6-3, 6-3, and Gaines and Orgain were topped 6-3, 7-5. These six freshmen should considerably strengthen the 1943 varsity.

Non-Fraternity Union Wins Golf Crown In I-M Tourney As Luke Smith Stars

Delta Tau Delta climbed up from second place last year to capture the 1941-42 intramural championship with 283 points. Close behind was Beta Theta Pi, defending champions with 242. The Phi Psis, with 174 1-2 points, beat out the SAEs for third place.

The Delts won championships in wrestling, swimming, all individual sports, and in ping pong.

High point man for the Delts was freshman Bob Gaines who recently captured the intramural tennis championship to add to tallies gained for the ping pong and swimming teams.

Paced by Ed Cuttino, the Delts retained their crown in the swimming race. Bill McKelway won the 165-pound wrestling crown, moving up from last year's runner-up spot, while Jack Crist garnered the runner-up position in the 155 pound field.

The Betas retained their football championship as well as capturing the handball crown. The Phi Psis gained the semi-finals of the football tournament and placed second in track. They tied the Sigma Chis for second place in the wrestling race.

Individual standings in the year-round intramural competition will be released sometime next week, Cy Twombly, director of the program, announced today.

The 1942 basketball crown went to the SAEs, while the Non-Fraternity Union nosed out Phi Delta Theta for golf honors and Phi Kappa Sigma blasted PiKA to win the baseball title.

Close races were marked by the Phi Delts who finished only one half point ahead of the Phi Kaps and by the Sigma Nus who were an equal amount ahead of the KAs.

Rounding out the top ten in the I-M scramble were Pi Kappa Alpha, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Kappa Sigma, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu and Kappa Alpha.

Golf Winners

The Non-Fraternity Union captured the 1942 intramural golf championship with 19 points in a close fought battle with Phi Delta Theta, which took second place honors with 18.

Luke Smith, Phi Delt, took individual honors when he defeated Stu Smith 9-8 in a 36 hole final on the local links Saturday.

Shooting a two over par 74, Luke gained a three stroke edge in the morning round and was one over par at the tenth hole in the last half of the match.

2. All college students may enlist as privates in the Army Air Forces (unassigned) and serve there until their turns come for Aviation Cadet training.

3. All college students may enlist in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve and wait until ordered to report for Aviation Cadet training.

Upon graduation or withdrawal from college, men will be assigned to active duty at a training center as facilities become available.

If the necessity of war demands, the deferred status in the Army Reserve may be terminated at any time by the Secretary of War.

The new Army Air Force Enlisted Reserve Plan is part of an over-all Army Enlisted Reserve Corps program shortly to be announced. This program will provide opportunities for college men to enlist in other branches of the Army on a deferred basis and to continue their education through graduation if a satisfactory standard of work is maintained. In case of necessity the Secretary of War shall determine when they may be called to active duty.

It is understood that men so enlisted will have the opportunity of competing for vacancies in officer's candidate schools.

This plan has been approved in the belief that continuance of education will develop capacities for leadership. (Reserve enlistment will not alter regulations regarding established R. O. T. C. plans.)

Aviation Cadet at $75 a month, with expenses paid.

If you have majored in science or engineering you can try for a commission in the ground crew—in Armament, Communications, Engineering, Meteorology, Photography.

As a Second Lieutenant on active duty, your pay ranges from $183 to $245 a month.

80% Have Won Commissions

Due to thorough training—about four out of every five Aviation Cadets this past year received Second Lieutenants' commissions—of which 67% are now flying officers.

The tremendous expansion of the Air Forces should assure rapid advancement in all branches. And after the war—you'll be ready for the ever-growing opportunities in aviation.

Settle Your Service Now

The years ahead are war years—and every college man should make his plans accordingly.

To make America supreme in the air we need every college man who can qualify for active or deferred service.

So take advantage now of this option. You may never again have such opportunities.

See your Faculty Air Force Advisor for information and help with details. Join the thousands of America's college men who are enlisting this week!

NOTE: If you are under 21, you will need your parents' or guardian's consent. Birth certificates and three letters of recommendation will be required of all applicants. Obtain the forms and send them home today.
