Mr. Eddy's work among the students of Asia and Europe has taken him to about 30 different countries. He has been in the most important centers of the political, industrial, and social life of both Europe and Asia.

He has held interviews with many statesmen, political leaders, and industrial chiefs in both of these continents. He brings a story of vivid narrative power and of real interest to the young people of America today. Eddy has spoken to students of every important nation of the world. Chinese students flocked to hear his messages, standing in line to get into the auditorium.

Sherwood Eddy was the first foreigner to challenge the Soviet leaders to a public discussion concerning the subject of religion and the existence of God. The challenge was accepted and the debate took place.

In addition to this, Mr. Eddy has written a large number of books, among which are "The Awakening of India," "The Students of Asia," "Everybody's World," "Facing the Crisis," "The Abolition of War," and "Makers of Freedom."

Spring Football Begins Monday

Coach Herron's Charges Don Togs And Start Annual Spring Grid Practice Of Six Weeks

Spring football practice will start next Monday, weather permitting, with the arrival of Coach "Pat" Herron. The Coach is expected here from his home in Pittsburg some time Monday morning. This is somewhat a surprise to many, as in the past few years the coach has usually arrived several days before practice started. "Pat," however, has been busy pleading cases up to the last minute, for that is his occupation between football seasons.

Practice will continue for about six weeks and be discontinued about Easter. All candidates are strongly urged to report, so that everyone may become acquainted with Coach Herron and he with them.

Chemical Society Will Meet In Richmond

The American Chemical Society has held seventy-two meetings (national) since its organization in 1876. For the first time its big Spring Meeting is to be held in the South—at Richmond. Only once before in the history of the society has it met in the South and that time at Birmingham for the fall meeting just a few years ago.

Faculty Will Be Entertained

The University faculty will be entertained at a supper in the annex of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday night. At this time Sherwood Eddy, international secretary of the Y. M. C. A. will speak.

Frat Basketball Begins Monday Night Again

Due to the intervention of the Prep and High School tourney the Inter-Fraternity Basketball tournament was postponed after Wednesday's contests until Monday night, when play will be resumed at 7:30 with the winners of group 2 meeting. In the third round, the winners of group 1 and the winners of group 2 will meet, and the winners of groups 3 and 4 meet, the winners of group 5 drawing a bye into the semi-finals.

The semi-finals bring together the winner of group 5 and the winners of groups 3 and 4. The winners of this match will then play the winners of groups 1 and 2 for the championship.

Final Game Tonight

John Marshall High School and Augusta Military Academy will fight for the South-Atlantic championship tonight at eight o'clock in Doremus gymnasium. These two teams earned the privilige to play in the final game by virtue of brilliant victories over Devitt Prep and Oak Ridge Institute in the semi-finals this afternoon. Both of the afternoon games were close and hard fought, an extra period being necessary to decide the John Marshall-Devitt game.

Students Attend Pictures On Steel

The School of Commerce and Administration, through the efforts of its dean, Dr. G. D. Hancock, presented on the first floor of Reed hall, the motion picture, "The Story of Steel." An interested group of engineering and commerce gathered to see this five-reel film tracing the development of steel from mine to ingot.

The film, through the clever use of diagrams, showed many of the difficult processes of the blast furnace, Bessemer steel converter, and the electric furnace. Various forms of mining for ore, coal, and limestone, all necessary for the production of steel were portrayed.

Transportation of the ore to steel mills was next shown. At the mill, the breaking up of the ore into molten metal and slag; refining processes in its production into steel; and casting, rolling and cutting into finished forms was shown in detail.

The homes and working conditions of the employees of the United States Steel corporation were then shown.

The film is an interesting picturization of the romance of steel, and is outstanding in the realm of educational pictures.

Finals Campaign Starts Again

The Finals Finance Committee met Thursday night to chek up on the progress which has been made toward securing the necessary subscriptions for Finals. It was found that the students are supporting the campaign better than it seemed at first, but President Herron declared that not half enough subscriptions have been secured, and that if the 1927 Finals are to be successful more interest must be shown in them.

Maynard Holt, President of the Student Body, was appointed vice-president of Finals to assist Mr. Herron.

A University of Maryland freshman, who was arrested for speeding after a football game, was released on his personal bond, when he told the judge that he lost his shoes in the scramble between halves of the Maryland-Virginia game and that he was rushing home because his feet were cold.

DANCE AFTER FINAL GAME

Awards Will Be Made To Winning Teams And Players During Dance

The informal which has been anticipated with keen interest for the past two weeks will be given tonight in Doremus gymnasium at 9 o'clock, following the championship game of the tourney. The dance is the first social function which Washington and Lee has participated in since the mid-winter dances immediately following examinations. The occasion marks the close of the three-day tournament in which Washington and Lee served as host to the various teams entered, representing schools from Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, and District of Columbia.

Sometime during the dance, awards will be made to the winning team and outstanding individual players. F. W. Urmey, captain of the 1926 Generals basketball team, will make the awards.

If reports can be depended upon, a large number of girls will be in attendance. The usual delegation is expected from the popular neighboring institutions, and quite a few are expected to come from distant schools. The Southern Collegians will render the music for the informal and judging by their past performances, excellent symphony is assured.

Freshmen, it is announced, will be permitted to remain the entire evening.

Changes Appear In Campus Slang

Twenty-seven years ago, slang was as much used by the students of Washington and Lee, as it is today. The vocabulary of the college man in those days, however, was a great deal different. The following is an extract from the RING-TUM PHI of March 10, 1900, which lists the then prevailing "slang" expressions. Most of them are now obsolete, though some are still used in a slightly different meaning:

Ball up, is to become confused.
Boner, is one who studies hard.
Bum is a spree.
Calico-course is marked attention to a girl on the part of a student.
Cheek is to go into a recitation unprepared as if prepared.
Cooler is a pretty girl.
Corned is intoxicated.
Dough is money.
Fumigate is to smoke.
Go double is to take a girl out.
Hell sticks are matches.
Shark is one who excells.

Deep Education At Yale

Yale University is planning to construct a tunnel under its campus to relieve the traffic congestion.

Athletic Field Will Be Fenced

Graduate Manager of Athletics, R. A. Smith, has contracted as representative of the University with the Cyclone Fence Company from their Baltimore office for a shipment of galvanized steel fences, eight feet high, to be placed around Wilson field with the possible exception of the northeast corner which requires more filling in. This section will be fenced in after the repairment is made.

The shipment of fences is expected within the next few months and plans are being made to begin work upon their arrival. F. W. Sweeny, of Sweeny & Compan, of North Carolina architects of Wilson field, is expected shortly for the necessary conference of plan making.

The galvanized fence will keep out trespassers when the field is not in use and will make it impossible to witness an athletic contest on Wilson field without payment of the admission charge. A similar galvanized fence is found enclosing the fields of the University of Maryland and at V. P. I.

Debating Tryouts

Tryouts for the debating team to meet Georgetown University in Washington on Monday, March 28, will be held in the iLterary Society Hall on Wednesday, March 9, at 8 o'clock

The question is: "Resolved, that the U. S. Government ought to refuse further reduction or cancellation of debts owed to it by European nations."

This will be a straight debate with decision by judges, W. & L. upholding the negative. Candidates may also refer to their manuscripts during tryout speeches, which are limited to seven minutes in length.

Attempts are being made to secure one or two more dates in or near Washington for the 29th and 30th of March.

All students of the University are eligible and are urged to enter the tryouts.

General Pugilisits Not At Conference

Due to a last minute change of plans Washington and Lee is not being represented at the first Southern Conference boxing tournament, which commenced yesterday at Charlottsville. The tournament is being held under the auspices of the University of Virginia, and is the first boxing tournament ever attempted by a Southern Conference school. Six of the twenty-two Conference institutions entered full teams. However, owing to the necessary last minute withdrawal of the General's mittmen, only five will take part. The colleges participating are:Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, V. P. I. and Virginia. Much interest being shown by schools over the entire South as it marks another step forward in Southern Inter-Collegiate competition. It's success will make an annual affair, and do much to encourage the boxing sport thruout the South.

Journalists Will Form Professional Group At W And L.

Lee School Calls Meeting Tuesday To Organize And Explain Aims

First steps toward the formation of a local professional journalistic fraternity will be taken at a meeting to be held on next Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Journalism building. All sophomore, junior and senior students, intending to enter the journalistic field as a life's work, are asked to attend.

This will be the first attempt to organize a professional journalistic fraternity since the formation of the Lee School of Journalism. A local chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, honorary journalistic fraternity is on the Washington and Lee campus at the present time. The new organization, however, will be strictly limited to those intending to enter the field professionally.

Howard M. Thompson, Lee School of Journalism, will take charge of the meeting and explain the aims of the new group. Officers will be elected, routine business and activities will be discussed.

It is hoped that the new group will be able to comply with the requirements of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity, with a view to petitioning that organization next fall. Three members of Sigma Delta Chi are now at Washington and Lee, Prof. R. B. Ellard, H. M. Thompson, and G. C. Olson.

Athletic Council Will Meet Monday

1927 Finals

THIS week and next the finance committee of 1927 Finals is conducting a drive for funds to put Finals "across." Approximately onl one-half the necessary amount has bee subscribed up to the success that it always has been in the past and should be this the success that it always has bee in the past and should be this year.

It has been definitely announced that Jan Garber will play for Finals this June. This announcement is in itself enough to warrant a full subscription, because the name Jan Garber stands for one thing: HOT MUSIC. And "hot" music means a good Finals—four nights of dancing that WILL be dancing, four dances that WILL be dances.

President Fanning M. Hearon is now arranging his program for Finals, and to make the whole week the elaborate event that it deserves, a full subscription is necessary.

If you haven't subscribed do it now. Finals deserves your support. Give it.

Why Not?

WHEN is a college not a college?

At the new John Wesley College in Columbia, Illinois, dances, athletics and fraternities are barred, and the use of liquor or tobacco is tabooed.

Is this a college? If it is, we beg to ask, who would want to attend it?

The authorities seem to have banned just about everything that goes to make up a real college. We are surprised that they didn't ban students and make a real job of it while they were at it.

The Assemblies

TWO Student Body assemblies have been called for Monday and Tuesday of the coming week. They will be for the purpose of hearing Sherwood Eddy, noted lecturer, speak. The University feels that both the speaker and his subjects are important enogh to warrant these two assemblies.

Sherwood Eddy recently returned from conducting his sixth annual seminar of representative American writers and speakers who have endeavored to make an impartial study of conditions in Europe. His last trip included Great Britain, France, Germany, the central European countries and Russia. In England Mr. Eddy personally met Premier Baldwin and other political and industrial leaders, and in Germany President Hindenburg and representatives of the various parties in the Reichstag. In Russia the party interviewed some thirty outstanding leaders of though and life in that strange land of contradictions, including Stalin, Lenin's successor, the Ministers of Foreign Affairs and of Education, the heads of various departments of state and church, friends and foes of the present regime.

As the first representative, unofficial body of Americans of the kind, they were permitted to make an impartial study of actual conditions in the new Russia. As this was Mr. Eddy's fourth visit to the country, he was able to compare conditions under the present government with those of the former Czarist regime. He was the first foreigner to challenge the Soviet leaders to a public debate upon the subject of religion and the existence of God. After nine years, flooded as we have been by propaganda red and white, it will be a privilege to hear some one woh has no axe to grind, no case to make for or against Russia, and who is not afraid to tell us just what he saw.

Eddy, now a world figure in Christian leadership, was graduated from Yale in 1891. His work among the students in the throbbing centers of the political, industrial and social life in Asia and Europe has taken him to some thirty countries, where he has interviewed statesmen, political and industrial leaders. He brings a story of vivid narrative and thrilling interest to the young men of America today.

His addresses always are stimulating for he has a message that is fresh and stirring. In schools and colleges, before business men—wherever he speaks, Sherwood Eddy is heard with keenest interest.

He is prepared to tell us a few things about the revolt of youth, campus problems, relations of men and women, Bolshevism and Fascism, applied christianity, the new reformation and the philosophy of life. We hope he does, beacuse we need it. His addresses await a challenge here on the Washington and Lee campus, and if Eddy can "come through" successfully he will be well received. We hope he does.

The Calyx

STUDENTS who have not subscribed to the 1927 Calyx are advised that this is their last chance. The order for the final number of copies wanted will go in within the next few days, and it is necessary to place your order now if you want a copy of this book—which is going to be one of the most complete and artistically beautiful annuals ever issued at Washington and Lee. Gibson B. Witherspoon, Business Manager of the book, will receive your subscription. You don't want to miss it!

Now:

Best wishes for a good time at the dance tonight.

Press Convention Date Is Changed

The Southern Intercollegiate Press association convention originally scheduled for April 29-30, has been set up a week earlier in order to avoid a conflict with the meeting of the Southern Classical Association to be held on the former date.

The committee on arrangements for the second annual S. I. P. A., in conjunction with the Lee School of Journalism and the Pi Delta Epsilon fraternity deemed April 22 and 23 satisfactory, both from the standpoint of delegates and of facilities in Lexington.

A number of speeches by prominent journalists have been arranged and the program is to be made as comprehensive and complete as possible.

The White Studio, Inc., of New York has announced that they will duplicate their last year's award of two loving cups for the most outstanding annuals of grades A. and B. With this and other award announcements as a stimulus and the date definitely set for the week-end of April 22-23, the committeee feels that it can safely proceed with its plans.

Issue Pamphlet Of Improvements

The University has recently issued a pamphlet setting forth a prospective program for improvements to the Robert E. Lee Memorial chapel. The scheme proposes fire-proofing the Lee chapel and the construction of a Lee Memorial hall which will be entirely fireproof and of colonial architecture in keeping with the architecture of the Washington college building.

The hall will include a capacious auditorium where formal gatherings of the Student Body and Faculty may be held. Besides this auditorium, there will be a picture gallery and museum, containing historic pictures, furniture and relics of the colonial era.

These plans have been approved by the Committees on Finance, and on Design and Building, which were appointed by the Board of Trustees of Washington and Lee University.

No action on these products will be taken in the near future, as the financial campaign to promote them is just being launched.

But only, we think, if the articles are of moderate price and of such quality that constant replacements are unnecessary.

Debaters Have Two Engagements

After having negotiated with several universities, M. H. MacBryde, manager of the debating team, has secured engagements with Georgetown university, in Washington, and Temple university, in Philadelphia.

An engagement with Johns-Hopkins university in Baltimore is still pending. MacBryde is now corresponding to fix the exact dates for the debates and the questions to be debated, and expects to have all arranged in a few days. The trip will be taken in the latter part of March.

MacBryde had negotiated with Princeton, but it announced that its schedule was full for this year. Princeton said, however, that it would keep a date open for the Washington and Lee debating team next year.

The probable question to be debated with Georgetown and Temple is: Resolved, That the United States government ought to make no further reductions or cancellations in the debts owed it by European countries.

[Upper classmen in smoke-shop, buying Camels]

Top in quality—first in popularity

EXPERIENCED smokers have proved it. Discriminating tobacco lovers by the million rediscover it each day and every evening as the friendly Camels are lighted. There simply is no better cigarette made. The choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos grown are bought for Camels—and such blending for taste and fragrance! Only the largest tobacco organization in the world could produce a cigarette like Camel.

In terms of popularity, Camel quality has reflected itself in the greatest preference ever given a cigarette. There never was a tobacco word so famous, or a cigarette so good. First in popularity, because the best—that is the story of Camel, the biggest cigarette success ever known.

If you want such smoking enjoyment as you never hoped to find, just try Camels. Smooth, fragrant and mellowy mild, from the first touch of the flame to the final puff, Camel will mean a revelation to you of tobacco goodness. For pleasure unalloyed, for the best that's made regardless of price, "Have a Camel!"
