An Explanation

For the past several years the Alumni Office has published a supplement to THE ALUMNI MAGAZINE listing by classes the names of all contributors to the Alumni Fund for the past year. On account of the shortage of manpower in the University printing shop and also for economic reasons we are combining the Report of the Alumni Fund for 1943 with the January issue of the Magazine. It has been necessary to eliminate special articles, which usually appear in the Magazine, all pictures, and to cut to the shortest possible space the material used. This issue is being sent to the whole alumni list.

Pledge for the Future

(THE PRESIDENT'S PAGE)

I WISH that every alumnus who does me the honor of reading these lines could have been with me last night at a little meeting in the Browsing Room of our new library. Virtually the entire faculty—it's down to little more than half size now—gathered to discuss a report from the Committee on Fraternities, a consideration of the place and the function of these organizations in the reconstruction of our academic life when normal days come again.

* * *

Every phase of the regular institutional life, the curriculum, the modes of student guidance, the procedures of student life, everything is now being studied with reference to future policies. The hope is to conserve all the good in Washington and Lee and yet make such modifications as our own experience, or even the predictable circumstance of that coming day, may suggest.

* * *

All colleges for men, perhaps more than ever before, are a little bit dizzy now from trying to look at once in the three-time directions, the past, the present, the future.

* * *

When we look to what has gone before, we have measurable pride. The mandates of our inheritance are being fulfilled, largely in the magnificent performance of our alumni. With more than twenty-five per cent of our former students in our country's uniform, with thousands of others rendering essential services, either directly in the war effort or the strengthening of the national life which sustains that effort, the University has demonstrated in this crisis that these generations of our boys have responded to the spiritual legacies of our patron saints.

* * *

For the present, of course, our University, and this is true of practically every college for men, lives upon the basis of government contracts. We are drawing the bulk of our income from the payments for the training of the men in uniform, the pre-engineering and the pre-medical A.S.T.P. whom we teach, and the School for Special Service, to which we are renting certain University properties. We have a conviction that to the great majority of these men—and the normal units bring about 800 of them to the campus—we are doing a service that is more than the mere contractual obligation.

* * *

It is the future, of course, that gives us the immense concern of this moment. When these contracts are withdrawn, in those years of the transition, what circumstances will govern the attendance of boys upon higher institutions? Will the Government make proposals upon special terms? Will there be a sustained emphasis upon military training? Will the youth, urged by the quick need for employment, turn predominantly to the vocational or specialized types of training?

* * *

To the alumni, however, now that we approach another Class Agent campaign, I repeat that, come what may, we shall try to keep all that was best of the Washington and Lee that you loved. I should like to feel, here close to January 19, that we can salute the spirit of Lee and say, "Sir, external circumstances bring their inevitable change in external processes. But the heart of the University beats true forever to the ideals that you gave."

* * *

And for the realization of that hope, we look with eagerness to the continued aid that the alumni will give. In the first of these campaigns, 505 alumni contributed $3,741.00; last year 1409 alumni gave $12,301.75. Of course this financial assistance was not the only means of help. I could not find space here to list the various ways and methods of alumni help.

* * *

I pray that the sustaining interest of our alumni, expressed in this campaign and in every other way, will not fail us now, when we really need it more than we have ever needed it. As our alumni are the basis of our pride, so are they the basis of our finest hope.

President

Contributors to the Alumni Fund in 1943

LISTED BELOW are the names of those who contributed to the 1943 Alumni Fund. This list does not include the names of those who replied to their Class Agents' letters without sending a contribution, although this response is greatly appreciated. A total of 1409 alumni contributed $12,301.75, distributed as noted below.

Washington and Lee acknowledges her debt of gratitude to these men and the Class Agents who have supplied the medium by which all alumni can have a material part in the support of the University.

In a few weeks you will receive your 1944 class letter. The Class Agents are doing a very difficult and unselfish service for the University in these strenuous days. You can do your part by answering your Class Agent's letter promptly and thus making it unnecessary for him to write you a follow-up letter.

Additions to List of Alumni in Service

As of January 31, 1944

NOTE: This list of 99 alumni in service comprises the seventh published addition to the list of Washington and Lee men in service, published in the May, 1942, Magazine. Washington and Lee now has 2630 alumni listed in the armed forces.

In compliance with the military and naval authorities, we have refrained from giving information about service men save their class and branch of service, and indicating whether or not they are commissioned officers. However, the Alumni Office is vitally interested in other pertinent data, such as actual rank, station, permanent home address, or other address from which mail will be forwarded, special activities, type of service or training, etc. The permanent home address is most important as service addresses change so rapidly.

It is our policy to keep as close a connection as possible with our alumni in this time of stress, and any information concerning alumni in service will be greatly appreciated by this office.

In the listing below, certain symbols have been used to conserve space. These symbols and their meaning are as follows: A, Army of the United States; AAF, Army Air Force; N, United States Navy; NAC, Naval Air Corps; MC, Marine Corps; CG, Coast Guard; AFS, American Field Service; MMS, United States Merchant Marine Service. An asterisk (*) following the above symbols indicates a commissioned officer.

In Memoriam

Richard Apperson Chiles died November 18, 1943, in Mt. Sterling, Kentucky.

1895

The death of Brigadier General Thomas Emery Merrill has recently been reported to the Alumni Office. General Merrill was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1898. He served in the Philippine Insurrection, in the Pershing Expedition in Mexico, and in the First World War.

1897

Henry Winbourne Magruder Drake, B.S. '97, died November 17, 1943, at his home in Port Gibson, Mississippi.

1909

James H. Price, LL.B. 1909, Ex-Governor of Virginia, died at his home in Richmond on November 20, 1943. After graduation he practiced law in Richmond and in 1916 was named to the House of Delegates, serving until 1929, when he was elected Lieutenant-Governor. He was elected Governor in 1937, serving until 1942.

1912

John W. Heath was killed in an automobile accident in Jackson, Mississippi, February 1, 1944, where he was attending a session of the Mississippi State Legislature, of which he was a member. His home was in Port Gibson, Mississippi.

1913

Robert Lee Whitehead died January 16, 1943. He had been connected with the North Carolina State Highway Commission since 1922. In 1933 he was elected an associate member of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

1918

John Henry Fitzhugh Mayo, a former instructor in the Aircraft Mechanics School at Kessler Field, Mississippi, 394th Technical School Squadron, Flight 2, died in Washington, D. C., early in October, 1943. He offered his services soon after Pearl Harbor and continued in service until he was retired from the Army early in February, 1943, because of physical disability.

1922

Robert Dunn Howerton, Chicago manager of the Calco Chemical Company, died in Evanston Hospital at Evanston, Illinois, December 4, 1943. He was president of the Chicago Washington and Lee Alumni Chapter.

1939

Spence Emil Kerkow died November 8, 1943. He was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, captain of the Golf Team, O.D.K., Sigma, Cotillion Club, White Friars, and President of Finals in 1938. He leaves a widow and a son about six months old.

Service Casualties

Lieutenant (j.g.) George Gordon Alford, '42, Lewiston, Idaho, was killed in an airplane crash near Sioux City, Iowa, on January 25, 1944. He was co-pilot of a B-26 Marauder bomber.

Charles James Andrews, '37, was killed December 8, 1943, while serving with an American Field Service Unit attached to the Eighth Army in Italy, during the British advance near the Sangro River. He was the son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles James Andrews of Norfolk, Virginia.

Marriages

Duncan Corbett was married on December 16, 1943, to Louise Wills of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Rev. Walter Terrell Lawton, Jr., was married to Ursula Dorothy Ott on November 25, 1943, in Brooklyn, New York.

1940

Lt. Walter Cavil Carlton, Jr., Army Air Forces, was married to Margaret Abbitt of Roanoke, Virginia, May 22, 1943, at Maxwell Field, Alabama.

1942

David Powers Pardee, Flight Instructor, U.S. Army Air Force, was married to Rosemary Alice Paul, on December 24, 1943, at Longmeadow, Massachusetts.

1945

Lt. John H. Sorrells, Jr., was married to Mary Morris Blakely of Charlotte, North Carolina, on January 11, 1944.

Births

1941

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Spencer Barrow, Jr., are the parents of twin daughters, Pamela Sheffield and Pat Spottswood Barrow, born December 3, 1943.

Lt. and Mrs. Melvin Neely Young are the parents of a son, Melvin Neely, II, born January 4, 1944. Father Neely is pilot of a Liberator, flying in England. His O.P.A. is 634, care of Postmaster, New York.

1943

Lt. and Mrs. Willard Carter are the parents of a son, Willard Swan Carter, born November 6, 1943.

"College Friendships"

(A MESSAGE FROM YOUR ALUMNI PRESIDENT)

AFTER five, ten, fifteen, or even more years have slipped by since we trod the walks across the campus at Washington and Lee, we cannot but feel—every last one of us—genuine enjoyment in the revival of some of our "College Friendships."

No matter how many the years; no matter how busy we are or what our situation is, we cannot deny that we do have—from time to time—a real desire to see these old friends, to hear about them, to read about them, and to know what has become of them. Occasionally on a trip we may bump into a classmate or friend. What an event this is! With all the "remember whens"—and "whatever became ofs." We go back home resolved to keep in closer touch with "College Friendships." But due to the wide distribution of Washington and Lee alumni, the serious difficulties of travel, and the everyday business of making a living—such contacts with our old college friends are few and far between.

There is, however, a way in which "College Friendships" may be periodically revived—through the alumni Class Agent plan and The Alumni Magazine. Each year an opportunity is available for one alumnus to write to every member of his class. There is a tremendous kick in that answering letter from Jack or Bill way off there some place—the Class Agent didn't even know where until he got the address from the alumni office. I know what this kick is like—I've been a Class Agent.

In addition to the personal pleasure of hearing from some of his own friends, the Class Agent can add new names to our growing list of active alumni, furnish information about them for the Magazine, and thereby rekindle the spark of interest in other alumni. Just the sight of a name may serve to keep alive a few of our "College Friendships."

Local Association Notes

New Orleans

A small group of Washington and Lee Alumni in New Orleans met for lunch at Arnaud's Restaurant on January 19. It is hoped that this meeting will start a revival of activities in the New Orleans area, although many alumni there are in the service. Herbert Jahncke, '30, is president of the New Orleans group.

San Antonio

Washington and Lee Alumni of San Antonio, Texas, held a Founders' Day dinner on January 19 at the Milam Cafeteria Dining Room. The meeting was well attended in spite of the fact that the majority of the alumni in that vicinity are in the service, but their absence was compensated for, in a way, by the presence of four service men who are stationed in that area. Carl C. Wurzbach, '15, is president of the San Antonio chapter.

Chicago

Sixty-three members of the New York Washington and Lee Alumni Association held a dinner meeting in the Astor Gallery of New York's Waldorf-Astoria on December 17. The program ran the gamut from the sublime to the ridiculous, and was highlighted by the re-election of Roy J. Grimley to his third term as president of the Association. The guest speakers were Dr. Francis P. Gaines, president of Washington and Lee University; Sidney Moseley and Stan Lomax of the Mutual Broadcasting Company; University Trustees, the Hon. John W. Davis, '92, and Dr. George Bolling Lee, '93, and, as introduced by President Grimley, "the youngest alumnus of them all, Dr. John M. Glenn of the class of '79."

EXCERPT FROM A LETTER FROM AN ALUMNUS

"Those who have not attended schools such as Washington and Lee do not appreciate the value of the intangibles which you mention. To preach integrity, dignity and a sense of the continuity of man to a group of college men accomplishes only a momentary glow of agreement. To live and work under the influence of the University, its past and present, ingrains those elements in any normally receptive student and gives him a moral and philosophic stature above that which he would otherwise possess. If anything which I can do will help to ensure the continuance of such an institution, I am only too glad to devote my efforts to such work. In addition, I have a selfish desire to preserve the spiritual and traditional values of Washington and Lee. I want my sons to have an opportunity to study there."

Class Notes

Edwin T. Coman, 141 Mt. View Avenue, San Rafael, California, writes that although he is approaching the three quarter century mark, and long since retired from active banking, he finds many things to keep up his interest in life. He is a member of many civic organizations, sponsor of a troop of Boy Scouts, Vestryman and Senior Warden of his Church, and "actively engaged in the campaign to restore Constitutional Government to these United States."

We wish to apologize for any errors in the class notes appearing in this issue. The letters from which these notes are taken were written, for the most part, early last spring. The rapid influx of alumni into the several branches of the armed forces of the United States have no doubt rendered some of these notes inaccurate. We would like to have more material for class notes in letters to your Class Agents this year.

E. P. Coles is still living at 117 Queens Road, Charlotte, North Carolina.

Hon. Wells Goodykoontz is practicing law in William-son, West Virginia. He has had an illness recently from which we hope he is recovering satisfactorily.

John M. Graham is president of the National City Bank of Rome at Rome, Georgia.

Preston J. Beale, retired as Eastern representative of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, which position he held for forty-five years, is now living at Greenfield Farms, Amsterdam, Virginia, but spends the winters in Florida.

1891

Hon. Miles Poindexter has retired from public life and is now making his home at Greenlee, Virginia.

1895

John P. Walker, Box 2237, Boise, Idaho, is represented in the service by a son in chemical warfare and a daughter who is an ensign in the U.S.N.R., in Communications.

1892

Herbert Fitzpatrick, member of the University Board of Trustees, is living in Huntington, West Virginia. He is a frequent visitor to the campus in connection with his duties as a member of the Executive Committee of the University Board of Trustees.

1896

Frank Fallon is a florist in Roanoke, Virginia.

General Robert H. Allen, U.S.A. Retired, is living at 1048 Grenada Road, San Marino, California.

John Edward Burwell lives in Floyd Court House, Virginia. He is Judge of the Circuit Court and Commissioner of Accounts.

Rees Turpin, member of the law firm of Turpin, Behrendt & Searing, New York Life Building, Kansas City, Missouri, writes an interesting letter of reminiscences of his college days.

1897

George C. Peery is now living at his old home in Tazewell, Virginia. He served as Governor of Virginia from 1934 to 1938.

1893

James B. Bullitt is Professor of Pathology at the University of North Carolina. He is very happy to have his friend Dr. Ran Shields, recently returned to this country after many years service as a medical missionary in China, associated with him in his work.

F. Petrie Hamilton lives at 408 Walnut Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

Colonel Bryan Conrad is with the Virginia Conservation Commission in Richmond, Virginia.

Harry W. Myers, D.D., who returned to this country on the Gripsholme in August, 1942, after serving as a missionary of the Presbyterian Church in Japan for many years, is now living at 433 West 21st Street, New York, New York.

1898

R. W. Jopling has retired after forty-five years in the ministry of the Presbyterian Church. His home is in Lancaster, South Carolina.

Charles J. Faulkner, General Counsel of Armour & Company, 316 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, writes: "I have been fortunate enough to keep in rather close touch with what is going on at Washington and Lee University and I am very proud of what the University is doing in this war and the record of its faculty and alumni. I think it is a splendid thing that the Army School for Special Service has been established there and using part of the facilities of the University for the duration. I happen to know some of those who have taken this course and they speak most enthusiastically and with gratitude of the opportunity afforded them.

W. H. Keister is still actively engaged as superintendent of city schools in Harrisonburg, Virginia.

"We all ought to feel very proud of our President, Dr. Gaines, and our able Rector and the Board of Trustees, and should do everything we can to support them in the wonderful work they are doing."

Edward A. O'Neal, notwithstanding the fact that he is a busy man these days, takes time out to serve as Class Agent for 1898. He is president of the American Farm Bureau Federation with offices at 58 East Washington Street, Chicago, and in the Munsey Building, Washington, D. C.

Norman Fitzhugh is a certified public accountant, with offices in the Kanawha Banking and Trust Building, Charleston, West Virginia. He says: "It isn't necessary for me to renew my interest each year. With one of the liveliest local alumni societies to be found anywhere, my interest is kept up throughout the year."

William Craven Watson lives at 144 Elm Street, West Haven, Connecticut.

Dr. Gustav Benz Capito is practicing medicine in Charleston, West Virginia, with offices in the Professional Bldg.

James Mullen is practicing law in Richmond, Virginia, with offices in the American Building. His firm is Williams, Mullen & Hazelgrove.

1900

Dr. Samuel B. McPheeters is Health Officer for Goldsboro, North Carolina. His address is 307 Linwood Avenue.

Alfred Grayson Davis lives in Lewisburg, West Virginia. He says: "Washington and Lee has always stood for the highest ideals and it must not fail now."

1901

W. Dewey Cooke, Class Agent for 1902, is with the Southern Fertilizer and Chemical Company, Savannah, Georgia.

Albert Gallatin Jenkins lives at 1130 Chapman Avenue, Roanoke, Virginia. He was a visitor to the campus at Finals. His poems appear frequently in the New York Times and other publications.

Col. Charles S. Caffrey, U.S.A., Retired, is living at 1019 Jungle Avenue, St. Petersburg, Florida.

J. P. Wall is an attorney-at-law, 5144 Leary Avenue, Seattle, Washington. He says his health is excellent, his ambitions fully curbed, and that he is now mostly interested in living a contented life.

1903

J. C. McPheeters is connected with the Duke Power Company and lives at 125 West Vance Street, Charlotte, North Carolina. He is always interested and cooperative in everything concerning the University.

John W. Warner is practicing medicine in Washington, D. C. His address is 1835 Eye Street, N.W. He is so busy that he hasn't time to bring us up to date on his activities since last year.

Sam Glasgow is minister of the Independent Presbyterian Church, Savannah, Georgia. He says: "It is thrilling to know that the bugle is blowing again on the campus that we love and our old school that bears such names as Washington and Lee is going 'all out' in this world crisis."

1904

J. B. Akers, Class Agent for 1904, is assistant chief engineer of the Southern Railway System, Washington, D. C.

John McClure is teaching at the New Mexico Military Institute, Roswell, New Mexico.

Charles C. Thomas lives at 220 East Monroe Street, Springfield, Illinois. He is founder and owner of Charles C. Thomas, Publisher, Springfield, Illinois.

Col. William Cole Davis, M.D., assumed his duties as resident physician at the Virginia Military Institute in October, 1943. Col. Davis and his family have moved to Lexington from Atlantic City, New Jersey.

1905

Judge Walter G. Riddick is Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals from the 8th Circuit, composed of the states of Arkansas, Nevada, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota, and South Dakota. His home is in Little Rock, Arkansas.

T. Dwight Sloan is superintendent of the Flagler Hospital, St. Augustine, Florida.

William L. Hoge is living in Louisville, Kentucky, again after a year and a half in New York, and finds his first choice, "Engineering," as interesting as ever, though managerial work had crowded it into the background of his activities for a number of years. This engineering work is 100 per cent war effort. He has two wonderful grandchildren. He says: "Please give my regards and best wishes to all the members of the class, many of whom I think of often though I see them all too seldom."

John N. Osburn, M.D., is practicing his profession in Los Angeles, California, with offices in the Pacific Mutual Building. He was in Lexington for Homecoming in 1941. He says he dropped into the basement of the Chapel and browsed around—picked out some post cards, but found no attendant to pay for his purchases. Finally a colored janitor appeared and said it was all right to pay him. Dr. Osburn said "I was about to leave and not pay as I could not find anyone." The janitor asked, "Did you ever go to Washington and Lee? No boy who ever went to Washington and Lee would go off without paying." He remembered the "Honor System" and was proud and touched by this confidence, and glad that he had attended a college where it was in force.

James R. Caskie, member of the University Board of Trustees, never gives us any news of himself from which we can write a class note, but is such a faithful and enthusiastic alumnus that we cannot refrain from listing him with the class of 1906 again. He is still practicing law in the Peoples National Bank Building, Lynchburg, Virginia.

Basil Manly is vice-chairman of the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D. C. He has general supervision of the approval of power contracts to supply all war plants and establishments for which the Federal Government assumes any obligation. He also has general supervision of gas plants and electric utilities against sabotage and other hostile acts. These two war tasks, along with his regular work, present many interesting problems and keep him pretty busy.

Albert Steves, Jr., is president of the Steves Sash and Door Company, San Antonio, Texas. Three of his sons are in the service: Albert, III, Capt. U.S.A.; Walter, Capt. Army Air Corps; Marshall, Midshipman, U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland.

Richard B. Spindle is Judge of the Corporation Court of Norfolk, Virginia. His son, who graduated from Washington and Lee in 1942, is now in the South Pacific, and his father is following the course of the war with keen interest.

Col. H. W. Miller is Professor of Mechanics and Engineering Drawing, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan. His hobby is a twelve-acre farm just out of town, and he says, "while it is not a farm, it gives me more trouble than a farm twice that size, because of the diversified terrain." For sixteen months he has been managing schools at Ann Arbor for the training of inspectors for the Ordnance Department. He was in overseas duty throughout the last war and is now anxious to get in the invasion forces in Europe in this one.

V. Gilmore Iden, who has been with The American Institute of Steel Construction in New York, is now Industrial Editor, Bureau of National Affairs, 2201 M Street, N.W., Washington, 7, D. C.

A. R. Larrick, D.D., is minister of the First Presbyterian Church, Plant City, Florida. He is busy with Rationing Board, Home Mission Work, Stated Clerk of his Presbytery, General Assembly at Montreat, N.C., and Orphanage Board. He says for the last year his breathing has had to be short because he has not had time to take a deep breath.

Donald W. M. MacCluer, D.D., is pastor of the Rose City Presbyterian Church, Portland Oregon. His only son, Malcolm, is an ensign in the Navy. He regrets that when the war is over and gas rationing a thing of the past, that the trout in the mountain streams "will be so big and sassy that a fellow will not dare tackle them."

Perry W. Turner is an attorney-at-law and counsel for the Alabama Power Company, Birmingham, Alabama.

Lewis C. Gordon is now a Lieutenant-Colonel serving with the R.O.T.C. Military Department, Michigan College of Mining and Technology, Houghton, Michigan. His job is to train officers for the Army of the United States.

J. C. (Clivie) Carpenter, Jr., is president of the First National Bank, Clifton Forge, Virginia. His oldest boy is a second lieutenant in the Signal Corps; his daughter, Isabel, a college graduate, is a stewardess with American Airlines and has been flying between New York and Chicago; and his other boy has registered for the Army, but is still a student at Greenbrier Military School, Lewisburg, West Virginia. He says all this leaves Mrs. Carpenter and himself, their Irish Setter dog and Persian cat to hold down the home front.

Alan Porter Lee is a consulting engineer, with offices at 136 Liberty Street, New York.

H. R. Mahler is superintendent of the Thomasville Public Schools, Thomasville, Georgia. He has four sons. The oldest is a Presbyterian minister, the second is a supervisor of the Newport News Shipbuilding Company, the third in the navy and lives at Norfolk, Virginia, the fourth is a communications officer in the navy on convoy duty. He was in the original convoy that carried troops to Africa. He has made a second trip to Oran and is possibly on a third trip. All his sons are married and he has two grandchildren.

W. P. Hooper is minister of the Highlawn Presbyterian Church, Huntington, West Virginia, where he has been for the past twenty-five years. He also teaches at Marshall College. He has a grandson who he hopes will be in the Freshman class of 1960.

Harry W. Gassman is teaching in Cincinnati, Ohio. His address is 3128 Woodburn Avenue. His daughter graduated from the School of Nursing at Bethesda Hospital, Cincinnati, last May.

Abram P. Staples has been Attorney General of the State of Virginia since March, 1934. Prior to that time he was a member of the State Senate for eight years. He has one daughter and three sons.

Dozier A. DeVane, as previously reported, is United States District Judge of the Northern and Southern Districts of Florida.

John M. Bierer lives at 98 Collins Road, Waban, Massachusetts. He is factory manager of the Boston Woven Hose and Rubber Company, Cambridge, Massachusetts. His sons, John C., and James H., are graduates of the classes of 1937 and 1940 at Washington and Lee.

1909

K. W. Denman is a member of the law firm of Mantooth and Denman, Lufkin National Bank Building, Lufkin, Texas. He says he is always happy to do what he can to see to it that Washington and Lee ever maintains its high standard of usefulness and decency in a world which needs these traits so much.

Morton L. Lazarus, 941 Brooks Lane, Baltimore, Maryland, has had much illness in his family during the past year, but they are all now well on the road to recovery.

Levi T. Wilson is a professor at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland.

Joe Lykes, member of the University Board of Trustees, is executive vice-president of the Lykes Brothers Steamship Company, Inc., 17 Battery Place New York.

L. J. Boxley, Boxley Building, Roanoke, Virginia, has many business and civic interests, but is never too busy to give enthusiastic and helpful cooperation to Washington and Lee affairs.

Guyte P. McCord is clerk of the Supreme Court of Florida, Tallahassee, Florida. He is Class Agent for 1908-A.

James M. Bell is with the Rio de Janeiro Tramway, Light and Power Company, Caixa Postal, 571 Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. He gives us no news although we know he might write us a thrilling letter, if it could pass the censors.

Hamilton A. (Tubby) Derr is president of Vanguard Paint and Finishes, Inc., Marietta, Ohio. The business of his company has become more and more concentrated on war work. He has visited many war plants, and says: "I have been glad of the opportunity to see something of what is going on here in the interior of this country, and have been impressed by the tremendous scale on which power is being accumulated for the grand offensive leading to victory."

Wyatt C. Hedrick is an architect and engineer, First National Bank Building, Fort Worth, Texas. His business is entirely converted to war work.

Rayford Alley is a member of the law firm of Alley, Cole & Grimes, 30 Broad Street, New York. His only son is an ensign with the U.S. Navy in the Pacific.

Albert D. McCown is director of the Medical and Health Service of the American Red Cross, Washington, D. C.

Walter McDonald, president of the McDonald Printing Company, Arbor Place, Cincinnati, Ohio, never sends us any news from which we can write a class note. Nevertheless, we have substantial evidence that he is still as much interested in Washington and Lee as he has ever been.

Hugh Hawthorne, vice-president of the Pocahontas Fuel Company, Number One Broadway, New York, gives no personal news, doubtless because he is too busy filling out government reports and trying to get permits to handle the largest production of coal his company has ever had.

Walter M. Hood is still with the Alabama Power Company, Birmingham, Alabama.

Robert G. (Bob) Thach is general counsel for American Airways, with offices in the Woodward Building, Washington, D. C.

1911

A. Dana Hodgdon returned to the United States in June, 1942, on the repatriation ship Drottingholm, from Rome, where he had been assigned to the American Embassy and spent five months under detention by the Italians awaiting the exchange of diplomats. Prior to Rome he had been assigned to the Berlin Embassy from 1936 to 1941. He was a visitor to the campus in the early summer.

John G. Herndon is a professor in the Department of Government, Haverford College, Haverford, Pennsylvania. His home address is 4 College Circle, Haverford, Pennsylvania.

E. E. Abrams, Jr., is in the insurance business in Butler, Pennsylvania.

R. E. Layman, The Maples, Swoope, Virginia, is now in agricultural work after ten years of teaching. He has three sons, the eldest managing a farm, the second in college, and the third in high school.

Jefferson F. Walter is Judge of the thirty-first Judicial Circuit of Virginia. His home is at Olney, Virginia. Prior to his service as Circuit Judge, he served as Commonwealth's Attorney of his county, and for ten years in the Senate of Virginia. He has a wife and a daughter nine years old.

W. K. Price is assistant cashier of the Citizens National Bank, New Market, Virginia.

A. M. Muterspaugh served with the engineers in World War I. He is now in the engineering and contracting business in Lake Charles, Louisiana, with offices in the Roumain Building.

Roger M. Winborne, Bernhardt Furniture Company, Lenoir, North Carolina, is secretary of the Law Class of 1911, and publisher of the very interesting 1943 edition of the Class Annual. This publication has been issued annually for thirty years and has been the means of making this the very best class organization ever graduated from Washington and Lee. The Alumni Office is a little jealous, however, because we have to refer to the Annual for Class Notes, and get some of our information second-hand. They keep up the alimony, but the family relationship is not as close as it might be. Roger, Jr., who attended Washington and Lee during last year, is now in the army.

Herbert B. Gregory is a member of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. He has three children, two boys and a girl, all now grown and out of the family nest.

Rosser J. Coke has his law offices in the First National Bank Building, Dallas, Texas.

Robert A. Russell writes that there is little news of himself and none of his family since he thinks he is the only bachelor left in the Law Class of 1911. Last April he lost 1900 acres of timber by fire, which cleared the land off sufficiently to find a rather hopeful-looking outcrop of slate, which came to light just before the building restrictions were applicable.

1912

Dr. George Frederick Ordeman has been assistant superintendent of the Standard Oil Company, (Ind.) Whiting Refinery, Whiting, Indiana, since February, 1943. Dr. Ordeman received his B.S. degree from Washington and Lee in 1912, his Ph.D. from Johns-Hopkins in 1916, and was a 1st lieutenant in World War I. He was assistant professor of Chemistry at Washington and Lee for two years. Since that time he has held successively important positions with the Standard Oil Company of Indiana.

Rt. Rev. Lloyd R. Craighill, Episcopal Bishop in China, who was interned by the Japanese in China, returned to the United States aboard the Gripsholme.

Tom Glasgow is still president of Glasgow, Stewart & Company, Automobile Supplies, Charlotte, North Carolina. His oldest boy is in the service. The war has brought many problems in his business, mostly concerned with "getting" inventory and not "selling."

Isadore Forman is manager of B. Forman Sons, ladies ready-to-wear clothing store, Roanoke, Virginia. He says: "We cannot for a moment let the University down because I have always thought she stands between us and ignorance, hate and bigotry."

Frank R. Ruff, M.D., has practiced medicine for thirty years. He is connected with the Burnett Sanitarium, Fresno, California.

Wayne Ely is practicing law in Saint Louis, with offices in the Commerce Building. He says he has a victory garden where his divots are somewhat larger and much more welcome than at Algonquin Golf Club. His two sons are both in the service.

A. G. Lively is a member of the law firm of Burn and Lively, 123 Burns Building, Lebanon, Virginia. He was Judge of the 27th Judicial Circuit Court of Virginia until he resigned in February, 1937.

Ed Lyons is still with Parke, Davis & Company, 320 East Grand Boulevard, Detroit, Michigan. He visited the Alumni Office in October.

J. O. Day is now serving as United States Attorney for the Northern District of Mississippi, with headquarters at Clarksdale, Mississippi. He says he has personally drawn over 2000 indictments and not a demurrer or motion to quash ever sustained against one of them. "Not bad for a country lawyer, is it?"

Henry B. Goodloe, Class Agent for the Law Class of 1913, is practicing law with offices in Crozet and Charlottesville, Virginia.

Ben F. Fiery is still a member of the law firm of Baker, Hostetler & Patterson, Union Commerce Building, Cleveland. He recently did a splendid job for the Alumni Office in securing an up-to-date list of alumni addresses in that section. We wish more of our alumni would follow in his footsteps.

Howard L. Robinson is a member of the law firm of Robinson and Stump, Union National Bank Building, Clarksburg, West Virginia. He says: "Washington and Lee has played a conspicuous part in our country's history. Its distinct characteristics have made great contributions to the American system through all its years. The young men who have been graduated from it have taken much from the campus to their respective communities in which they have lived and worked. We should bear in mind that we have received more from Washington and Lee than a few years training and a diploma evidencing success in a course of study. Washington and Lee deserves the support of every alumnus, particularly at this period of stress for all educational institutions, in order that it may better serve others when the clouds of war shall have been dissipated and we shall have again returned to the peaceful pursuits of civilian enterprise."

John G. Hutton is an attorney-at-law, Sheridan, Wyoming. He regrets that he is ineligible for active service but says some slight amelioration of his condition has been allowed him through his appointment as one of the legal advisers of the Selective Service Board and as the Special Assistant to the Attorney General of the United States, as Hearing Officer throughout the State of Wyoming in conscientious objector cases under the Draft Act. Both of his children are girls and too young to have any active part in the fighting, although the younger one insists she is going to be an aviatrix.

Senator Harvey B. Apperson of Roanoke County, Virginia, was nominated, January 12, 1944, without opposition, by the Democratic caucus to fill the vacancy on the State Corporation Commission.

Lewis Twyman is practicing law with the firm of Twyman Brothers, 999 Southwest First Street, Miami, Florida. However, he is "flirting" with the idea of retiring to one of the family farms in Virginia.

Harry Moran is still trying to get out more and more coal for the Export Coal Corporation, 370 Lexington Avenue, New York. However, when his letter was written he was working at the source of supply, and living temporarily in Beckley, West Virginia.

W. Taylor Thom, Jr., is chairman of the Department of Geological Engineering at Princeton. During the past year he has been chiefly occupied in helping with the development of the Geological Engineering program for the army.

Berkeley Cox, who is Class Agent for the 1920 Law Class, as well as an A.B. of '14, is loyal to both classes. He has been associated with the legal department of the Aetna Life Insurance Company, Hartford, Connecticut, for fifteen years. Recently he was elected chairman of the legal section of the American Life Convention. He is chairman of the Connecticut State Housing Authority and a trustee of the Hartford Seminary Foundation and of the Hartford College of Law and the Hartford College of Insurance, departments of the University of Connecticut.

R. P. (Bob) Hobson is a member of the law firm of Woodward, Dawson & Hobson, Kentucky Home Life Building, Louisville, Kentucky. He was recently elected president of the Louisville, Kentucky, Bar Association. His son, Robert C. Hobson, B.A. '40, L.L.B. '42, is an ensign in the U.S. Navy.

Clarence L. Sager is counsellor-at-law, 30 East 42nd Street, New York. Besides his law practice he gives much of his time to work as trustee of the Empire City Savings Bank, president of the Greenwich Community Chest and Council, and to the New York City Y.M.C.A. His legal work has in more recent years brought him into the field of labor relations, where there are not many dull moments, and which he finds extremely interesting.

Henry N. Barker, Class Agent for 1914-A, is practicing law in Bristol, Tennessee. His address is 10 Sixth Street.

Houston Barclay, 424 North Bluff Avenue, Wichita, Kansas, is with the personnel department of the Boeing Airplane Works at Wichita. His family consists of a wife, two girls and two boys, one boy now in the service.

C. H. Morrisett is the Virginia State Tax Commissioner, State Office Building, Richmond, Virginia. He reports a fine meeting of the Richmond alumni, at which Dr. Gaines made a "splendid talk, as always."

R. Lee Beuhring was Class Agent for the 1914 Law Class. His address is : First Huntington Bank Building, Huntington, West Virginia.

Charles R. Beall, Class Agent for 1915-A, is practicing law in the Shenandoah Valley Bank Building, Martinsburg, West Virginia. He has had many interesting letters from his classmates.

J. D. Trimble, Class Agent for the 1915 Law Class, is practicing law in El Dorado, Arkansas, with offices in the Trimble Building. His daughter was a student at Mary Baldwin College in Staunton last year.

Kenelm L. Shirk is practicing law in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. He says there is nothing he can add to his class report except that his son, Kenelm, Jr., graduated with the Class of 1943, Phi Beta Kappa, magna cum laude.

Robert P. Adams is practicing law in Trenton, Tennessee. He is a former member of the firm of Taylor, Adams & Freeman. Referring to Dr. Easter, he says: "I often think of that splendid character and some of his teachings of France and its people in connection with the present conflict; and even though you may not have taken the four-year French course, I am confident that you had sufficient time under his instruction to know, admire and appreciate him."

G. R. Shaw is chief engineer for the Harrison Plant, R.C.A. Victor Division of Radio Corporation of America, Harrison, New Jersey. During the past year his efforts have been devoted to engineering vacuum tubes for war work exclusively and products of his division go entirely into those channels.

Harrison P. Magruder is with the Federal Security Agency, United States Office of Education, Washington, D. C. He served as Class Agent for 1916-A, and did a splendid job.

Echol Spina Marshall, who has been with the Continental Can Company, Inc., New York, has been transferred to the Sales Department, and is now located in Roanoke, Virginia. This change was made necessary by the vast gap made in the sales force by the call of young men to the armed services. He has a granddaughter, two and one-half years old, and a son, Echol, Jr., thirteen and one-half years old.

Russell S. Rhodes is now in the ninth year of service as general manager of the Chamber of Commerce, Tulsa, Oklahoma. He says so far as Association offices are concerned, he has held all of them and wants to become an "ex" at everything except the job which pays him his salary. His daughter, who graduated from the University of Oklahoma in May with the bachelor's degree, married another senior at the University and is now Mrs. Robert F. Hebel.

Dr. Frank M. Leech is practicing his profession as a surgeon in Lexington, Virginia. His side-line and hobby is raising blooded cattle on several beautiful farms which he owns in Rockbridge County.

Henderson Estes is an attorney-at-law with offices in the First-American Bank Building, Middletown, Ohio. He started practicing law in Ohio in 1917, then went in the Army the next fall and stayed in until June, 1919. In the meantime, he saw service in the Argonne with the 80th Division. Since then he has been practicing law in Middletown with the exception of two years, 1937 and 1938, when he was Assistant Attorney General of the State of Ohio, in Columbus. He was also City Attorney for Middletown from 1930 to 1934.

F. Parker Buhrman, who has been American Consul General, Belfast, Ireland, was assigned to the Department of State in Washington last April.

Clarence J. Brown is Congressman from the Seventh District, Ohio. His home is in Blanchester, Ohio. He has five newspapers in Southwestern Ohio, and a commercial printing plant. He says he gets his recreation and spends what extra cash he can get hold of in owning and operating a couple of farms. He has two daughters, one in personnel work in the Navy Department, one married, and a son in high school. He promises to come back to the campus when the war is over and "browse around a bit."

Harry K. (Cy) Young has been in Government Censorship Service in Puerto Rico since November, 1942; is back in this country on duty in Washington, D. C. He made a flying visit to the campus en route to his new assignment. He is bursting with pride over his grandson, Melvin Neely Young, II, born on January 4, 1944.

Charles W. McNitt, M.D., is practicing medicine, with offices at 130 East 67th Street, New York, and at the Medical Centre Building, White Plains, New York. He regrets that his class agent does not give him a little more personal news, and says: "That simple fact makes me feel that possibly there is something to this matter of class letters, even though each individual feels very loath to talk about himself." The Alumni Office hopes other alumni will take this suggestion to heart. He says he would consider it a privilege to entertain any Washington and Lee service men who might be in New York and has a quiet spot in the country nearby where they might have needed rest. If those passing through New York would call him—Phone Regent 4-8143—he would be most glad to see them.

W. O. Burtner is still with the Department of Justice in Washington. He lives at 2406 North Upton Street, Arlington, Virginia. He is president of the Washington alumni chapter, but says conditions are such in Washington that they cannot hold many meetings.

Homer A. Jones is vice-president and cashier of the Washington Trust and Savings Bank, Bristol, Va.-Tenn. His son, Homer, Jr., graduated from the Law School at Washington and Lee in 1942, was married a short time thereafter.

William J. (Billy) Cox has been reappointed by Governor Baldwin for another four-year term starting in July, 1943, as State Highway Commissioner, State Highway Department, Hartford, Connecticut.

James A. Lee, managing editor of Chemical Engineering, a McGraw-Hill publication, recently had a delightful trip to South America and the West Indies. In his travels he met several Washington and Lee alumni, including Frank E. Mitchell, '25, who is with the National City Bank of New York at Sao Paulo, and J. M. Bell, '10, who is resident director of the Rio de Janeiro Tramway Light and Power Company at Rio de Janeiro. He spent some time along the Atlantic Coast and several weeks in the jungle country of Brazil and Bolivia.

Gabriel de la Haba is practicing law in San Juan, Puerto Rico. He says there are several Washington and Lee alumni in Puerto Rico, and he has been in contact with "Our bustling and dynamic ex-secretary, Cy Young, who apparently is not in need of looking for Ponce de Lean's fountain of eternal youth." They are planning an alumni get-together.

John H. Sorrells is again executive editor of the Scripps-Howard Newspapers, 230 Park Avenue, New York, after having served as Assistant General Censor, Office of Censorship, Washington, D. C.

John McChord is a member of the law firm of Calfee & Fogg, Euclid Avenue Building, Cleveland, Ohio. He says: "There is no news of interest other than to my family and creditors. All of us have been working like dogs and I long for the quiet of the rear ranks as a private, where someone else will do the thinking and my prime interest in life will be three 'hots' a day."

Lester Arnold has been associated with Senator Harry F. Byrd for the past twenty years and is now sales manager for the Byrd apples, which is a large undertaking. His home is in Winchester, Virginia, and he has two sons and two daughters. His oldest son is married and a Lieutenant in the army, and has a young daughter, which puts Lester in the grandfather class.

Homer A. Holt, ex-Governor of West Virginia, is now a member of the law firm of Brown, Jackson & Knight, with offices in the Kanawha Valley Building, Charleston, West Virginia. He is a member of the University Board of Trustees.

Matthew W. Paxton is owner and editor of the Rockbridge County News, Lexington, Virginia.

T. H. (Swede) Scovell says: "After battling the business world for twenty years I have come to the conclusion that it is all the 'Hokum.' The darned thing has made a complete about face. Today, you make less and have more. What kind of 'monkey business' is this? Anyway, it required forty years for me to learn how to live. Today, I have a small business with my wife and the 'hired' help doing most of the work. I have an orange grove and farm, just large enough to make living cheap and require little work. I have seven bird dogs, three hounds, and a good fishing boat. The game grounds are the best in the States. I spend most of my time deciding where to hunt or fish the next day. 'Rosy' is going to have to go some to upset my apple cart.

"I raised and educated a girl, Ann, and boy, William. Ann is married, living in Shreveport, Louisiana, William is in Utah in the Air Forces. My wife (Gertrude Fitch) is still living with me. Looks like she's going to stick.

"I would like to have some of you boys come to see me. Plenty of room and lots of places to go, even during these times." His address is Box 537, Deland, Florida. Note: Don't all go at once.

Willie F. Barron is still with the Coca-Cola Bottling Company, Rome, Georgia. He says he is still living with the same wife he started out with and they have two children, a daughter sixteen years old and a boy eleven. His daughter will enter Sweetbriar in the fall.

George Wilson is still in the tobacco business with the J. P. Taylor Company, South Boston, Virginia. He says it is a fascinating line, the only trouble being that they go South in hot weather and to Kentucky in the winter. Like the moth who spends his summers in a fur coat and his winters in a bathing suit.

Sim B. Christy is district manager of the Sun Oil Company, Lansing, Michigan, where he has been for the past eight years. He still feels that Texas is his home, and owns a ranch in the western part of the state where he hopes to spend his declining years.

1920

Pinckney Grissom is with the law firm of Thompson, Knight, Harris, Wright and Weisberg, in Dallas, Texas. He has three sons, Pinkney, Jr., 21; John, 20; and David, 7.

Fadjo Cravens represents the Fourth District of Arkansas in the United States House of Representatives and is a member of the Judiciary Committee.

Eldon King is in the Office of the Special Deputy Commissioner of the Bureau of Internal Revenue in Washington.

Harold Robertson is president of the Liberty Trust Bank in Roanoke, Virginia.

E. B. Beatty was given a reception in his honor as Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky F. & A.M., on November 27, 1943, in Beattyville, Kentucky.

Pat Collins is practicing law in Marion, Virginia, and is Representative of his county in the State Legislature. He is also a member of the Virginia Advisory Legislative Council.

Glen Evins is associated with the Fairchild Aircraft Corporation in Hagerstown, Maryland.

Hope Stark is Solicitor General of the Piedmont Judicial Circuit in Lawrenceville, Georgia.

1921

Gray Funkhouser is teaching at the Exeter School in Exeter, New Hampshire. His address is Cilley Hall, Exeter.

Dr. Sam Raines, Major in the Army Medical Corps, has been stationed at the hospital at Fort Dix.

Robert Wood, who did an excellent job this past year as class agent for the Law Class of 1921, is still practicing law in Lynchburg, Virginia, with offices in the Peoples National Bank Building.

Carl Gill is now Director of Industrial Relations for the Wanshuck Company, which operates five large woolen and worsted textile mills in Rhode Island.

Bill Neblett, who was Class Agent this past year for the Law Class of 1922, is practicing law in Lunenburg, Virginia.

Jim Mattox is local agent for the Aetna Casualty and Surety Company of Hartford, in Salisbury, North Carolina. He writes that two of his brothers who attended Washington and Lee after he did now have commissions in the United States Naval Reserve.

Jimmie Cranford is vice-president of the Atlantic National Bank of Jacksonville, Florida.

Bcb Bear has been on leave of absence from Dartmouth College and has been doing research reading and study in Chicago.

Verbon Kemp is still working busily as executive secretary of the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce. He writes that we "carry on with the help of such able public-spirited persons as Dr. Huston St. Clair, also of the Class of '22, who generously has accepted re-election as president of the Virginia State Chamber. Huston is also associated with the Jewell Ridge Coal Corporation in Tazewell, Virginia."

1923

J. Frank Rushton is responsible for launching the "Birmingham Plan" to ease discharged men into civilian life. With manpower shortages, jobs are easy to find, but the Plan looks forward to the time when jobs may not be so plentiful, when the personal call from a business leader will get a service man a job he might otherwise miss. The Plan which was started in the Birmingham, Alabama, Chamber of Commerce, is described in Time magazine, issue of January 17, 1944.

Maurice Crocker is now law assistant to the Judge of the Circuit Court of Kanawha County, West Virginia. Maurice has a daughter, four years old.

Al McCarthy is practicing law in Miami, Florida, with the firm of Loftin, Calkins, Anderson, Scott and Preston, located in the Ingraham Building.

George Holbrook is associated with the Century Indemnity Company in Hartford, Connecticut.

John Bold is civilian assistant to the inspection officer at the Evansville, Indiana, Ordnance Plant.

Bill Lynn is proprietor of the Hotel Carroll, Lynchburg, Virginia. Bill has two children, a son eight years old and a daughter just one.

The Alumni Magazine, Washington and Lee University

1924

(Notes written by Class Agent)

There are a number of Charleston, West Virginia, alumni who are members of this class:

Boone Dawson has just been elected Mayor for his third consecutive four-year term. Cy Hall was recently elected Judge of the county-wide Criminal Court. John Morrison was made a State Senator at the same time. Kay Thomas became a candidate for Attorney General of West Virginia last spring, volunteered for the Air Corps, was nominated in the primary in August, was accepted for the Air Corps in September, and was elected Attorney General in November. He took the oath of office and was given a leave of absence and continued as Captain in the Combat Intelligence Division of the Air Corps, but it took a Supreme Court decision to decide that he could be Attorney General at the same time. He took part in the invasions of both Sicily and Italy, and has been promoted from Captain to Major.

Stuart A. MacCorkle took a leave of absence two years ago from the University of Texas for the purpose of serving a few months as Visiting Educational Adviser to the National Institute of Public Affairs, and when the war came on served as Special Consultant to the Army Air Forces until placed in the Office of Civilian Defense in Washington. It is noteworthy that there is industry in Washington besides that of Government. Frank Cole is a wholesaler and importer of wines there with Magruder, Inc.

Bob Campbell, recently Rector of Episcopal churches at Steubenville, Ohio, and Lorain, Ohio, is now Rector of the second largest Episcopal Church in Cleveland, the Church of the Incarnation. The Rector of the largest Episcopal Church in Cleveland is Ted Evans, '00 of Washington and Lee.

Thomas Coleman Green is a Colonel with the Corps of Engineers of the Army. For his meritorious performance during the Sicilian campaign, he was awarded the Legion of Merit by order of General Eisenhower. The award stated: "By his devotion to duty, courage, and foresight, he gave invaluable support to the continuous and successful advance of the . . . Corps."

Otis Howe is still in the lumber business and also a farmer on the side. He can almost organize an alumni association within his family with his brother, Bobby Howe, '28, and Jimmie Thomas, '14, who married his sister, Otis and French McKnight, '23, having married sisters. His address is Wabash, Arkansas.

Ran Whittle is practicing law in Roanoke, Virginia, with offices in the Boxley Building.

Maurice Crocker is clerk and research assistant for the Judge of the State's most important court, the Circuit Court in Charleston, West Virginia, in which litigation of state-wide questions is initiated.

1925

(Notes written by Class Agent)

Vernon Kreienbaum, Emporia, Virginia, has turned his lumber business to defense work, making boxes for airplane motors, and guns which General Motors is manufacturing. Vernon's boy, now 13, has his heart set on Washington and Lee.

Herman Womeldorf, 211 East Campbell Street, is minister of the South Frankfort Presbyterian Church, Frankfort, Kentucky, where he has been serving since the first of December, 1942.

Dr. William L. Woolfolk, 2119 Frederica Street, Owensboro, Kentucky, is still an Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist. It was my good pleasure to have a visit with Bill, his wife and two children as they came through Jacksonville a couple of months ago. Bill is no longer the slender fellow we knew at Washington and Lee, but has rounded out into a most respectable looking guy. That wavy hair he used to have, waved goodbye to him.

Harry Dawson phoned me as he passed through Yulee, a few miles from here. Sorry I couldn't see you Harry, but it was mighty thoughtful of you to phone. Harry can sleep a few minutes later each morning now, for his office has been moved five miles nearer his home. By the way, Harry's address is 6601 Exfair Road, Bethesda, Maryland.

Ed Rietze, 1714 Sulgrave Road, Louisville, Kentucky, liquidated his business in September, 1942, because the Government "Freezing Acts" were too much for his refrigerators. But now Ed is in defense work as sales manager of the Abell Elevator Company.

Tom Harmon, 1759 Commerce Building, Cleveland, Ohio, writes his usual good letter. He is still practicing law, while on the side, he and his three children have planted a nice victory garden. Tom, mine is a rather hollow victory. When my squash got ripe, you could buy them three pounds for 10c, when the beans matured, they were 7c a pound, and now that okra is coming along, it is 10c a pound. I still have tomatoes, potatoes, butterbeans and collards. But it's a lot of fun, even if it doesn't save money.

Murrell D. (Lefty) Klein, Starks Building, Louisville, has been in the insurance business for seventeen years, likes it, and also likes his lovely wife and two fine daughters. Murrell, since you were our Class Historian, why not just take up the task of bringing your Class History up to date if we have a reunion in 1945?

Bo McMillan, Athens, Tennessee, is still in the Coal and Transfer business. Bo is still a good quarterback, outwitting his opponents. He recently celebrated his 39th birthday, inviting the entire Draft Board in for the party! I'm 39 today, Bo, but for some reason that I don't understand, they don't draft preachers at my age.

Bob Goodrich is back with the Franklin Limestone Company, 612 Tenth Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, having been discharged from the Army a few months ago. Bob has reached that age where life begins, so maybe it is true in more ways than one! Sorry I missed you as you came through Jacksonville, Bob.

Joe Holt, 206 Westminster Avenue, Merchantville, New Jersey, is now in the law department of R.C.A., Camden, New Jersey. He likes his new work, and reports that his family is getting along fine.

Roy C. Slack, division manager of the Atlantic City Electric Company, Bridgeton, New Jersey, sends his best wishes to all the fellows. Knowing Roy as we do, we congratulate the Electric Company on its choice. Roy says there are a lot of Washington and Lee boys in his vicinity, but most of them are considerably younger, so in the service.

Wilson Roach, Denbigh Hall, Wilmington, Delaware, sent his picture along to show that he hasn't changed a bit (assuming that it's a late picture). He is still general agent for the Massachusetts Protective Association. Wilson says that things move so rapidly there, "it's a wonder I get any meals— if it weren't automatic, I'd probably starve to death."

Conrad Altfather, Rankin Avenue, Basking Ridge, New Jersey, is doing relay designing for the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, Newark, New Jersey, spending much of his time on designs destined directly for combat duty. Bad news for Hitler!

Ken Goode, Box 6119, Cleveland, Ohio, writes that he is busily engaged with the C. and O. Railway. He says he's lost the ten pounds he reported last year. Well, if the railroad business there is anything to compare with what it is here (and my guess it that it is worse), Ken is doing well not to lose more.

Dr. J. J. Rives is now pastor of Centenary Methodist Church, Richmond, Virginia, where he has served for the past eight years. He is doing a great work with the Service men of his city. His "two little girls are both married, and each is the mother of a fine boy." We well remember Dr. Rives as minister at the Lexington Methodist Church, taking his M.A. degree along with us.

Tom Lyle, 633 West 45th Avenue, Gary, Indiana, is still district manager of Factory Stores, operating 25 restaurants in the Chicago district, feeding workers in the steel mills.

Dr. H. S. Liebert is an Osteopathic physician, practicing at 512 Methodist Publishing Building, Richmond, Virginia. "Hank" has been "popping people's bones" for 16 years, and I'd like to be lying on his table right now; I think he could do me some good. He is the father of three children.

James Spiers, General Delivery, Wilmington, North Carolina, left the farm to become supervisor, operating a crane in the construction of Liberty Ships. James, that's a real job. We have launched seven so far here, and I was present for one launching. Those cranes are really something to talk about.

Charlie Gaines, 1819 Willowbranch Terrace, Jacksonville, is with the Eastport Marine Construction Company, where he and his father are just now engaged in building 50 wooden oil barges.

John McVay, 1945 Fifth Avenue, Huntington, West Virginia, after spending fifteen years in display advertising, decided there was more "dough" in bakeries, so is now sales manager for the E. W. Mootz Bakery.

1925 Law Class Notes

George Wilson is practicing law in Owensboro, Kentucky. George now constitutes the entire firm since his brother Bill, '38L, went on active duty with the Navy. His family consists of Mrs. Wilson, an eleven year old boy, his fox terrier, two bird dogs of his own and a horse, the latter really eats like a horse.

Morris Abernathy is with the American Red Cross, Veterans Administration in Roanoke, Virginia. He also lectures to the School for Special Service on the campus of Washington and Lee on the Red Cross. He is married and has two daughters, nine and six.

Dorsey Mitchell writes from his new address, 627 North Pennsylvania Street, Indianapolis, Indiana, that he has been practicing law there since August, 1942, and that he previously practiced law in Clarksburg and Parkersburg, West Virginia.

Johnny Morrison is with the law firm of Brown, Jackson and Knight, in Charleston, West Virginia. Johnny has just finished a term in the State Senate as representative from Kanawha County. He has a young son, John C., III, five years old.

Ralph G. Morrissey joined the faculty of the Montgomery Bell Academy, Nashville, Tennessee, in September, 1943, as Professor of English.

1928

Herbert M. Sifford is a field director with the American Red Cross. He "invaded" with the troops in North Africa, in Sicily and in Italy. In Sicily and Italy he came in the first day of the landings; in North Africa he was "late"—three days behind the first Americans to touch shore. His experiences include many "hair-raising" incidents.

Edward H. Miller is a Major A.U.S., 30 West Grove Drive, Belle Haven, Alexandria, Virginia.

Lester Brown is a Lieutenant in the Army Medical Corps, and has recently been stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

Paul Daugherty is a Captain in the Army Air Forces, and has been stationed at the Pampa, Texas, Air Base. Paul has one child, nine years old.

Oldham Clarke, who was class agent this year for 1928-L, has law offices in the Kentucky Home Life Building in Louisville, and is practicing with the firm of Allen, McElwain, Dinning and Clarke.

1929

Irwin T. Saunders, who has been serving as Balkan Specialist in the office of the Foreign Agricultural Relations, Washington, D. C., is now back at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky, teaching in the Department of Sociology.

Ben Rawlins is now a General Attorney with the United States Steel Corporation in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. His address is 436 Seventh Avenue.

William Beard is assistant cashier of the Alamo National Bank of San Antonio, Texas. He has been expecting to go into the Naval Air Corps Reserves since he holds a commercial pilot's license.

Lt. Walter Wurzburger has written a very interesting letter from China. He became a buck private in the infantry immediately after Pearl Harbor, trained as an officer in the same branch, which training was so rugged that he takes pride in his survival; retrained as an ordnance officer; wound up in a new branch labeled Aviation Ordnance, and with the Air Force since. He was, at the time his letter was written, in the 14th Air Force commanded by General Chenault. He says the Chinese are cooperative, uncomplaining, and invariably cheerful and friendly "You get the feeling you want to help them."

Walter E. Hoffman is a partner in the law firm of Breedin & Hoffman, with offices in the National Bank of Commerce Building, Norfolk, Virginia. He was appointed Referee in Bankruptcy, March 17, 1942, and is serving as such for the cities of Norfolk, Portsmouth and Suffolk, and the counties of Princes Anne, Nansemond, Southampton, Isle of Wight, Accomac and Northampton. He officiates in college football games during the fall of each season as a member of the Southern Football Officials Association. He is married and has two children, a girl, born January 5, 1941, and a boy, born August 16, 1943.

Major John Osborne McNeel is serving with the Eighth Evacuation Hospital in North Africa. His home address is University, Virginia.

Capt. Denman C. Hucherson has been serving with the Medical Corps in Panama since July, 1943. He was home on furlough July, 1942, and was married to Miss Gladys Echols of Louisville, Kentucky. His home is in Lufkin, Texas.

Lt. John H. Senseney took an active part in the invasions of North Africa, Sicily and Italy. Strangely enough, he likes landings, says, "They are more fun than anything you ever do in the Army." He has done a great job of rounding up Germans single-handed. In Africa, on one of these occasions, he went hunting for snipers. It was a one-man expedition during which he shot all the windows out of a barracks and received the surrender of all personnel therein, and that's just on of his one-man jobs. Lt. Senseney is known throughout the Army as "Second Wave" Senseney. He prefers that group of assault craft.

Charles Wesley Kaufman has been appointed director of the processing technology section of General Foods Corporation's Central Laboratories, Hoboken, New Jersey. He is a member of the American Chemical Society and Institute of Food Technologists.

Chester Palmer, of the United States Marine Corps Reserve, has been stationed in the Office of the Naval Attache at Bogota, Colombia.

Lieutenant George Francis McInerney, who had been unofficially reported missing to the Alumni Office from several sources, is, we are glad to say, very much alive and hard at work as an instructor at the Hondo Army Airfield in Texas. He says: "It might be interesting to note that a Washington and Lee alumnus is the first man to have a flight of Negro students going through navigation training. I have thirty of them, from all over the country and they are now in their eighth week of the eighteen-week navigation course. They are the first Negroes to go through navigation and I was fortunate to be made their Flight Commander."

John Hawkins, who again served as Class Agent for the Law Class of 1939, now has law offices in the Kanawha Valley Building in Charleston, West Virginia.

Hugh Strange is a weather forecaster in the Army Air Forces, stationed in Georgia.

Lt. Robert Hoyt is serving with the United States Army Medical Administrative Corps in Arkansas.

Lieutenant John Mehler is in the Army's Quartermaster Corps.

Ferdinand Peter Maupai was awarded the degree of Doctor of Osteopathy from Kirksville College on December 10, 1943.

Edgar Lewis Smith sent Christmas Greetings to the Alumni Office from somewhere in the Middle East. He is in the U. S. Army.

1940

Lt. Ernest Woodward, II, has been awarded a Silver Star for gallantry in action. The citation on July 22, 1943, said he "volunteered to traverse an area for 600 yards alone past a Japanese ambushade in order to reach his regiment's bivouac area and return with assistance for the advance party of thirty-one men."

Captain William E. Buxton has been awarded the Air medal for meritorious achievement while participating in regular and hazardous flights over open sea and jungle terrain in the Panama Area. The presentation was made by Colonel Willis E. Taylor, chief of the Sixth Air Force Fighter Command, at a ceremony held at Howard Field, Canal Zone.

Gil Gardner is with the Office of Foreign Economic Administration, successor to Lend-Lease. In the evenings he is studying Russian with the idea of taking examinations for the State Department's Foreign Service. Richard Duchossis has recently been advanced from the rank of Lieutenant to that of Captain in a tank destroyer outfit, U.S. Army. He is only twenty-one years of age.

Jerry Shambart was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Quartermaster Corps of the Army upon his graduation from the Quartermaster School at Camp Lee, July 30, 1943. He was then ordered to duty in Texas. Later he was transferred from Quartermaster Corps to Corps of Engineers, Fort Belvoir, Virginia, now assigned to Camp Butner, North Carolina.

Warren Stuart was promoted from Lieutenant to Captain in July. He has had quite a varied experience in and around Africa. For nine months he was stationed at Allied Forces Headquarters doing liaison work between our forces and the French and British. His basic knowledge of French—acquired in prep school and Washington and Lee—helped out a good deal in this work.

Neely Young is now a first pilot on a Liberator—somewhere overseas. His son, Melvin Neely, II, was born on January 4, 1944.

Lieutenant James W. Funk, was reported by the War Department on October 2, 1943, as "missing in action" since September 27, 1943. Although the message failed to say, it was presumed that he was flying his Mitchell bomber in the Burma area. Lieutenant Funk's friends will be happy to know that following two weeks of thus being listed, he returned to duty on October 10th. This time, too, the message did not give details.

Alex Maish is now a cadet at the United States Military Academy at West Point. He expects to finish his work there in June of 1944.
