

Reflections continued

She taught History, Government and Civics at Asbury Park High School in Asbury Park, New Jersey for 31 years retiring in 1986 to return home to care for her mother.

Marie was a charter member of the Monmouth Shore Chapter of the National Smart Set. She was an active member of Saint Augustines Episcopal Church and a member of its Dorcas Society in Asbury Park, New Jersey. Since returning to Lexington, she attended the church of her childhood, the First Baptist Church of Lexington, Virginia.

Marie was a loving, charming, sophisticated lady who was always concerned about things being handled properly and she was a stickler for detail. She was a studious person who had the ability to converse about hapenings all over the world. The love she had for family was exemplified in her willingness to initiate and supervise her family's "Nature Club Outings" in Lexington. For many years, the family looked forward with anticipation to brainstorming with her in trying to make each outing better than the previous one and "Aunt Marie," as she was lovingly called by her nephews and nieces, was always in the middle of the happy times. We will miss her smile, her laughter, her love and enthusiasm and we thank God for the times we shared with Nannie Marie Wood Hayes.

*God be with you till we meet again,
By His counsels guide uphold you,
With His sheep securely fold you,
God be with you till we meet again.*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Wood family extends our deepest thanks to all of you who have shared with us in this period of reflection. Marie would have been pleased with your compassionate response. Continue to uphold the high standards of Christian ministry, particularly to the sick and the bereaved, because your love does and can make the difference. It certainly did for our family.

PALLBEARERS

Alexander B. Wood	Fred W. Wood
Brian A. Wood	Harry H. Wood
Clarence M. Wood	Harry W. Wood
Edward T. Wood	Rodney Wood
Edward T. Wood, Jr.	Fred Swann

INTERMENT

The Evergreen Cemetery
Lexington, Virginia

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES BY

Lewis Funeral Home
112 Randolph Street
Lexington, Virginia
463-5101

PROGRAMS BY

Comprograms, Etc. (215) 473-9031

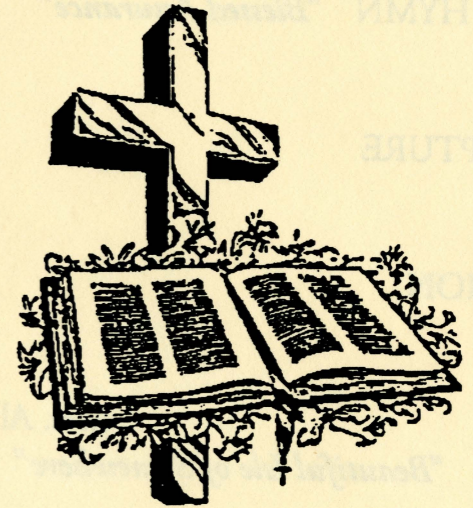

In Loving Memory
Of

Nannie Marie Wood Hayes

1921

-

1992

Service

*Wednesday Afternoon, May 13, 1992
One O'Clock*

First Baptist Church of Lexington
Main & Henry Streets
Lexington, Virginia

The Reverend James B. Harris, Pastor

The Order of Service

ORGAN PRELUDE

Mrs. Elvia D. Brooks

OPENING HYMN "Blessed Assurance"

THE SCRIPTURE

INVOCATION

SOLO

Mrs. Alice Moore

"Beautiful Isle of Somewhere"

EULOGY

Dr. John H. Hayes, Jr.

SOLO

Fred W. Wood

"My Heavenly Father Watches Over Me"

BENEDICTION

Reverend Harris

Nannie Marie Wood Hayes

Just Over in the Gloryland

*I've a home prepared where the saints abide,
Just over in the glory land;
And I long to be by my Savior's side,
Just over in the glory land.*

*What a joyful thought that my Lord I'll see,
Just over in the glory land;
And with kindred saved, there forever be,
Just over in the glory land.*

*Just over in the glory land,
I'll join the happy angel band,
Just over in the glory land.
There with the mighty host I'll stand,
Just over in the glory land.*

Reflections

*And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three;
but the greatest of these is love. I Cor. 13:13*

Nannie Marie Wood Hayes, the daughter of the late Clarence Mosby Wood, Sr. and Nannie Walker Wood was born July 26, 1921 in Lexington, Virginia.

She is survived by: loving husband, Dr. John H. Hayes, Jr. of Lexington; two sons, Ronald Wood Hayes of North Brunswick, New Jersey and Dr. John H. Hayes, III of Severna Park, Maryland; mother, Mrs. Nannie Walker Wood of Lexington; sister, Betty Jo Wood of Richmond, Virginia; and brothers, Harry Walker Wood of Lexington, Clarence M. Wood, Jr. and Alexander Barbour Wood, both of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Dr. Edward T. Wood of Old Westbury, New York; three grandchildren, three great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Marie attended the Lylburn Downing School in Lexington and graduated from Ingleside-Fee Memorial Institute in Burkeville, Virginia. She graduated from Virginia Union University in June, 1942 with a Bachelor of Arts in Social Studies.

She worked at Patterson Field in Dayton, Ohio for the Air Service Command during the early part of World War II. In 1944, Marie married John H. Hayes and spent the rest of World War II in various U.S. Air Corps Bases with her husband. Marie later completed various education and teaching courses at Rutgers University in New Brunswick, New Jersey and Monmouth College in Long Branch, New Jersey.

(Continued on back)