Spend the Summer Months Between the Alleghany and Blue Ridge Mountains

At

“BLANDOME”

Lexington, Virginia

Our private residence, a colonial manse, the type of Southern Aristocracy with all modern convenience seated on a three acre lot with a spacious lawn, and shaded with rare species of giant trees. Besides the residence are cottages and cabins furnishing accommodation to clubs, Scouts, tourists and vacationists, catering to adults and juveniles, male and female.

Scenery Near: Natural Bridge, Skyline Drive and many other beautiful mountain sceneries.

Medicinal Water: Sulphur, Alum, Lythia and Magnesia, all within fifteen minutes drive.

Highways: Lee Highway number 11 and Midland Trail number 60 intersect at the heart of the city and both seen from the residence.

An abundance of fresh milk and vegetables daily. Rates reasonable.
