

Hah - Du - Hand Principal
Trader to the Race.

Principal for fifteen years was unable to teach 7th Grade.

The latest method of teaching [redacted] the principal of fifteen years to Lexington Colored School, who ruled the Community with an iron hand. The School affairs were left entirely with [redacted]

The board <sup>left</sup> entrusted the school affairs entirely with [redacted] whom they knew was opposed to the progress of Negro Education. Thus the unqualified principal had full sway to play her part in crushing the education of the whole Community which she did with much assurance Until in 1922 when Rev. H. M. Holt, a methodist Minister, "Bestirred her as the eagle doth his nest". At this time the Rev. had two boys in the said school and he began to check up on [redacted] with her Phonics Chart in the 7th Grade. And her shrewdness of reviewing when she had gone the length of her ability. These citizens were aware of this condition. But the a question as to who would bell the Cat, so Rev. Holt being a large broad minded <sup>all bodied</sup> man that was on the alert for wrong doing anywhere to just poke out <sup>the</sup> ~~that~~ heads and off she goes.

Thus the Rev. proceeded to gether a few citizens the number was lighteen and started to war. A thorough investigation was made and many things were brought to light
