

Monday Morning

My Dear Mother

I write this morning to let you know that I am by the oversight of an allmerciful God spared & untouched through a battle which was so destructive to others.

Our company suffered some

Just as I have commenced my letter Mr McClung tells me he is going to Lexington & kindly promises to carry my letter so I can not write much. Watson was not hurt & got off safe
Good Bye

Yed

P.S. Watson says tell Han he recd her letter & will answer it as soon as possible -

Yed